STATE OF MINNESOTA, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, }
SAINT PAUL, March 2d, 1868. }

Hon. Thos. H. Armstrong, President Senate :

SIR:—I herewith return to the Senate, in which it originated,

S. F. No. 118, A bill entitled "an act to legalize certain bounty certificates described therein, and the action of the authorities issuing them, and to provide for the levy of a tax to pay the same,"

Without my approval.

I am credibly informed that the justness of the certificate referred to in said act is disputed by the authorities of the town of Ottawa, and the people whom the act seeks to compel to pay the certificates.

The act of March 9th, 1867, page 88, session laws of 1867, would seem to be broad enough to legalize all proper proceedings in the matter of bounty certificates.

I am very respectfully,

Your Ob't Serv't,
