Chapter Eight

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF THE LEGAL CAPACITY TO EXERCISE A REGULATED

PROFESSION ACQUIRED IN A MEMBER STATE OF THE EUROPEAN UNION

AND THE EUROPEAN ECONOMIC SPACE

(New, SG No. 77/2005, effective as of the date of coming into force of the Treaty for the Republic of Bulgaria's accession to the European Union)

Certification of the Right to Exercise a Regulated Profession

Article 63. (1) The right to exercise a regulated profession shall be certified with one of the following documents:

1. diploma for completed professional education;
2. document certifying professional qualification;
3. document certifying the acquired legal right to exercise a regulated profession.

(2) The authorities competent to acknowledge legal capacity to practice the respective regulated profession may require from the person applying for acknowledgement to provide, in addition to the documents referred to in Para. 1, evidence of the contents and duration of the completed education and training.

Powers of the Acknowledging Authorities

Article 64. The acknowledging authority may not refuse access to or right to exercise the respective regulated profession under the conditions valid for Bulgarian citizens to a Bulgarian citizen or citizen of a member state of the European Union and the European economic space who has acquired the respective qualification in these states on the grounds of lack of sufficient qualification, where the person applying for acknowledgement:

1. holds a diploma or another document required in any of these states for access to or exercise of the same profession on its territory which have been obtained in these states, or
2. during the last 10 years has exercised this profession full-time for at least two years or for a period equivalent to two full-time years in a member state of the European Union and the European economic space in which this profession is not regulated and holds a document for professional qualification issued by the respective competent authority.

Professional Experience

Article 65. (1) The acknowledging authority may require from the person applying for acknowledgement to prove that it has the required professional experience, where the duration of training in the cases referred to in Article 64, Items 1 and 2 is one year less than the required training duration for the regulated profession.

(2) The duration of the required professional experience referred to in Para. 1 may not exceed:

1. twice the duration of the lacking period of education and training, where this period refers to the training cycle following secondary education and/or to professional experience controlled by training supervisor and ending with an examination;
2. the period of lacking professional experience, where this experience refers to professional practice aided by a qualified specialist.

(3) The required professional experience referred to in Paras. 1 and 2 may not exceed 4 years.

Adjustment Training and Examination for Acknowledgement of Legal Capacity

Article 66. (1) The acknowledging authority may require from the person applying for acknowledgement to undergo adjustment training or to take an examination for acknowledgement of legal capacity.

(2) The acknowledging authority shall enable the person applying for acknowledgement to choose between adjustment training and examination for acknowledgement of legal capacity. For professions whose exercise requires precise knowledge of national legislation and whose significant and constant element is advice and/or assistance on national legislation, the acknowledging authority shall decide on a case-by-case basis whether to require adjustment training or examination for acknowledgement of legal capacity.

(3) The adjustment training and the examination for acknowledgement of legal capacity shall be required where the educational background of the person applying for acknowledgement covers theoretical and/or practical areas which are significantly different from those certified with the document for qualification.

(4) The acknowledging authority shall decide whether the knowledge and skills acquired by the person applying for acknowledgement during his professional experience compensate partially or fully for the differences referred to in Para. 3.

(5) Adjustment training shall be subject to assessment and may not last more than two years, where the receiving member states requires possession of a document of professional qualification or more than three years where the person does not hold a diploma for completed professional education.

(6) The terms and conditions for conducting the adjustment training and for its assessment, as well as the examination for legal capacity, shall be determined with an act issued by the acknowledging authority.

Specific Requirements for Acknowledgement of the Right to Exercise a Regulated Profession

Article 67. (1) Where there are specific statutorily determined requirements for the exercise of a regulated profession, the acknowledging authority shall require from the person applying for acknowledgement to present documents from the competent authorities of any of the member states of the European Union and the European economic space evidencing that these requirements have been met. Where a member state of the European Union and the European economic space does not issue such documents, compliance with the requirements may be evidenced with a declaration certified by a notary in the respective country.

(2) Where the exercise of a regulated profession requires a certificate of physical or psychic health, the acknowledging authority shall accept as sufficient evidence a document required in any of the member states of the European Union and the European economic space.

(3) The acknowledging authority may require the documents referred to in Paras. 1 and 2 to be issued not earlier than three months of the date of submission of the application for acknowledgement.

(4) Where for the exercise of a regulated profession it is required by law to make an oath, sign a declaration and/or register with a professional organisation, the acknowledging authority shall envisage a suitable and equivalent procedure for cases in which this legal form cannot be used by the person applying for acknowledgement.

Resolution of the Acknowledging Authorities

Article 68. (1) The acknowledging authorities shall issue a motivated resolution within 4 months of the date of submission of the application and the respective documents.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 30/2006) The refusal to acknowledge the qualification for a regulated profession shall be subject to appeal pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Code
