FIFTY-NINTH DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Friday, March 28, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., President Everroad presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

Our loving Father, we are grateful for the privilege of responsibility. Often pressing decisions cause inward frustrations. We know thou hast put us here on earth not for a picnic, but for a pilgrimage. May we all endeavor to live up to our capacities. While asking for Thy guidance, may we not shun hard thought, deep resolves, and high integrity. While recognizing we have feet of clay and can be shattered by frustrations, never let us lose awareness of our supreme worth, for we have been created in Thy spiritual image, and destined to live as Thy children. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Messrs. Burbach, Duis, Keyes, Klaver, Knight, Marvel and Whitney, who were excused and Mr. Bloom, excused until 9:30 a.m.

LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL—EIGHTIETH SESSION

SIXTY-FIRST DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Tuesday, April 1, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., President Everroad presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

Almighty God, as we begin to live this new day which Thou hast given us, grant that by all our thoughts, words, and deeds we may keep it bright and clean and wholesome. Help us to be true to our convictions without simply being obstinate; to be tolerant of other men's opinions without compromising our principles; to be men of our word and not just wordy men; to be leaders whose eyes are on the stars, but whose feet stand solidly on the ground; and to be determined that the affairs of our State may never become a sorry state of affairs. In short, O God, make us the kind of men and women who use our time finding solutions instead of creating problems, producing answers instead of just asking questions, providing action instead of merely making small talk. To this end guide us, sustain us, and strengthen us; in our Master's name we pray. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Messrs. Budd, Pedersen and Stull, who were excused.

The Journal for the Sixtieth Day was approved.

SIXTY-SECOND DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Wednesday, April 2, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 8:30 a.m., Mr. Wylie presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

O God, our Father, as our Lord had courage to set his face to a destination which meant his death, may we have courage to face the difficult issues of our day. As he chose to do what was the compelling right with the terrible consequences, may we have something of his courage just now. As he received cheers and jeers and a cross, may we also act according to principle rather than prestige.

May this honorable body do its duty and have courage to face the present, aware of the past, and dedicated to a better future.

In our Lord's name. Amen.

SIXTY-THIRD DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Tuesday, April 8, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., President Everroad presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

O God of us all, may the members of this legislative body ever keep before them the high responsibility which is theirs. They have an unprecedented challenge; may they make appropriate responses and continually to develop into statesmen. May their debates ever be upon issues, rather than upon human personalities. Give this body the vision to have courage for greatness. May they respond to their challenges, living neither in their vacuum of futility or the gold fish bowl of exhibitionism. Guide them to live as responsible, elected officials, with courage, integrity, vision, cool minds and compassionate hearts. In our Lord's name. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Messrs. Adamson, Bloom, Carstens, Holmquist, Pedersen and Wenzlaff, who were excused.

Prayer

Eternal God, we are grateful for the changing seasons; that out of the storms and clouds come calmness and sunlight; out of the seemingly dead soil, spring flowers and shrubs, giving beauty and glow to our land. As we sow, so shall we reap. May we plant certain spiritual seeds in our lives and cultivate these through all seasons; faith, which buds forth in confidence; trust, steadfastness, hope, whose seeds burst forth with optimism, vision and stability; love, the eternal bulb, flowering forth into creative goodwill, harmony and endurance. May we cultivate our inner gardens as carefully as we can, that our lives may bring forth good fruit. In our Lord's name. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Messrs. Holmquist, who was excused and Bloom, excused until 9:30 a.m.

23 of the district so as to exclude such land. Each dis-24 trict, formed pursuant to this section, shall be numbered 25 and the designation of the district shall be called, 26 using appropriate numbers, Vehicle Off-Street Parking 27 District No. _____ of the City of _____, 28 Nebraska. The ordinance creating the district need not 29 designate the exact location of the proposed off-street 30 parking facility but shall designate the sum of money to 31 be expended in the acquisition of property and construc-32 tion of such off-street parking facility. The total cost 33 and expenses shall include:

- 34 (1) The amounts awarded or paid for the property
- 35 to be acquired;
- 36 (2) All costs and expenses in construction of the
- 37 off-street parking facility;
- 38 (3) All engineering expense; and
- 39 (4) The estimated expense of issuing and selling
- 40 bonds and all other expenses which the city would not
- 41 have except for the creation of such off-street parking
- 42 district.

Sec. 14. That section 16-825, Revised Statutes
2 Supplement, 1967, be amended to read as follows:
3 16-825. In the ordinance creating the district, 4 the mayor and city council may provide that all of the 5 cost shall be paid for by special assessment against 6 the real estate located in such district in proportion 7 to the special benefit of each parcel of real estate or 8 that a portion of the cost shall be paid for by the city 9 out of the fund created by a levy upon all property 10 located within the district, or by the collection of fees 11 and charges for the use of such facility, or both. The 12 amounts of money specified in such ordinance not to be 13 paid for by the record landowners in such off-street 14 parking district may be financed by the issuance of 15 bonds of such city, which are obligated to be paid by 16 the general levy in such district on such property but 17 shall not be a general obligation bond of the city.

 18 The portion of such cost to be paid for by the district 19 or all of such cost if the ordinance creating such dis-20 trict provides that all of the cost shall be paid for by 21 the landowners, shall be assessed upon the lots and lands 22 in such district specifically benefited thereby in pro-23 portion to such benefits. The amounts thereof shall be 24 determined by the mayor and city council sitting as a 25 quasi-judicial body. An appeal by writ of error or 26 direct appeal to the district court of the county in 27 which such first-class or second-class city is located 28 may be taken from the decision of the city council in 29 the same manner and under like terms and conditions as 30 appeals may be taken from the amount of special assess-31 ments levied in street improvement districts as now 32 provided by law.

Sec. 15. That section 16-826, Revised Statutes
 2 Supplement, 1967, be amended to read as follows:

 4 parcel of land in such off-street parking district shall

 7 given to the landowners in such district by publication 8 of the description of the land, the amount assessed and 9 the amount of benefit, one time each week for three weeks 10 in a daily or weekly newspaper of general circulation 11 published in the city. The notice shall provide the 12 date, time and place of hearing for the determination of 13 any objection or protest by landowners in the district 14 as to the amount of assessment made against their land.

Sec. 16. That section 16-827, Revised Statutes
 2 Supplement, 1967, be amended to read as follows:
 3 ~~16-827.~~ The assessment of the special tax for the 12 that the mayor and city council may at the time of forma-

15 of the assessments over a period of twenty years, payable 16 one-twentieth in fifty days from the date of levy and one-17 twentieth each year thereafter through the nineteenth 18 year. As to assessments for this alternative method, one-19 twentieth of the total amount assessed against each lot or 20 parcel of land shall become delinquent in fifty days 21 after the date of levy of the same, one-twentieth in one 22 year, one-twentieth in two years, one-twentieth in three 23 years, one-twentieth in four years, one-twentieth in five

29 twentieth in fifteen years, one-twentieth in sixteen 30 years, one-twentieth in seventeen years, one-twentieth 31 in eighteen years and one-twentieth in nineteen years.
32 Each of such installments, except the first, shall draw 33 interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum 34 from the time of the levy until the same shall become 35 delinquent. After the same shall become delinquent, 36 interest at a rate not exceeding nine per cent shall be 37 paid thereon. Should there be three or more of such 38 installments delinquent and unpaid on the same property, 39 the mayor and city council may by resolution declare 40 all future installments on such delinquent property to 41 be due on a future fixed date. The resolution shall 42 set forth the description of the property and the name 43 of its record title owner and shall provide that all 44 future installments shall become delinquent upon such 45 fixed date. A copy of such resolution shall be published 46 one time each week for not less than twenty days in a 47 legal newspaper of general circulation published in the 48 city and after the fixed date such future installments 49 shall be deemed to be delinquent and the city may proceed 50 to enforce and collect the total amount due and all

Ziebarth, 37th District; Theodore C. Wenzlaff, 32nd District; Herb Nore, 22nd District and Henry F. Pedersen, Jr., 4th District.

WHEREAS, the number of school districts in the State of Nebraska has decreased in number from 6,734 in 1949 to 1,992 in 1968; and

WHEREAS, this reduction in the number of school districts, has, in many counties of the state, significantly reduced the volume of work required of the county superintendent; and

WHEREAS, the legal responsibilities applicable to the office of the county superintendent may, under prevailing circumstances, well be assigned to other entities; and

WHEREAS, the Nebraska Association of County Superintendents in its annual convention on December 3, 4, and 5, 1968, in Lincoln, Nebraska, approved the following resolution: The Nebraska Association of County Superintendents request of the Nebraska State Legislature, the establishment of an interim study committee in order to provide a gradual and orderly phasing out of the office of county superintendent.

WHEREAS, the State Board of Education has the general responsibility for the supervision and administration of the school system of the state; and

WHEREAS, the present actions of the majority of the State Board of Education have resulted in a serious erosion of progress in education in the State of Nebraska through its interference of the administration of the Department of Education, and have openly harassed the Commissioner of Education and members of the department staff, which has led to a deterioration and impairment of morale and leadership in educational pursuits, and engaged in political maneuvering at the expense of boys and girls in Nebraska's schools, and have circumvented the public's right to know through planned sub-rosa meetings of only selected board members, and have generally abdicated the leadership role and positive outlook for educational progress expected of a state education body; and

WHEREAS, the majority of the State Board of Education, through their actions, have violated state law by refusing to seek or accept the professional advice and counsel of the Commissioner of Education and most professional and lay organizations interested in educational quality, and thus have hampered the ability of the Commissioner of Education to provide the necessary supervisory and consultative services necessary for quality education to the schools of the State of Nebraska; and

WHEREAS, the State Board of Education has totally rejected research studies which could have advanced the cause of quality education in Nebraska; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NEBRASKA LEGISLATURE IN EIGHTIETH SESSION ASSEMBLED:

1. That the Legislature of the State of Nebraska censures the members of the State Board of Education who have perpetuated the conditions which presently exist by adding its no confidence vote to the existing feeling of the people of Nebraska.

SIXTY-SIXTH DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Friday, April 11, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., Speaker Warner presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

Eternal God, while working with bills and procedures of an objective nature, may we try to be objectively honest with ourselves and others. We pray for strength to harness our unruly tongues; to carry out responsibilities; to have the same criteria for judging ourselves that we apply to others. Forgive us for often wearing a friendly mask which hides a sullen heart, and using fine words which conceal shabby thoughts. May we strive to develop an identity between our outward and our inner person, that we may see ourselves as persons of integrity. In our Lord's name. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Messrs. Batchelder, Carstens, Klaver, Schreurs and Skarda, who were excused; and Mr. Bloom excused until 10:15 a.m.

LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL—EIGHTIETH SESSION

SIXTY-SEVENTH DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Monday, April 14, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m.,
Speaker Warner presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

O God, our loving Father, in these moments of quiet before the feverish activity of this day, give to this Legislature a quiet center from which to make decisions. Help our turbulent and tossed minds to be in contact with Thee, the author of our being and the source of all truth. Thou hast given us the key to life, but so often we merely try to break down the walls. Without Thy truth our words are empty, and without Thy goals our travels are often aimless. Ultimately our words and deeds are empty without Thy direction. Fill us with mercy, therefore, and may Thy joy be the wellspring from which our decisions are made. We pray in our Lord's name. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Messrs. Adamson, Batchelder, Danner, Holmquist, Robinson and Swanson, who were excused and Mr. Waldron, excused until 9:30 a.m.

LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL—EIGHTIETH SESSION

SIXTY-EIGHTH DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Tuesday, April 15, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m.,
Speaker Warner presiding.

Prayer

Eternal God, we confess we so often use our agility to avoid responsibility. Help us with the rush of constant pressures not to follow the lower levels and the easy escapes. Guide us lest we hurt those deeply upon whom we are most dependent. Through chance, or providence, we are here to do strategic work, and are challenged by issues far beyond our limited knowledge. Give to this Legislature humility of spirit, yet tenacity of intellect, that they may rise to new heights because of the mountainous issues before them. May each have a serenity of spirit which keeps them from frustrations, and enables the making of vital decisions in a calm and sane manner. In the name of our Master. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Messrs. Adamson, Swanson and Wylie, who were excused and Mr. Waldron, excused until 9:45 a.m.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

Eternal Father, we ask Thy divine guidance, strength, and sense of purpose be given to the members of this Legislature. Although they have great diversity within themselves and the people they represent, may they not strive to be individualistic comets flashing across the sky, but stars which are united into a constellation which gives a pattern and unity in the midst of diversity. While amplifying their individual convictions, may they ever remember they are part of the team working together to win the game for the benefit of the people of this State. In our Lord's name. RESOLUTIONS

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 37. Re: Law Enforcement in Indian Areas.

Introduced by C. W. Holmquist, 16th District, Chairman of the Legislative Council.

WHEREAS, the State of Nebraska was given civil and criminal jurisdiction over Indians and Indian territory in this state by the Act of Congress of August 15, 1953, generally known as Public Law 280; and

WHEREAS, the assumption of such jurisdiction has led to steadily increasing costs for law enforcement in certain counties of Nebraska, and particularly in Thurston County; and

WHEREAS, because of restrictions in original grants of land in Thurston County to Indians and Indian tribes, Thurston County has not had a sufficient tax base to meet the increasing costs of law enforcement; and

WHEREAS, since 1957, state assistance has been provided for law enforcement purposes in Thurston County, and the cost of this assistance has increased each biennium; and

WHEREAS, Public Law 90-284 adopted as an Act of Congress on April 11, 1968, contains a number of provisions dealing with civil rights and jurisdiction of Indians; and

WHEREAS, Section 403(a) of Public Law 90-284 provides that the United States is authorized to accept a retrocession of all or any measure of the jurisdiction acquired by a state pursuant to Public Law 280 of 1953; and

WHEREAS, a committee of members of the Legislature appointed by the Executive Board of the Legislative Council following adoption of Public Law 90-284 has studied the problems of law enforcement in Indian areas of this state and the question of a retrocession of jurisdiction, and has met with leaders of the Omaha and Winnebago tribes, county officials, and officials of the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NEBRASKA LEGISLATURE IN EIGHTIETH SESSION ASSEMBLED:

1. That the State of Nebraska hereby retrocedes to the United States all jurisdiction over offenses committed by or against Indians in the areas of Indian country located in Thurston County, Nebraska, acquired by the State of Nebraska pursuant to Public Law 280 of 1953, except as provided in paragraph 2 of this resolution.

2. That the retrocession of jurisdiction contained in paragraph 1 of this resolution shall not apply to any offenses involving the operation of motor vehicles on public roads or highways.

3. That the Executive Board of the Legislative Council is hereby authorized and directed to take all necessary action to put this resolution into effect, such action to include arrangements with the Department of the Interior and the department's Bureau of Indian Affairs concerning the assumption of law enforcement responsibilities in the areas of Indian country covered by this resolution.

1. Strike sections 1 to 2 and insert eleven new sections to read as follows:

“Section 1. That section 48-504, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, 1943, be amended to read as follows:

48-504. The Commissioner of Labor shall require with each application for a license a surety bond in the penal sum of two thousand dollars to be approved by the commissioner and conditioned that the obligor will not violate any of the duties, terms, conditions, provisions or requirements of sections 48-501 to 48-514, sections 2 to 9 of this act, or the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. “Sec. 2. That section 48-509, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, 1943, be amended to read as follows:

48-509. A registration fee not to exceed ~~two dollars~~ one per cent of the annual salary sought by the applicant may be charged by such licensed agency when such agency shall be of actual expense in advertising such individual applicant, or in looking up the reference of such applicant. Such registration fee shall be credited against the service charge if the agency obtains employment for the applicant. In all such cases a complete record of such references shall be kept on file, which record shall, during all business hours, be open for the inspection of the Commissioner of Labor, the chief deputy commissioner of labor or any other inspector appointed by the commissioner to make such inspection, and upon demand shall be subject to the inspection and examination by the applicant. Such registration fee shall be returned to applicant on demand, after thirty days and within sixty days from date of receipt, less the amount that has been actually expended by such licensed agency for the applicant, and an itemized account of such expenditures shall be presented to the applicant on request at the time of returning the unused portion of such registration fee, provided no position has been furnished by the licensed agency to and accepted by the applicant. No licensed person or persons shall, as a condition to registering or obtaining employment for such applicant, require such applicant to subscribe to any publication or exact other fees, compensation or reward, other than the registration fee, aforesaid, and a further ~~fee~~ service charge, based on a schedule of ~~fees~~ service charges which shall be prominently posted in the agency's place of business and filed with the Commissioner of Labor, to be payable at such time as may be agreed upon in writing and which shall not exceed the maximum service charges permitted under section 3 of this act; ~~Provided, that if through no fault of the applicant or employee, he fails to remain in service with the employer and other positions or places of employment are furnished to the applicant by such licensed agency, then such licensed agency shall not accept, collect or charge more than one fee every three months, but the further fee aforesaid shall not be received by such licensed person before the applicant has been tendered a position by such licensed person. In the event that the position so tendered is not accepted by or given such applicant, such licensed person shall refund all fees requested by the applicant, other than the registration fees aforesaid within three days after demand is made therefor.~~ Each licensed agency shall display at all times in a prominent place a printed card with a minimum height of twenty inches, and a width of fourteen inches with each letter to be a minimum of one-fourth inch in height, which shall state the maximum service charge of the first month's salary. No such licensed person shall send out any applicant for employment without having obtained a bona fide order therefor, and if it shall appear that no employment of the kind applied for existed at the place where such applicant was directed, such licensed person shall refund to such applicant within five days after demand, any sum paid by such applicant for transportation in going to and returning from such place and all fees paid by the applicant. In addition to the receipt provided to be given for registration fee it shall be the duty of such licensed person to give, to every applicant for employment from whom another or other fee or fees shall be received, an additional receipt, in which shall be stated the name of such

All receipts shall have printed on the back thereof, in the English language, the name and address of the Commissioner of Labor and the chief deputy commissioner of labor. Every such licensed person shall give to every applicant for employment a card or printed paper containing the name of the applicant, the name and address of such employment agency, and the written name and address of the person to whom the applicant is sent for employment. 15,000.00 - Or more	20%

The Director of Labor may, after public hearing, adopt regulations authorizing an increase in such maximum service charges if he finds that, because of changed economic conditions, such action is necessary to assure the continued financial soundness of licensed agencies, but no decrease in such maximum service charges may be so made.

The Director of Labor shall, by regulation, provide for adjustments in the service charge actually made when employment is terminated, through no fault of the applicant, in ninety days or less.

LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL—EIGHTIETH SESSION

SEVENTIETH DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Thursday, April 17, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., Speaker Warner presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

Almighty God, as in desperate times we are willing to reach for straws, give us sufficient perspective in life that our decisions may be based upon reality. Give us enough humility to use, but not worship, our mind; enough wisdom to be sensitive to Thy will; enough obedience to act on the great Commandment to love Thee and our fellow man. Guide the Legislature in the momentous decisions upon which they vote, that they may never drift into space, but keep their feet firmly planted upon the ground, and their minds firmly fixed upon the tasks before them. In our Lord's name. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Messrs. Budd and Skarda, who were excused.

Prayer

Almighty God, Thou who art the ground of our being and the hope of our desiring, we pray for deeper understanding in trying to draw together conflicting emotions, prejudices, and unknown problems into a pattern for living. We recognize that most of our ills stem from our human nature where fears, aggressiveness, and pride reside. We are aware that no clever arrangement of rotten eggs will ever make a good omelet. And so we pray for the desire through Thy help to change our natures. May we possess concern, goodwill, and a basic love for all people so at least we do our part in striving in this troubled world to live as a family under the guidance of an everlasting Father. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Messrs. Clark, Elrod, Klaver, Mahoney, Marvel and Skarda, who were excused.

Forbid it, Lord, that we should walk through thy beautiful world with unseeing eyes. Forgive us, Our Father, for taking our good things for granted, so that we are in danger of losing the fine art of appreciation. With such great need in every other part of the world, make us so grateful for the bounties we enjoy that we shall try, by Thy help, to deserve them more. Where we are wrong, make us willing to change; and where we are right, make us easy to live with. For Jesus' sake. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Messrs. Marvel and Skarda, who were excused and Mr. Nore, excused until 10:10 a.m.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT—Print in Journal

Mr. Syas asked unanimous consent to have the following letter printed in the Journal. No objections. So ordered.

April 16, 1969

Senator George Syas
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Senator Syas:

You have requested our opinion as to which of two amendments to L. B. 188, Nebraska Legislature, 80th Session (1969), concerning the apportionment of the Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska, could better withstand constitutional objection. Our conclusions may be summarized as follows:

A. The federal courts have, to the present date, avoided applying the "one-man one-vote" rule to boards such as the Board of Regents.

B. Present judicial authority suggests that the Nebraska Supreme Court also hesitate to question the sufficiency of the subject apportionment, but could afford a remedy in the case of mal-apportioned public bodies.

C. We cannot assure you that either of the apportionment systems which have been presented would meet the "one-man one vote" rule, as that rule has been developed, and seems to be developing.

Article VII, Section 10, Constitution of Nebraska, provides as follows:

"The Legislature shall divide the state, along county lines, into as many compact regent districts, as there are regents provided by the Legislature, of approximately equal population, which shall be numbered consecutively.

"The Legislature shall redistrict the state after each federal decennial census. Such districts shall not be changed except upon the concurrence of a majority of the members of the Legislature. * * *"

The current session of the Nebraska Legislature is considering L. B. 188, Nebraska Legislature, 80th Session (1969), to create eight districts for the Board of Regents, which number increases the present six districts. Two proposed systems are being appraised, which shall be herein referred to as the "Schmit amendment," and the "Committee amendment," respectively. The Schmit amendment would create districts as follows:

DISTRICT NO. (In order of population)	POPULATION (1960 Census)
I	189,596
III	181,113
IV	178,699
II	176,745
VIII	176,745
VI	174,404
VII	174,195
V	170,066

The Committee amendment would establish districts as follows:

DISTRICT NO.	POPULATION (1960 Census)
III	181,113
V	180,965
VII	179,813
IV	178,529
II	176,745
VIII	176,745

A. Until 1962, in the decision of the United States Supreme Court in Baker v. Carr, 369 U. S. 186, 7 L. Ed. 2d 663, 82 S. Ct. 691, the federal courts have considered the districting of local political and governmental units to be a political question, and therefore not subject to the scrutiny of the federal courts. This restraint of the federal courts was based, not so much on a lack of jurisdiction, but on a concept of comity the federal courts chose to leave to the states the apportionment of state and local bodies. Even this restraint was, of course, not followed where the local apportionment was intended to deprive racial minorities of their voice in government. See, e.g., Gomillion v. Lightfoot, 364 U. S. 339, 5 L. Ed. 2d 110, 81 S. Ct. 125.

