Speaker of the House

Sir:

I am herewith returning without my signature House File No. 1293.

This bill would substantially reduce the minimum penalty for first degree murder in our state. First degree murder is premeditated murder, a deliberate, horrendous taking of human life. It is my firm belief that the sentence for such a crime should not be reduced.

This Legislature has created a full-time parole board, a major step toward improving the process of release and rehabilitation of persons convicted of crimes. It is my hope that the experience of the new board will provide further insights into the question of sentences and release procedures for all crimes, in the interest of improving our parole procedures and protecting the safety of our citizens.

Sincerely,

WENDELL R. ANDERSON