Although the United States Supreme Court has, in Baker, and subsequent cases, assumed jurisdiction over the apportionment of legislative and certain other state and local bodies, that court has not gone so far as to reach the question of the apportionment of bodies such as the Board of Regents. In Avery v. Midland County, — U. S. —, 20 L. Ed. 2d 45, 88 S. Ct. —, the court did require equality in the apportionment of a local agency comparable to the Nebraska county boards of supervisors or commissioners. The court distinguished Sailors v. Board of Education, 387 U. S. 105, 18 L. Ed. 2d 650, 87 S. Ct. 1549; and Dusch v. Davis, 387 U. S. 112, 18 L. Ed. 2d 656, 87 S. Ct. 1554, in both of which, the court had failed to require reapportionment. The court drew its distinction on the basis that the latter agencies did not have legislative authority, and did not have the authority to reapportion themselves.

The above distinction seems relevant to the question raised concerning the amendments to L. B. 188. This bill would apportion the Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska. That board is primarily a non-legislative body, and more importantly, has no authority to apportion itself. Under this analysis, it would be our opinion that the federal courts would refuse to exercise jurisdiction over the question of the apportionment of the Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska.

B. The Nebraska Supreme Court has, in State v. Moorhead, 99 Neb. 527 , 156 N. W. 1067, held unconstitutional a statute which provided for a malapportioned county board. The court stated, Id., at 538:

“In so far as a legislature keeps within the limits of powers in enacting laws its motives cannot be inquired into, and its discretion is not a subject for review in the courts; but whenever and to the extent that it transcends its powers, it is conclusively presumed that it intended to so transcend them, and parol evidence of good motives or other considerations are not allowed to obviate the effect of such unlawful intent. * * * Nor is evidence admissible, in support of such apportionment, to show that one district, with a less population than another, was given the same representation because of the excessive assessed valuation of property therein, and the nature and character of its population and business interests. The legislature has no power to disregard the standard of apportionment as fixed by the Constitution.’ State v. Cunningham, 35 Am. St. Rep. 27 (83 Wis. 90).

“All voters are equal before the law. The Constitution will not permit one class of voters to be given more power to determine the government than is given another class. If the purpose is to give adequate representation upon the board to the farming interests, no reason is perceived why it could not be done in this case without violating a fundamental principle of our form of government by giving one class of voters more power in the government than is given to another class. Since perfect equality is impracticable, there is no doubt that the legislature may exercise a reasonable discretion in selecting the method of securing practical equality.

The court suggests a judicial reluctance to review the legislative discretion in apportionment cases. The court does, however, have the jurisdiction and duty to provide relief from clear and substantial malapportionment.

We may note that the Nebraska Supreme Court has indicated a reluctance to review the character of the membership of a board in a collateral action. In Ratigan v. Davis, 175 Neb. 416, 122 N. W. 2d 12, the court refused to grant relief from a tax certified by the governing board of the Municipal University of Omaha.

There, the university board was selected by the school board of the Omaha school district. Not all persons who paid taxes to the university, however, resided in the school district. The court refused to void the tax, regardless of the fact that some persons were taxed without representation. Inferentially, the case suggests that a mal-apportioned board could also be challenged only in a direct attack upon the character of the board, and not upon the actions of the board.

C. The above opinions do not, of course, conclude the questions which you have raised. First, these opinions are based upon current authority. The whole field of apportionment is undergoing rapid developments, and we cannot assure you that even the federal courts will not forego their current restraint concerning apportionment of bodies such as that in the present matter. Further, you have asked whether the proposed districts meet the "one-man one-vote" tests. Whether or not the courts would require that the "one-man one-vote" rule be followed in apportioning the Board of Regents, the Nebraska Constitution requires that the districts be "approximately equal" in population. Because neither rule would admit of an unreasonable variance in population, the Legislature should be aware of the requirements of the "one-man one-vote" rule, even though it may not be strictly followed.

We have set out above the substantial effects of the subject amendments. It will be noted that the Schmit amendment would provide for a largest district of 189,596 in population, which district would be 19,530, or approximately 11.5 per cent, larger than the smallest district, which would have 170,066. The Committee amendment would establish a largest district of 181,113, which would be 8,571, or approximately 4.7 per cent, larger than the smallest district of 172,542. All figures apparently were based upon the 1960 federal decennial census data.

The "one-man one-vote" rule, as developed by the United States Supreme Court, requires that members of bodies subject to the rule be elected from districts with populations as close to identical as may be practicable. See Kirkpatrick v. Preisler, U. S. S. C. (No. 30 and 31, October Term, 1968). This case says that the word "practicable," in the context of apportionment cases, does not mean politically practical, nor does it allow a rigid insistence upon the use of county, or other politically recognized lines, if such factors may result in a malapportionment. The court does recognize one possible excuse for a disparate population among districts—that of anticipated population changes. The court does not specifically state that other factors may enter into the question of practicability, but does insist that such factors, if used, must be supported by credible and convincing evidence.

It will be noted that the provision of the Nebraska Constitution requires that the various districts from which the members of the Board of Regents are to be elected shall be "approximately" equal. Although this word might admit of some disparity among the population of the districts, the word does require that the populations be nearly or about identical, that one can have no more than a little more or less population than another district. For discussions of the word "approximate," or "approximately," see Eastern Service Management Co. v. U. S., 243 F. Supp. 302; Garre v. Geryk, 145 Conn. 669, 145 A. 2d 829.

Whether the "one-man one-vote" rule, or the Nebraska "approximately equal" provision, is to be followed, any variation among the populations of the several districts raises the question of the validity of the apportionment plan. The greater the variation, the less convincingly it can be said that the apportionment plan is constitutionally acceptable. In Kirkpatrick, supra, the court invalidated a Missouri legislative apportionment which involved approximately the same disparity as that under the Committee amendment, and substantially less disparity than is included under the Schmit amendment.

The Schmit amendment provides for a greater population disparity than does the Committee amendment. For that reason, it is patently clear that the Schmit amendment does not meet the "one-man one-vote" requirement of mathematical preciseness as well as would be practicable. The Schmit amendment, therefore, would not meet the "one-man one-vote" rule. The Committee amendment also provides for some population disparity. We are not advised that a mathematically more precise apportionment would be impracticable, nor are we advised of the factors which would tend to make greater preciseness impracticable. Without such factors, we cannot say that the Committee amendment would meet the requirements of the "one-man one-vote" rule, as that rule has been developed by the United States Supreme Court.

If the Committee amendment were measured against the "approximately equal" test of the Nebraska Constitution, the amendment might be found to establish a sufficient apportionment system. The maximum population variation among the districts would be about five per cent. Such districts might be considered approximately equal. However, because this exact language has not been found to have been before any court before, and because of the current judicial trend toward mathematical equality of representation, we hesitate to advise you that the Legislature can safely provide for any apportionment which is not shown by credible and convincing evidence to be as nearly equal as may be practicable.

Even under the Nebraska Constitution, the Schmit amendment would seem subject to greater objection than would the Committee amendment. The population disparity of the Schmit amendment is greater, and therefore, its validity comes into greater doubt.

Very truly yours,

127 vision of the State Department of Education, devises 128 of real property or donations or bequests of other prop-129 erty, or both, if in its judgment any such devise, do-130 nation, or bequest is for the best interest of any such 131 school or the students attending thereat, or both; and 132 (14) Upon acceptance of any devise, donation, or 133 bequest as provided in this section, to administer and 134 carry out such devise or bequest in accordance with the 135 terms and conditions thereof. If not prohibited by the 136 terms and conditions of any such devise, donation, or 137 bequest, it may sell, convey, exchange, or lease prop-138 erty so devised, donated, or bequeathed upon such terms 139 and conditions as it deems best and to deposit all money

145 legal exercise of its obligations.

Sec. 4. That section 81-103, Reissue Revised
2 Statutes of Nebraska, 1943, be amended to read as follows:
3 81-103. The Governor shall have authority to es-4 tablish the salaries of all persons connected with the 5 various departments including the heads thereof; Provided, 6 that after July 1, 1969, any compensation or salary for 8 year, shall be approved by the Legislature.

Sec. 5. That section 81-107, Reissue Revised
2 Statutes of Nebraska, 1943, be amended to read as follows:
3 81-107. The Governor shall, in each department, 4 have the power to appoint such deputies, assistants, em-5 ployees, and clerical help, as shall be necessary or es-6 sential to the economical, efficient and proper 7 enforcement and administration of the laws of the state, 8 and shall at the same time fix the salaries of such ap-9 pointees and prescribe their duties; Provided, that after 10 July 1, 1969, any compensation or salary for any person 11 in excess of eighteen thousand dollars per year, shall 12 be approved by the Legislature. The Governor shall also 13 have the power to discontinue the service of the head 14 of any department or any employee when, in his judgment, 15 the same is no longer necessary. Such an appointee may 16 be required to serve in one or more departments and may 17 be transferred from one department to another from time 18 to time as an efficient and economical administration 19 shall require. The Governor shall confer with the 20 heads of the several departments who shall make rec-21 ommendations to the Governor, from time to time, rela-22 tive to appointments, services, salaries, and duties of 23 the appointees for their respective departments. In 24 providing for deputies, assistants, employees, or cler-25 ical help, the total expenditures for the biennium shall 26 not exceed the appropriation made by the Legislature for 27 such departments.

RESOLUTIONSLEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 39. Re: Revision of Nebraska's Criminal Laws

Introduced at the Request of the Governor, by William F. Swanson, 27th District.

WHEREAS, the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 passed by the Congress provides funds to states and local governments to encourage them to develop a plan for improved law enforcement, and the Commission on Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice of Nebraska has been designated to carry out the purposes of the federal act; and

WHEREAS, Nebraska's criminal laws have not been generally revised since 1873 and many of the provisions thereof are obsolete, redundant, inconsistent and vague; and

WHEREAS, the shocking increase in the crime rate in Nebraska must be halted and law enforcement in Nebraska must be improved; and

WHEREAS, good law enforcement depends upon a good criminal code and there is need for revision of Nebraska's criminal laws; and

WHEREAS, the Governor's Commission on Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice, in compliance with its responsibilities under federal law, proposes to prepare a revision of Nebraska's criminal laws with the use of federal matching funds at its disposal, as a step in controlling crime and achieving fair and effective law enforcement; and

WHEREAS, said commission seeks the cooperation and advice of the Nebraska Legislature in the drafting of such proposed revised criminal code; and

WHEREAS, comprehensive revision of Nebraska's criminal laws is a complex, immense and time consuming task and the Revisor of Statutes is burdened with many responsibilities and does not have the staff or the time to prepare such a revision.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Senator Jerome Warner
Speaker of the Legislature

FROM: Robert D. McManus, Acting Director
Department of Public Welfare

SUBJECT: Move the Department of Public Welfare

This is to request the permission of the Legislature for the Department of Public Welfare to move out of the State Capitol as soon as possible. The space on the third and fourth floor in the Capitol Building now occupied by the department is wholly inadequate and is grossly inefficient. These areas were originally intended to be storage space and are not suitable for a large department such as ours. The deteriorating condition on the fourth floor as well as the very unsatisfactory layout on the third floor make it impossible to operate efficiently under these conditions.

In addition, the department is presently renting space in the Lincoln Building and the Executive Building. By combining all of the activities of the department in one well laid out area, significant improvements in the operation of the Department of Public Welfare will immediately result.

A suitable building is available at the Lincoln Air Park West with 19,816 square feet, at a cost of 60¢ per square foot plus utilities. The rental of this building would result in an annual savings of approximately $1,000 less than we are presently paying for the space now being rented in the Executive and Lincoln Buildings. The cost of moving would be offset by the anticipated savings in efficiency which are reflected in our budget request for the next biennium. Governor Tiemann has approved our request to move.

Your cooperation and favorable consideration of this request will be greatly appreciated.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Governor Norbert T. Tiemann

SUBJECT: Move the Department of Public Welfare

The Department of Public Welfare requests permission to move from the existing quarters on the third and fourth floor of the State Capitol Building, Executive Building and Lincoln Building and consolidate the department in a building at the Lincoln Air Park West.

The space in the Capitol Building is wholly inadequate, and is grossly inefficient, as well as being very unsafe for our personnel. This space was originally intended to be storage space and should never have been assigned as office space. The deteriorating conditions on the fourth floor as well as the very unsatisfactory layout of the third floor make it mandatory that the space be evacuated immediately. It is impossible to operate efficiently under these conditions. By combining all of the activities of the Department of Public Welfare in one well laid out area, significant improvements in the operation of the department will immediately result.

A suitable building is available in the Lincoln Air Park West with 19,816 square feet at a cost of 60¢ per square foot plus utilities. Estimated first-year cost would be $24,000, including the cost of moving. Second-year costs are estimated at $19,500. Below are comparative costs.

Mr. Syas asked unanimous consent to have the following material printed in the Journal. No objections. So ordered.

February 5, 1969

Senator Jerome Warner
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol

Dear Senator Warner:

You have written to this office requesting our advice as to the validity of L.B. 324. This is a proposal to amend Section 39-1313, R. R. S. 1943. It relates to state highways and specifically requires the approval of the Legislature for the abandonment of any portion of the state highway system. Presently, this section requires the consent of the Governor and the proposed amendment would substitute the term "Legislature" as the consenting authority rather than the Governor.

A review of this legislation immediately raises the question as to whether or not it complies with Section 18 of Article III, Constitution of Nebraska. Insofar as applicable this section provides that the Legislature shall not pass local or special laws in any of the following cases: "* * *. Vacating roads, Town plats, streets, alleys, and public grounds. * * *." In United Community Services v. The Omaha National Bank, 162 Neb. 786, 77 N. W. 2d 576, the court stated that the Legislature cannot circumvent an express provision of the Constitution by doing indirectly what it could not do directly. The constitutional provision above noted prohibits the Legislature from enacting special legislation pertaining to the vacating of roads. It could be argued that the proposed amendment is an attempt to circumvent this provision of the Constitution. Under the present law portions of the state highway system may be relinquished and abandoned following certain procedural requirements.

The Legislature by approving specific recommendations would, arguably, be in fact dealing with specific roads or portions thereof by special and not general acts. We are aware of no cases which are based on this precise factual situation so we cannot say positively that such would be invalid under our Constitution, but it does appear to be questionable.

Another constitutional question which could be raised would be under Article II, Section 1. Constitution of Nebraska. This section provides:

“The powers of the government of this state are divided into three distinct departments, the Legislative, Executive and Judicial, and no person or collection of persons being one of these departments, shall exercise any power properly belonging to either of the others, except as hereinafter expressly directed or permitted.”

In this connection the veto power over vacating or relinquishing a part of the state highway system has by the Legislature been given to the Governor. It immediately appears that if this authority given the Governor is a proper one then it is properly an executive function and not a legislative function. Thus it is properly within the Executive department and the question is immediately raised whether or not it is such a function that cannot properly be retained by the Legislature under the doctrine of separation of powers. In State, ex rel. Randall v. Hall, 125 Neb. 236, 243, 249 N. W. 756, our court stated:

“James Wilson, one of the signers of the Constitution, and a justice of the United States supreme court, in one of his law lectures said that the independence of each department of our government required that its proceedings should be free from the remotest influence, direct or indirect, of either of the other two departments. Mr. Justice Story said that neither of the departments ought to possess, directly or indirectly, an overruling influence in the administration of their respective powers.

It was noted by the court in that case that our system of government distributes the powers between the three coordinate departments, the Legislative, the Executive, and the Judicial. Each of these three independent departments derives its powers directly from the people, and is responsible to them. Thus, if the veto power authorized under this section is properly an executive power, then it could not be retained by the Legislature and still comply with Article II, Section 1, of our Constitution. While there are numerous cases holding that the Legislature may not delegate legislative functions to an executive agency without adequate guidelines nor may legislative or executive functions be delegated to the courts, there are fewer cases dealing with the exercise of executive or judicial functions by the Legislature. Again, we find no case dealing with this specific situation so we cannot state positively that this proposed amendment would be invalid, but again a substantial constitutional question would be raised.

Yours very truly,

February 26, 1963

Senator George Syas
Nebraska State Legislature
State House

Re: L. B. 324 and L. B. 325

Dear Senator Syas:

L. B. 324 provides that no new building may be constructed nor buildings or lands bought by the state or any state agency without the prior approval of the Legislature, and no expenditure from the State Institutional and Military Department Building Fund may be made without prior authorization of the Legislature. L. B. 325 provides that the Legislature rather than the Governor must consent to the acquiring of title to real property by the Game, Forestation and Parks Commission.

You ask (1) whether or not L. B. 324 and L. B. 325 encroach upon the executive power so as to be in violation of the constitutional provision as to separation of powers, and (2) whether or not an amendment giving to the Legislative Council or a committee of the Legislature power to give such approval or authorization when the Legislature is not in session would be in violation of that same constitutional provision.

Article II of the Nebraska Constitution provides:

“The powers of the government of this state are divided into three distinct departments, the legislative, executive and judicial, and no person or collection of persons being one of these departments, shall exercise any power properly belonging to either of the others, except as hereinafter expressly directed or permitted."

It is elemental that the Legislature has the power to appropriate money of the state, and, except as it is restricted by constitution, the legislature has exclusive power to decide how, when and for what purposes public funds shall be applied in carrying on state government. So, too, the Legislature may grant or withhold authority of an executive body to acquire estate for the State of Nebraska. See, Fischer v. March, 113 Neb. 153, 202 N.W. 422; State ex rel. Anderson v. Fadely, (Kansas) 308 P.2d 537; People v. Tremaine, 252 N.Y. 27, 168 N. E. 817; 29 C.J.S. Eminent Domain, Section 211, p. 1131; 81 C.J.S., States, Section 104, p. 1076. This the Legislature does by passing bills which grant that authority or make that appropriation.

But by these bills we are confronted with an appropriation made, and an authority granted which are conditioned on the subsequent approval and authorization of the Legislature of any proposed expenditure or use of that power. How is the Legislature to exercise this retained authority? By passing another law, or by simple motion, or resolution?

If another law is necessary, what purpose is served by the original appropriation or grant of authority? It would appear that the reservation of approval power effectively nullifies any attempted appropriation or grant of power. If the Legislature attempts to grant approval or authorization by motion or resolution, then it is either attempting to legislate without passing a law, or it is usurping the authority of the executive by substituting its discretion for that of the executive in deciding which contract to enter into, and its terms and conditions, whether it be for constructing a building or for acquisition of land.

If the Legislature may do this, it can also, by similar provisions in other law, require the State Auditor to seek its permission to audit a state department or a county, or require the Attorney General to first ask the Legislature before he could defend the state against legal attack. Reduced to an absurdity, such provisions could be carried to such an extent that no executive activity could proceed without prior consent for each individual act.

While the Legislature has the power and authority to decide all of these matters before making any appropriation, or before granting any authority, yet if it seeks to retain control by inserting in its laws and bills the requirement that no action be taken or money spent until subsequent approval of the Legislature be granted, then it is in effect, both making the law and administering it, appropriating the money and spending it, and the constitutional system of separation of powers would be destroyed.

What would be the situation if amendment to the bills were made to allow the Legislative Council or a committee of the Legislature to exercise this power of approval when the Legislature is not in session? Such bodies would not have any authority to pass laws or to make resolutions as does the Legislature. Any exercise of this attempted delegated authority would clearly be executive in its nature, substituting the discretion of the council or a committee for that of the executive. That this may not be done is self-evident. If the Legislature may not do it, certainly any group or committee of the Legislature may not do it. As Judge Pound said in People v. Tremaine, supra:

“* * * The legislative power appropriates money, and, except as to legislative and judicial appropriations, the administrative or executive power spends the money appropriated. Members of the legislature may not be appointed to spend the money. * * *”

And the Supreme Court of the United States, in Springer v. Philippine Islands, 277 U.S. 189, said:

“* * * Legislative power, as distinguished from executive power, is the authority to make laws, but not to enforce them or appoint the agents charged with the duty of such enforcement. The latter are executive functions. * * *”

See, also, State ex rel. Johnson v. Hagemeister, 161 Neb. 475, 73 N.W.2d 625.

Herbert Brownell, Jr., while Attorney General of the United States, and writing for the Dickinson Law Review, No. 60, pgs. 1-5, discussed the provisions of the Defense Appropriation Act of 1956, and its effect on the separation of powers. That act reserved to the Appropriations Committee of the Congress the right to disapprove and forbid action by the Secretary of Defense in disposing of or transferring work performed for a period of three years or more by civilian personnel of the Department of Defense. Mr. Brownell said that the provision was an attempted delegation of power to a committee or its members to make contracts, by conferring on them power to disapprove a contract which an officer of the executive branch wishes to make, and concluded:

“* * * The present proviso cannot be sustained on the theory that it is a proper condition attached to an appropriation. It is recognized that the Congress may grant or withhold appropriations as it chooses, and when making an appropriation may direct the purposes to which the appropriation shall be devoted. It may also impose conditions with respect to the use of the appropriation, provided always that the conditions do not require operation of the government in a way forbidden by the Constitution. If the practice of attaching invalid conditions to legislative enactments were permissible, it is evident that the constitutional system of the separability of the branches of government would be placed in the gravest jeopardy. * * *

It is our conclusion that, while the Legislature has exclusive control over appropriations and the granting of the power to take title to real estate, it must exercise this control when it passes the bills in which it limits or restricts, or permits the action of the executive agency involved. It may not retain control over the expenditure or use of the power by requiring approval of the Legislature or any committee of the Legislature subsequent to the passage of the law in which the appropriation or power is given. To do so is to invade the executive functions in such a manner as to violate Article II of the Nebraska Constitution requiring the separation of powers of government. State ex rel. Johnson v. Hagemeister, supra; People v. Tremaine, supra; Dean v. Timmerman, 106 S.E.2d 665; Bramlett v. Stringer, 186 S. Car. 134, 195 S.E. 264; 42 Am. Jur., Public Funds, Section 50, p. 752.

Senator George Syas
Nebraska State Legislature

Dear Senator:

You call our attention to L. B. 851 and suggest that the proposed amendment is a violation of the separation of powers doctrine of our Constitution. The purpose of the bill is to restrict the Commission from purchasing or otherwise acquiring title to sites without the approval of the Legislature. This is to be accomplished by amending Section 81-805, R. S. Supp., 1967, specifically as follows:

* * *. With the consent of the Governor and the Legislature, it may be purchased, when funds on hand or appropriated therefor are sufficient, or by gift, devise, or otherwise, acquire title in the name of the State of Nebraska to sites therein situated * * *, all within the limits of amounts that may be appropriated, contributed, or available therefor. * * *”

We are enclosing a copy of an opinion wherein we discuss a similar proposition in L. B. 324. Our discussion begins on page 2 of this opinion and our conclusion would be essentially the same.

We might point out that what the Legislature would be essentially doing by L. B. 851 is to repeal the authority of the Game and Parks Commission to acquire title sites for the stated purposes. This is further complicated by leaving apparent authority to do so in the statutes with no indication of how the consent should be manifested. Obviously, consent would not necessarily be given merely because the appropriation bill might appropriate funds for such purposes. We might suggest that the Legislature could accomplish the same thing by actually repealing the authority which it is attempting to limit by the proposed amendment.

Yours truly,

Enclosure

March 3, 1969

Senator George Syas
Nebraska State Legislature
State Capitol

Dear Senator Syas:

You have requested our opinion of the constitutionality of a statute reserving to the Legislature, or to the Executive Board of the Legislative Council when the Legislature is not in session, the authority to approve or disapprove the removal of state offices from the State Capitol. In our opinion, this statute violates Article II, Section 1, Nebraska Constitution.

Section 72-701, R. R. S. 1943, requires that all public offices of the state shall be kept at the City of Lincoln, which is the permanent seat of government of the State of Nebraska. Section 72-701.08, R. R. S. 1943, provides as follows:

“Any board, agency, commission, or department of the state government not otherwise specifically authorized by law may use funds available for the purpose of renting office space outside of the State Capitol when the terms and location are approved by the Governor in writing and the acquisition of space outside of the State Capitol has been approved by motion of the Legislature when in session or by majority vote of the Executive Board of the Legislative Council when the Legislature is not in session.”

These statutes require that state offices be maintained in the City of Lincoln, but do not require that they be housed in the State Capitol. Some offices are, of course, required by specific statute to remain at the State Capitol. See, for example, Section 60-1404, R. R. S. 1943. Apparently the Legislature has not contemplated that all state offices must be housed in the more-or-less limited space in the State Capitol. In Section 72-701.08, R. R. S. 1943, the Legislature has attempted to leave the question of the allocation of state office space to the Governor acting with the approval of the Legislature or a legislative agency.

The present question involves the rather narrow line between the executive and legislative branches of government. The two branches of government are independent, and must remain so. Article II, Section 1, Nebraska Constitution, provides as follows:

“The powers of the government of this state are divided into three distinct departments, the Legislative, Executive and Judicial, and no person or collection of persons being one of these departments, shall exercise any power properly belonging to either of the others, except as hereinafter expressly directed or permitted.”

The Legislature acts by legislating—that is, it passes bills, which, with the Governor’s signature, become the law of the State of Nebraska. Only where the Legislature has been expressly or impliedly authorized to do so may it exercise the essentially ministerial functions of the executive department.

We have found no decision which directly discusses the nature of the management of the state office space. Such seems, however, to involve primarily ministerial or administrative acts and decisions. Indeed, there would seem to be no constitutional objection to a statute authorizing the Governor to locate all the state offices. Perhaps an even more relevant factor, however, is the manner in which the present statute directs the transfer to be perfected. Such transfer of offices is to be approved through the concurrent action of two agencies, one legislative and one executive. Obviously, either the executive officer is acting in a legislative capacity, or the legislative agency is acting in an executive capacity. Except where the Constitution so provides, neither branch of government is permitted to perform in the capacity of the other. See, for example, State ex rel. Johnson v. Hagemeister, 161 Neb. 475, 73 N. W. 2d 625, which discusses the authority of the Legislature to participate in the essentially executive act of appointing officers; and Elmen v. State Board, 120 Neb. 141, 231 N. W. 772, which discusses the Governor's role in the essentially legislative role of appropriating the revenues of the state.

A former opinion of this office, at Report of Attorney General, 1963-1964, No. 22, p. 37, discussed the general problem involved in the reservation of supervisory authority by the Legislature. The conclusory paragraph of that opinion draws the lines which should control the present question, as follows:

“It is our conclusion that, while the Legislature has exclusive control over appropriations and the granting of the power to take title to real estate, it must exercise this control when it passes the bills in which it limits or restricts, or permits the action of the executive agency involved. It may not retain control over the expenditure or use of the power by requiring approval of the Legislature or any committee of the Legislature subsequent to the passage of the law in which the appropriation or power is given. To do so is to invade the executive functions in such a manner as to violate Article II of the Nebraska Constitution requiring the separation of powers of government. * * *”

Section 72-701.08, R. R. S. 1943, permits either the Legislature or one of its agencies to carry out certain acts. Clearly, the Legislature did not contemplate that a new statute would be required each time it should be asked to authorize the removal of a state office. A statute authorizing the Legislature to enact a statute would be either illegal or redundant. Therefore, it is clear that the Legislature has attempted to authorize itself to participate other than in a truly legislative capacity, with an executive officer, in the performance of an act.

There would seem to be no question but that the Legislature could authorize the executive department to apportion capitol office space, and to permit the use of office space outside the capitol. Where the Legislature has reserved to itself a role in this function, it follows that the Legislature has attempted to insert itself into an essentially executive function.

Further, it is quite certain that a mere agency of the Legislature cannot legislate. The Executive Board of the Legislative Council, in approving a transfer of an office from the State Capitol, performs in a clearly administrative manner.

On the basis of the above discussion, it is our opinion that Section 72-701.08, R. R. S. 1943, does, as you suggest, violate the separation of powers doctrine embodied in Article II, Section 1, Nebraska Constitution.

We do not wish, in expressing the above opinion, to suggest that the Legislature has no authority to regulate the occupancy of the State Capitol. It could, by proper legislation, direct those agencies which are to occupy the building, and those which are to be housed outside the building. Even such power would seem limited, in that the Legislature could not frustrate the constitutional officers through the denial to them of sufficient office space for the performance of their duties. Alternatively, the Legislature could also provide the general standards to be followed in determining the offices which are to be located outside the capitol, with the administration of the relocation to be left to an executive officer. In other words, the Legislature may either itself control the use of the capitol, or it may delegate that authority to control. It may not, however, delegate that authority in the manner of Section 72-701.08, R. R. S. 1943.

A further restriction of the above stated opinion might also be in order. We would be of the opinion that the Legislature could reserve to itself such space in the capitol as should be necessary or reasonable to the proper operation of the Legislature, and to authorize a legislative agency to regulate the use of the space when the same should be temporarily unneeded by the Legislature. Here, the executive authority of office management would be reasonably related to the legislative functions. For a discussion of the relationship between authority and function, see State, ex rel. School Dist. v. Ellis, 163 Neb. 86, 77 N. W. 2d 809; and 16 C. J. S., Constitutional Law, Sec. 130, p. 547, n. 40.

Very truly yours,

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., Speaker Warner presiding.

Prayer was offered by Rev. W. L. Van Auken, Associate Pastor, Westminster Presbyterian Church.

Prayer

Almighty God, the Giver of all good things, without whose help all labor is insufficient, and without whose grace all wisdom is folly, grant that our prayers this day shall be a sincere acknowledgment on our part of our need of thee. Save us from the formalism which kills the Spirit; from the traditional which keeps new life from springing forth; and from the ordinary which dampens all enthusiasm. Open thy hand toward us yet again, and may we receive from Thee such good things as thou hast prepared for this day. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL—EIGHTIETH SESSION

SEVENTY-SEVENTH DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Monday, April 28, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., President Everroad presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

Save this moment, Oh Lord, from being merely a gesture to custom or convention, and make it a real experience for each of us in this place, as we call upon Thee for guidance and for help. We have felt Thee near and beside us in the exalted experience of worship in church; make us now to feel Thy nearness in the business of the day—the unseen Delegate, present and voting. Vote through these men and women, we pray Thee, that what they say and what they do may be in accordance with Thy will for this land that we love so much. Thou hast said: 'When ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have aught against any.' Give us the grace to lay aside all bitterness or resentment we may be keeping in our hearts, lest their acid eat into our peace and corrode our spirits. Thou hast said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.' Give us the grace today to think not of what we can get but of what we can give that a new spirit may come into our work with a new vision and a new purpose, that Thou wilt delight to bless. We ask these things in Thine own name and for Thy sake. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Mr. Kremer, excused until 11:15 a.m. and Mr. Nore, who was excused.

LEGISLATIVE BILL 1025. Placed on General File as amended.

Standing Committee amendments to LB 1025:

1. Insert 11 new sections to be known as sections 10 to 20 and to read as follows:

"Sec. 10. In addition to the powers granted by 2 sections 1 to 9 of this act, any county may create an 3 airport authority. Such authority shall be managed and 4 controlled by a board which shall have full and exclu-5 sive jurisdiction and control over all facilities owned 6 or thereafter acquired by such county for airport pur-7 poses. Each such board shall be a body corporate and 8 politic, constituting a public corporation and an agency 9 of the county for which such board is established. Each 10 board shall consist of five members. Except for members 11 initially appointed, members shall serve for terms of 12 six years and shall be nominated and elected in the man-13 ner provided by law for election of nonpartisan officers 14 of the county. Two members shall be elected at the first 15 general election after creation of the authority, two 16 members at the second general election after creation of 17 the authority, and one member at the third general elec-18 tion after the creation of the authority. The county 19 board creating the authority shall appoint board members 20 to serve until their elected successors take office.
 21 Members of the board must be residents of the county for 22 which the authority is created. Any vacancy on a board 23 shall be filled by temporary appointment by the county 24 board until a successor can be elected at the next general 25 election. A member of such board may be removed from 26 office for incompetence, neglect of duty, or malfeasance 27 in office. An action for removal of such member may be 28 brought, upon resolution by the county board, in the dis-29 trict court of the county in which the authority is 30 located.

31 The members of the board shall not be entitled to 32 compensation for their services, but shall be entitled 33 to reimbursement of expenses paid or incurred in the 34 performance of the duties imposed upon them by the pro-35 visions of this act. A majority of the members of the 36 board then in office shall constitute a quorum. The 37 board may delegate to one or more of the members, or to 38 its officers, agents, and employees, such powers and 39 duties as it may deem proper. The board and its cor-40 porate existence shall continue only for a period of 41 twenty years from the date of appointment of the members 42 thereof and thereafter until all its liabilities have 43 been met and its bonds have been paid in full or such 44 liabilities and bonds have otherwise been discharged.
45 When all liabilities incurred by the authority of every 46 kind and character have been met and all its bonds have 47 been paid in full, or such liabilities and bonds have 48 otherwise been discharged, all rights and properties of 49 the authority shall pass to and be vested in the county.
50 The authority shall have and retain full and exclusive 51 jurisdiction and control over all projects under its 52 jurisdiction, with the right and duty to charge and col-53 lect revenue therefrom, for the benefit of the holders 54 of any of its bonds or other liabilities. Upon the 55 authority's ceasing to exist all its remaining rights 56 and properties shall pass to and vest in the county.

Sec. 11. (1) Any county creating an authority 2 shall by resolution or resolutions, convey or transfer to 3 it any existing airport or any other property of the city 4 for use in connection with a project, including real and 5 personal property owned or leased by the county and used or 6 useful in connection therewith. In case of real property so 7 conveyed, the title thereto shall remain in the county, but 8 the authority shall have the use and occupancy thereof for so 9 long as its corporate existence shall continue. In the 10 case of personal property so conveyed, the title shall 11 pass to the authority. Any conveyance of an existing 12 airport shall be subject to any leases or agreements duly 13 and validly made by the county affecting such airports 14 or the property so conveyed; Provided, that any such lease 15 or agreement which is inconsistent with the ability of 16 the authority to issue negotiable bonds may be renegotiated 17 by the authority.

18 (2) Such county may acquire by purchase or con-19 demnation real property in the name of the county for the 20 projects or for the widening of existing roads, streets, 21 parkways, avenues, or highways, or for new roads, streets, 22 parkways, avenues, or highways to a project, or partly 23 for such purposes and partly for other county purposes, 24 by purchase or condemnation in the manner provided by 25 law for the acquisition of real property by such county.
26 Such county may also close any roads, streets, parkways, 27 avenues, or highways as may be necessary or convenient 28 to facilitate the construction or operation of a project.

29 (3) Contracts may be entered into between the 30 county and an authority, or between other political sub-31 divisions of the State of Nebraska and such county or 32 authority, or between each and any of them, providing for 33 the conveyance of property to such county or authority 34 for use in connection with a project, and for the closing 35 of streets, roads, parkways, avenues, or highways. The 36 amounts, terms, and conditions of payment if any shall 37 be made by such county or authority in connection with 38 such conveyances. Such contracts may also contain cove-39 nants by such county, or such political subdivision, as 40 to the road, street, parkway, avenue, or highway improve-41 ments to be made by such county or such political subdi-42 vision. Any county board may authorize such contracts 43 between the county and the authority by resolution, and 44 no other authorization on the part of such county for 45 such contracts shall be necessary. All obligations of 46 such county for the payment of money to an authority 47 incurred in carrying out the provisions of this act shall 48 be included in and provided for by each annual budget of 49 such county thereafter made until fully discharged. In 50 the case of other political subdivisions of the state, 51 such contracts shall be authorized as provided by law.

52 (4) An authority operating under the provisions 53 of this act may acquire real property for a project in 54 the name of the county in which it was established at 55 the cost and expense of the authority by purchase or 56 condemnation pursuant to the laws relating to the con-57 demnation of land by counties. The authority shall have 58 the use and occupancy of such real property so long as 59 its corporate existence shall continue.

60 (5) In case an authority shall have the use and 61 occupancy of any real property which it shall determine 62 is no longer required for a project than, if such real

63 property was acquired at the cost and expense of the 64 county, the authority shall have the power to surrender 65 its use and occupancy thereof to the county. If such 66 real property was acquired at the cost and expense of the 67 authority, then the authority shall have power to sell, 68 lease, or otherwise dispose of said real property. Such 69 authority shall retain the proceeds of sale, rentals, or 70 other money derived from the disposition thereof for its 71 corporate purposes.

Sec. 12. Any authority established under the 2 provisions of this act shall have power:
3 (1) To sue and be sued;
4 (2) To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure;
5 (3) To acquire, hold, and dispose of personal 6 property for its corporate purposes;
7 (4) To acquire, in the name of the county, by 8 purchase or condemnation, real property or rights or 9 easements therein necessary or convenient for its cor-10 porate purposes, and, except as may otherwise be provided 11 herein, to use the same so long as its corporate exist-12 ence shall continue;
13 (5) To make by-laws for the management and regu-14 lation of its affairs, and subject to agreements with 15 bondholders, to make rules and regulations for the use 16 of projects, and the establishment and collection of 17 rentals, fees, and all other charges for services or 18 commodities sold, furnished, or supplied by such author-19 ity. Any person violating such rules shall be guilty of 20 a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be 21 fined not more than one hundred dollars, or imprisoned 22 in the county jail not more than thirty days, or both 23 such a fine and imprisonment;
24 (6) With the consent of the county, to use the 25 services of agents, employees and facilities of the 26 county, for which the authority may reimburse the county 27 a proper proportion of the compensation or cost thereof, 28 and may also use the services of the county attorney as 29 legal advisor to the authority;
30 (7) To appoint officers, agents, and employees 31 and fix their compensation;
32 (8) To make contracts, leases, and all other 33 instruments necessary or convenient to the corporate pur-34 poses of the authority;
35 (9) To design, construct, maintain, operate, 36 improve, and reconstruct so long as its corporate exist-37 ence shall continue such projects as shall be necessary

38 and convenient to the maintenance and development of 39 aviation services to and for the county in which such 40 authority is established, including landing fields, heli-41 ports, hangars, shops, passenger and freight terminals, 42 control towers, and all facilities necessary or convenient 43 in connection with any such project and also to contract 44 for the construction, operation, or maintenance of any 45 parts thereof, or for services to be performed thereon, 46 and to rent parts thereof and grant concessions thereon; 47 all on such terms and conditions as the authority may 48 determine;

49 (10) To include in such project, subject to zoning 50 restrictions, space and facilities for any or all of the 51 following: Public recreation, business, trade or other 52 exhibitions, sporting or athletic events, public meetings, 53 conventions, and all other kinds of assemblages, and in 54 order to obtain additional revenues, space, and facilities 55 for business and commercial purposes. Whenever the author-56 ity deems it to be in the public interest, the authority 57 may lease any such project or any part or parts thereof, 58 or contract for the management and operation thereof or 59 any part or parts thereof. Any such lease or contract 60 may be for such period of years as the authority shall 61 determine;

62 (11) To charge fees, rentals, and other charges 63 for the use of projects under the jurisdiction of such 64 authority subject to and in accordance with such agree-65 ment with bondholders as may be made as hereinafter pro-66 vided. Subject to contracts with bondholders, all fees, 67 rentals, charges, and other revenues derived from any 68 project shall be applied to the payment of operating, 69 administration, and other necessary expenses of the au-70 thority properly chargeable to such project and to the 71 payment of the interest on and principal of bonds or 72 for making sinking fund payments therefor. Subject to 73 contracts with bondholders, the authority may treat one 74 or more projects as a single enterprise in respect of 75 revenues, expenses, the issuance of bonds, maintenance, 76 operation, or other purposes;

77 (12) To certify annually to the county board the 78 amount of tax to be levied for airport purposes, not to 79 exceed one mill on the dollar upon the assessed valuation 80 of all the taxable property in such county, except intan-81 gible property, and the governing body shall levy and 82 collect the taxes so certified at the same time and in 83 the same manner as other county taxes are levied and 84 collected, and the proceeds of such taxes when due and 85 as collected shall be set aside and deposited in the

- 86 special account or accounts in which other revenues of 87 the authority are deposited;
- 88 (13) To construct and maintain under, along,
89 over, or across a project, telephone, telegraph, or elec-90 tric wires and cables, fuel lines, gas mains, water 91 mains, and other mechanical equipment not inconsistent 92 with the appropriate use of such project, to contract 93 for such construction and to lease the right to construct 94 and use the same, or to use the same on such terms for 95 such period of time and for such consideration as the 96 authority shall determine;
- 97 (14) To accept grants, loans, or contributions 98 from the United States, the State of Nebraska, or any 99 agency or instrumentality of either of them, or the county 100 in which such authority is established, and to expend the 101 proceeds thereof for any corporate purposes;
- 102 (15) To incur debt and issue negotiable bonds and 103 to provide for the rights of the holders thereof;
- 104 (16) To enter on any lands, waters, and premises 105 for the purposes of making surveys, soundings, and examina-106 tions; and
- 107 (17) To do all things necessary or convenient to 108 carry out the powers expressly conferred on such author-109 ities by this act.

Sec. 13. An airport authority may in addition to 2 the powers enumerated in section 12 of this act, encour-3 age, foster, and promote the development of commercial 4 and general aviation for the county which it serves, and 5 advance the interests of such county in aeronautics and 6 in commercial air transportation and its scheduling.

Sec. 14. Officers and employees of any board or 2 department in or of a county may be transferred to the 3 authority established in the county, and shall be eligible 4 for such transfer and appointment without examination to 5 offices and positions under the authority. Officers or 6 employees of such county, who shall have accepted such 7 transfer and who are at the time of such transfer members 8 or beneficiaries of any existing pension or retirement 9 system, shall continue to have the rights, privileges, 10 obligations, and status with respect to such system or 11 systems as are now prescribed by law.

Sec. 15. All income, revenues, receipts, profits, 2 and money of an authority from whatever source derived 3 shall be paid to the county treasurer as ex officio 4 treasurer of the authority who shall not commingle such 5 money with any other money under his control. Such 6 money shall be deposited in a separate bank account or 7 accounts and shall be withdrawn only by check or draft 8 signed by said treasurer on requisition of the chairman 9 of the authority or of such other person or persons as 10 the authority may authorize to make such requisitions, 11 approved by the board. The chief auditing officer of 12 the county and his legally authorized representatives are 13 hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to 14 examine the accounts and books of such authority includ-

15 ing its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, 16 sinking funds, investments, and any other matters relating 17 to its financial standing. Notwithstanding the provisions 18 of this section, such authority may contract with the 19 holders of any of its bonds as to collection, custody, 20 securing, investment, and payment of any money of the 21 authority, or any money held in trust or otherwise for 22 the payment of bonds, or in any way to secure bonds, and 23 to carry out any such contract notwithstanding that such 24 contract may be inconsistent with the previous provisions 25 of this section. All banks and trust companies are hereby 26 authorized to give security for such deposits of money of 27 authorities as shall be required by law to secure the 28 deposit of funds of cities.

Sec. 16. (1) An authority shall have the power 2 and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its 3 negotiable bonds for any corporate purpose in such amounts 4 as may be required to carry out and fully perform the pur-
5 poses for which such authority is established. Such au-6 thorities shall have power from time to time and whenever 7 refunding is deemed expedient, to issue bonds in amounts 8 sufficient to refund any bonds, including any premiums 9 payable upon the redemption of the bonds to be refunded, 10 by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be 11 refunded have or have not matured. It may issue bonds 12 partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for 13 any other corporate purpose. The refunding bonds may be 14 exchanged for the bonds to be refunded with such cash 15 adjustments as may be agreed, or may be sold and the 16 proceeds applied to the purchase, redemption, or payment 17 of the bonds to be refunded. All bonds shall be general 18 obligations of the authority issuing the same and shall 19 be payable out of any revenue, income, receipts, profits, 20 or other money of the authority, unless the authority shall 21 expressly provide otherwise in the resolution authorizing 22 their issuance in which event the bonds shall be limited 23 obligations of the authority issuing the same and shall 24 be payable only out of that part of the revenue, income, 25 receipts, profits or other money of the authority as shall 26 be specified by the authority in such resolution. All 27 bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of this act shall 28 be and are hereby made negotiable instruments within the 29 meaning of and for all the purposes of the Uniform Commer-30 cial Code, subject only to any provisions contained in 31 such bonds for the registration of the principal thereof.

32 (2) All such bonds shall be authorized by a 33 resolution or resolutions of the board and shall bear 34 such date or dates, mature at such time or times, bear 35 interest at such rate or rates, not exceeding six per 36 cent per annum, be in such denominations, be in such 37 form either coupon or registered, carry such registration 38 privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in 39 such medium of payment, at such place or places within 40 or without the State of Nebraska, and be subject to such 41 terms of redemption and at such redemption premiums as 42 such resolution or resolutions may provide. The bonds 43 may be sold at public or private sale for such price or 44 prices as the authority shall determine; Provided, that 45 the net interest cost shall not exceed six per cent per 46 annum to maturity; and provided further, no redemption 47 premium shall be considered in determining such net
48 interest cost. No proceedings for the issuance of bonds 49 of an authority shall be required other than those 50 required by the provisions of this act, and the provisions 51 of all other laws, if any, relative to the terms and con-52 ditions for the issuance, payment, redemption, registra-53 tion, sale or delivery of bonds of public bodies, cor-54 porations or political subdivisions of this state shall 55 not be applicable to bonds issued by authorities pursuant 56 to this act.

57 (3) Any resolution or resolutions authorizing 58 any bonds or any issue of bonds of an authority may con-59 tain covenants and agreements on the part of the authority 60 to protect and safeguard the security and payment of such 61 bonds, which shall be a part of the contract with the 62 holders of the bonds thereby authorized, as to:

63 (a) Pledging all or any part of the revenue, 64 income, receipts, profits, and other money derived by the 65 authority issuing such bonds from the operation, manage-66 ment, or sale or property of any or all such projects of 67 the authority to secure the payment of the bonds or of 68 any issue of the bonds;

69 (b) The rates, rentals, tolls, charges, license 70 fees, and other fees to be charged by the authority and 71 the amounts to be raised in each year for the services 72 and commodities sold, furnished, or supplied by the 73 authority, and the use and disposition of the revenue

74 of the authority received therefrom;

75 (c) The setting aside of reserves or sinking 76 funds and the regulation, investment, and disposition 77 thereof;

78 (d) Limitations on the purpose to which the pro-79 ceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter 80 issued may be applied, and pledging such proceeds to 81 secure the payment of bonds, or of any issue of bonds;

82 (e) Limitations on the issuance of additional bonds 83 of the authority; the terms and conditions upon which such 84 additional bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding 85 of outstanding or other bonds;

86 (f) The procedure if any by which the terms of 87 any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, 88 the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent 89 thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

90 (g) Limitations on the amount of money derived 91 from any project to be expended for operating, adminis-92 trative, or other expenses of the authority; and

93 (h) Any other matters, of like or different 94 character which in any way affect the security or protec-95 tion of bonds of the authority.

96 (4) An authority shall have power from time to 97 time to issue bond anticipation notes, referred to as 98 notes herein, and from time to time to issue renewal notes, 99 such notes in any case to mature not later than thirty 100 months from the date of incurring the indebtedness repre-
101 sented thereby in an amount not exceeding in the aggregate 102 at any time outstanding the amount of bonds then or there-103 tofore authorized. Payment of such notes shall be made 104 from any money or revenue which the authority may have 105 available for such purpose or from the proceeds of the 106 sale of bonds of the authority, or such notes may be 107 exchanged for a like amount of such bonds. The authority 108 may pledge such money or revenue of the authority, subject 109 to prior pledges thereof, if any, for the payment of such 110 notes, and may in addition secure the notes in the same 111 manner as herein provided for bonds. All notes shall be 112 issued and sold in the same manner as bonds, and any 113 authority shall have power to make contracts for the 114 future sale from time to time of notes on terms and con-115 ditions stated in such contracts, and the authority shall 116 have power to pay such consideration as it shall deem 117 proper for any commitments to purchase notes in the future.
118 Such notes shall also be collaterally secured by pledges 119 and deposits with a bank or trust company, in trust for 120 the payment of said notes, of bonds in an aggregate amount 121 at least equal to the amount of such notes and, in any 122 event, in an amount deemed by the issuing authority suffi-123 cient to provide for the payment of the notes in full at 124 the maturity thereof. The authority issuing such notes 125 may provide in the collateral agreement that the notes 126 may be exchanged for bonds held as collateral security 127 for the notes, or that the trustee may sell the bonds if 128 the notes are not otherwise paid at maturity, and apply 129 the proceeds of such sale to the payment of the notes.

130 Such notes shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding 131 six per cent per annum, and shall be sold at such price 132 as shall cause an interest cost thereon of not to exceed 133 six per cent per annum.

134 (5) It is the intention hereof that any pledge 135 of revenue, income, receipts, profits, charges, fees, or 136 other money made by an authority for the payment of bonds 137 shall be valid and binding from the time such pledge is 138 made; that the revenue, income, receipts, profits, charges, 139 fees, and other money so pledged and thereafter received 140 by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien 141 of such pledge without the physical delivery thereof or 142 further act, and that the lien of any such pledge shall 143 be valid and binding as against all parties having claims 144 of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the 145 authority irrespective of whether such parties have notice 146 thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other instrument 147 by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

148 (6) Neither the members of a board nor any person 149 executing bonds or notes shall be liable personally thereon 150 or be subject to any personal liability or accountability 151 by reason of the issuance thereof.

152 (7) An authority shall have power out of any funds 153 available therefor to purchase bonds or notes of such au-154 thority. Any bonds so purchased may be held, canceled 155 or resold by the authority subject to and in accordance 156 with any agreements with bondholders.

Sec. 17. The State of Nebraska does covenant and 2 agree with the holders of bonds issued by an authority 3 that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby 4 vested in an authority to acquire, maintain, construct, 5 reconstruct, and operate projects, to establish and col-6 lect such rates, rentals, tolls, charges, license fees, 7 and other fees as may be convenient or necessary to pro-8 duce sufficient revenue to meet the expense of maintenance 9 and operation of such projects and to fulfill the terms 10 of any agreements made with holders of bonds of the author-11 ity. The state will also not in any way impair the rights 12 and remedies of the bondholders until the bonds together

13 with interest thereon and with interest on any unpaid 14 installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in 15 connection with any action or proceedings by or on behalf 16 of the bondholders, are fully met and discharged. The 17 provisions of this act and of the proceedings authorizing 18 bonds thereby shall constitute a contract with the holders 19 of said bonds.

Sec. 18. The bonds, notes, and other obligations 2 of an authority shall not be a debt of the State of 3 Nebraska or of the county in which such authority is 4 established, and neither the state nor the county shall 5 be liable thereon, nor shall such bonds be payable out 6 of any funds other than funds of the authority issuing 7 same.

Sec. 19. Bonds of authorities are hereby made 2 securities in which all public officers and bodies of 3 this state, all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, 4 and all other political subdivisions of this state, all 5 insurance companies and associations and other persons 6 carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, 7 trust companies, savings banks, and savings associations, 8 including savings and loan associations, building and 9 loan associations, investment companies, and other persons 10 carrying on a banking business, all administrators, 11 guardians, executors, trustees, and other fiduciaries,
12 and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may here-13 after be authorized to invest in bonds or other obliga-
14 tions of the state, may properly and legally invest funds, 15 including capital, in their control or belonging to them.
16 Such bonds are also hereby made securities which may be 17 deposited with and shall be received by all public offi-18 cers and bodies of this state, all municipalities and 19 municipal subdivisions, and other political subdivisions 20 of this state for any purpose for which the deposit of 21 bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may 22 hereafter be authorized.

Sec. 20. It is hereby found, determined, and 2 declared that the creation of an authority and the carry-

SEVENTY-EIGHTH DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Tuesday, April 29, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., President Everroad presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

O Lord our God, before whom one day we shall all have to give account, lend us Thine aid, that this day's work may be well pleasing unto Thee. If there be any here sulking, as children will, deal with and enlighten him. Make it day about that person, so that he shall see himself and be ashamed. Make it heaven about him, Lord, by the only way to heaven, forgetfulness of self, and make it day about his neighbors, so that they shall help and not hinder him. Forgetful ourselves, help us to bear cheerfully the forgetfulness of others. Give us courage, and faith, and the quiet mind. Give life to our good intentions, lest they be still born. Bless us in all that is right, and correct us in all that is wrong. We ask of Thee this help and mercy for Christ's sake. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Messrs. Carstens who was excused until 10:00 a.m., and Mahoney who was excused.

49 to and become and form a part of the taxes upon said land
50 and shall bear interest at the same rate as taxes. Nothing 51 contained in this section shall be construed to require

SEVENTY-NINTH DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Wednesday, April 30, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., Speaker Warner presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

Stop us, O God, for a minute of prayer. Stop our anxious minds from wandering, and our wearied hearts from desiring anything but to know Thy will. Let us stand at attention before Thee and hear what Thou hast to say to us. We believe that Thou canst tell us not only what to do, but also how to do it. If it means making up our minds, Thou who didst make our minds can show us how to make them up. If it needs changing our minds, Thou canst work that miracle, too. Speak, O Lord, and make us hear, for Jesus' sake. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Mr. Bloom, excused until 9:30 a.m., and Miss Reynolds, who was excused.

Friday, May 2, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., Speaker Warner presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

We pray, O God, that Thou wilt fill this sacred minute with meaning, and make it an oasis for the refreshment of our souls, a window cleaning for our vision, and a recharging of the batteries of our spirits. Let us have less talking and more thinking, less work and more worship, less pressure and more prayer. For if we are too busy to pray, we are far busier than we have any right to be. Speak to us, O Lord, and make us listen to Thy broadcasting station that never goes off the air. Through Thy Holy Sprit, who is waiting to lead us into all Truth. Amen.

Prayer

O, God, who has given to all persons talents and varying capacities, Thou dost only require of us that we utilize Thy gifts to the maximum. To this Legislature to which Thou hast entrusted special abilities and opportunities, may each recognize his stewardship for the people of this state. Prayer

O, God, our Father, as life is a continuous school, may we realize a day has been wasted when we have not learned some new lesson. May we have more understanding of our own nature. Guide us beyond selfishness to self-development, so that we may become better acquainted with others and more aware of who we really are. Lead us to a greater openness of mind so we do not walk in ruts or talk in stereotypes. As Thou dost give us each new day as a sacred trust, may we utilize our time and opportunities to fulfill our mission in life, as leaders of the people, as followers of Thy truth. Amen.

 6 as to require dismantling, cutting away, unbolting from 11 60-1602 on relocation of such cabin trailer or mobile home 12 to another county in the state for a period of thirty days 13 or more during any tax year. No refund of any tax paid

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., President Everroad presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

Eternal Father, give us a careful analysis of the issues before us, but as well, a respect for and a patience with all of our colleagues. For problems that seem to be on dead center, lead this body toward perseverance and openness rather than frustration and defeat. When difficulties face us, may we find new roads until the impossible becomes possible and the possible becomes successful. So help us through this day to do our work with integrity and with the best that is in us. In our Lord's name. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Mr. Schreurs, excused until 9:30, Mr. Bloom excused until 10:30, and Mr. Clark, Miss Reynolds, Messrs. Schmit and Swanson, who were excused.

LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL—EIGHTIETH SESSION

EIGHTY-FIFTH DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Thursday, May 8, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., President Everroad presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

Eternal God, give us the ability to be patient with people and with issues. For if we don't understand people, with their variety of inconsistencies, how can we think clearly of laws which will be helpful to all? May we have the ability to bridle our emotions when dealing with people who appear to be prejudiced, unjust and annoying. Help us to be objective and realize that the faults we see in others are usually mirrors of our own inadequacies. So we pray for strength to be honest with ourselves, with others and with Thee. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Mr. Knight, excused until 9:30 a.m. and Messrs. Proud and Wallwey, who were excused.

EIGHTY-SIXTH DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Friday, May 9, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m.,
Speaker Warner presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

Almighty God, guide this Legislature as they face the real issues of our State in this time. The light that shines farthest away must be brightest at home. As we ever strive to strengthen our State, lead us to your obvious truths that the test of our society is not our numbers or our wealth or our resources but the character of our people. Give us a strong faith so we do not give in to immediate problems. Yet, faith without works is dead, so may we combine our faith in the right along with a determination to do the right so that we together may make the maximum contribution to our fellow man. In our Master's name. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Messrs. Bloom, Clark, Johnson, Klaver, Knight, Mahoney, Moylan, Schmit and Skarda, who were excused.

LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL—EIGHTIETH SESSION

EIGHTY-SEVENTH DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln ,Nebraska
Monday, May 12, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:05 a.m., President Everroad presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

Eternal God, at the outset of this new day may our decisions, our deeds, and our actions have integrity. Although our motives often become cloudy during the course of a day, may we strive to do the right so they may be transparent and in the right. May we be generous in our judgments of others and as concerned about their views as our own, so we may have objectivity in crucial issues. Guide us that we may face knotty problems with courage. And may our diverse views finally culminate in the best possible program, in the light of our available resources, for all the people in our State. In our Master's name. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Messrs. Bloom, Clark, Danner, Johnson, Klaver, Mahoney, Moylan, Proud, Simpson and Skarda, who were excused.

Prayer

Almighty Father, in decisions before us which affect the lives of human beings, give us an equation between the telescopic and the microscopic view of life. May we endeavor to see issues in their minute details and also from a long-range perspective. May we not be absorbed in the tyranny of trifles and lose the meaning of the larger issues. Give us clear minds. May we not be submerged in indecisions which multiply our problems, divide our worth, add to our sleeplessness, and subtract from our value to the people of our State. In our Lord's name. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Messrs. Bloom, Clark, Danner, Johnson, Klaver, Mahoney, Moylan, Simpson, Skarda and Waldron, who were excused.

Mr. Pedersen asked unanimous consent to print the following material in the Journal. No objection. So ordered.

May 13, 1969

Dear Senator Pedersen:

There is no General Fund fiscal impact associated with LB 1305 (See attached).

Sincerely,

(Signed) Marlin L. Rein
Legislative Fiscal Analyst

LB 1305, along with its companion bills, LB 948 and LB 1303, would provide authorization for the issuance of $30 million of revenue bonds for the construction of Highways. With the General File amendment of May 8, 1969, the proceeds from the sale of such bonds would be appropriated to the Highway Cash Fund for expenditure.

LB 948 creates the administrative machinery for the issuance, sale, and retirement of such bonds. Administrative responsibility would be with the Nebraska Highway Bond Commission created by the act. Administrative expenses by the commission would be funded out of the appropriation to the State Highway Commission.

LB 948 also creates a special fund to be known as the Highway Trust Fund into which the revenues dedicated to the payment of principal and interest on issued bonds shall be deposited.

LB 1305 which authorizes the issuance of the bonds would not have any State General Fund fiscal impact. It would however, obligate future revenues of the Highway Trust Fund to the retirement of the bonds and interest thereon. Whether the interest on the bonds would represent an increased cost to the state or whether they would be offset by savings in construction costs by accelerating the program is unknown.

LB 1305—Fiscal Impact: None (Telephone conversation with Jack Pittman, Budget Officer, Department of Roads—May 9, 1969)

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., President Everroad presiding.

Prayer was offered by Rev. W. L. Van Auken.

Prayer

Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, grant that the fruit of Thy spirit may show forth in our lives as we seek to serve Thee. Withhold us from the error of confusing human standards with the standards of thy Holy Word. Prevent us from sacrificing inward realities for outward expressions. May our concerns be more for usefulness and helpfulness to others than for words of condemnation and rebuke. In obedience to thy will, may we all seek to overcome evil with good. For Jesus' sake, Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Mr. Knight, excused until 10:00 a.m., and Messrs. Adamson, Budd, Kokes and Simpson, who were excused.

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:05 a.m., Mr. Wylie presiding.

Prayer was offered by Rev. W. L. Van Auken.

Prayer

We are grateful, dear Lord, for the finer memories that are particularly ours to keep. Especially, we thank Thee upon every remembrance of those who have touched our lives and made us better. For those who have inspired us, who believed in us, and who helped us when we were too weak, too immature, or too foolish to help ourselves, we praise Thy name. Grant that we may be such friends to others, that some one of them may thank God when they call us to mind. Amen.

15 Upon receipt of an application, which is in compliance

18 the filing fee, if any, required by law, the commission 19 shall approve the application for registration.

Sec. 3. Every motor common or contract carrier
2 shall be required to file and maintain with the commis-

4 to it by the Interstate Commerce Commission permitting 5 operation within the state, and it shall be unlawful 6 for any motor common or contract carrier to exercise

11 shall be attached, shall be retained by the commission.
12 The copy of the application shall be transmitted to the 13 motor common or contract carrier applicant when the ap-14 plication is approved by the commission. The applica-15 tion shall be accompanied by the filing fee, if any, 16 prescribed by law.

Sec. 5. It shall be unlawful for any common,
2 contract or private carrier to conduct any operations 3 under the registration provided for by this act until 4 such carrier has registered each motor vehicle to be 5 operated thereunder with the commission and such motor 6 vehicles are identified as being registered with the 7 commission in a manner to be provided in rules and regu-8 lations which shall be adopted by the commission.

Sec. 6. Every common, contract or private car-
2 rier of property by motor vehicle operating a motor ve-

6 after such carrier initiates or discontinues operation 7 of a motor vehicle or motor vehicles within the state.

Sec. 7. For the purpose of sustaining the admin-2 istration and enforcement of this act, there is hereby

3 affixed an application fee of ten dollars payable at the 4 time of filing the original or subsequent applications.
5 In addition thereto, there is affixed an annual fee of 6 twenty-five cents per motor vehicle for the issuance by 7 the commission of the motor vehicle identification pro-8 vided for by this act. Such fees shall be paid to and 9 collected by the commission, and deposited with the 10 State Treasurer within thirty days from the receipt 11 thereof. The money so received shall be paid into the 12 state treasury and by the State Treasurer placed in the 13 General Fund.

Sec. 8. In the event the commission fails to act 2 upon any filing provided for in this act within thirty 3 days after the receipt thereof and such filings have 4 been made in compliance with the provisions of this act 5 and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, 6 then the common, contract or private carrier for whose 7 benefit such filing was made may begin operation within 8 the state in such manner as would have been authorized 9 if the filing had been acted upon favorably by the com-10 mission within such period of thirty days. Such carrier 11 may continue such operation until the time the commission 12 acts upon such filing.

Sec. 9. Motor vehicles from states other than 2 Nebraska entering Nebraska shall be required to comply 3 with all the laws and regulations as to the payment of 4 the motor vehicle identification fees owners of motor 5 vehicles operated in Nebraska are required to pay when 6 operating in such foreign state, unless the state or 7 states in which such motor vehicles are domiciled grant 8 reciprocity comparable to that extended by the laws of 9 Nebraska.

Sec. 10. In order to effect the purposes of sec-2 tion 9 of this act, the State Railway Commission shall 3 have the power, duty and authority to enter into 4 reciprocal agreements with the duly authorized repre-5 sentatives of other jurisdictions, including states in 6 districts of the United States, granting to vehicles 7 which are domiciled in such jurisdictions, and for which 8 evidence of compliance is supplied, benefits, privileges 9 and exemptions from the payment, in whole, of any motor 10 vehicle identification fees upon such vehicles or owners 11 with respect to the operation or ownership of such ve-12 hicles under the laws of this state. The State Railway 13 Commission may withdraw from any agreement when it deter-

14 mines that the other state which has entered into the 15 agreement has withdrawn from such agreement. In the ab-

18 amine the laws and requirements of such jurisdiction and 19 to declare the extent and nature of exemptions, benefits 20 and privileges to be extended to vehicles domiciled in 23 declaration issued pertaining thereto, any vehicle prop-24 erly registered in such jurisdiction and for which evi-25 dence of compliance is supplied, may be operated in the 26 state and shall receive the same exemptions, benefits 27 and privileges granted such other jurisdiction to ve-

37 sion shall finally determine the proper place of domicile 38 of the vehicle.

Sec. 11. Any person knowingly and willfully vio-

5 upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not less

NINETY-FIFTH DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Thursday, May 22, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., President Everroad presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

Our gracious Lord, while endeavoring to be positive in our actions, help us to be reflective enough to see our own faults.

Forgive us, and may we forgive each other, for ignoring those whom we feel are unimportant to our careers; for our prejudices which blind us from seeing the values of those with whom we differ; for repudiating those who act proud in their own sense of superiority, when we believe we are superior to them; for being paternalistic to those in despair, rather than providing the means by which they may elevate themselves.

Forgive us for overlooking the inestimable value of each individual human being, by reminding us that we are all children of an everlasting Father, and thus related to one another as His own. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Messrs. Batchelder, Danner, Elrod, Knight and Swanson, who were excused.

NINETY-SIXTH DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Friday, May 23, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., Speaker Warner presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

Most merciful God, since none of us can escape from our responsibilities in life, let us face our challenges courageously. Help us not to wander somewhat aimlessly through the capitol corridors as if endeavoring to find our way out of a maze. Assist us that we may all be aware of the immediate concerns of our great State, not only the immediate problems confronting the various sections but also the problems of our individual constituents. Help us to give thanks to You that we may recognize the privilege given to each and every one of us in the Legislature in making decisions on issues of far reaching import.

We know good laws can only be achieved by strong, courageous, independent lawmakers—lawmakers who are not concerned with only a position of popularity, but lawmakers of vision and strong convictions, rather than personal advantage or advancement.

So help us to direct our minds that when we cast our votes they will be for the best interests of the people we are sent here to serve. Give us the wisdom which lifts us above the spirit of partisanship and makes us instruments of Thy will. May Your blessings rest upon each one here in our deliberations, not only today, but also in the days ahead. We ask this in our Master's name. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Mr. Warner, excused for a short time; Messrs. Danner, Marvel, Moylan and Swanson, who were excused.

Prayer

Almighty Father, we are grateful for the health and vigor to fulfill our duties and for the opportunities of another day to serve our State. May we not become weary with those necessary safeguards which have been built into our system, but determine rather to think and live through them to the best possible solution. So guide our thinking, that it may be accurate; guide our emotions, that they may be kept under control; and guide our will, that it may ever be striving to fulfill the tasks of life which confront us. Give us new depth of faith so we may climb to new heights of accomplishment in fulfilling our destiny as leaders of this State. Amen.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 52. Re: LB 75

Introduced by Rick Budd, 2nd District; Jerome Warner, 25th District and William F. Swanson, 27th District.

WHEREAS, by the enactment of Legislative Bill 75, this Legislature has adopted a code of ethics covering its members and employees and made provisions for the adoption of such codes throughout the executive branch of state government, which bill also provides for the regulation of conflicts of interest throughout the legislative and executive branches; and

WHEREAS, Legislative Bill 75 resulted from an interim study by a committee of the Legislative Council which conducted an extensive inquiry into the possibilities of conflicts of interest at the state level; and

WHEREAS, no such study has ever been made of the possibility of conflicts of interest within the various political subdivisions of this state; and

WHEREAS, great possibilities of conflicts of interest exist within the various political subdivisions; and

WHEREAS, though the judicial branch was excluded from the coverage of Legislative Bill 75 because of its regulation by the Canons of Judicial Ethics, recent federal developments indicate the possible desirability of requiring financial disclosure by judges.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NEBRASKA LEGISLATURE IN EIGHTIETH SESSION ASSEMBLED:

1. That a committee of the Legislative Council be appointed to conduct a study of the possibilities of conflicts of interest within the various political subdivisions of this state and the desirability of requiring financial disclosure by judges and report its findings and recommendations for legislation, if any, to the 1971 session of the Legislature.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT—Print in Journal

Mr. Carpenter asked unanimous consent to print the following proposed amendments to LB 542 in the Journal and unbracket the bill tomorrow. No objections. So ordered.

These select file amendments take care of the following problems:

2. A select file amendment to take care of Nebraska City which is the only Commissioner form of Government City in Nebraska. This amendment incorporates the provisions of L.B. 288 (Sen. Budd) now bracketed on Final Reading. The amendment provides for four year terms on a rotated basis.
3. A select file amendment to provide that the county board shall approve joint city and county elections on the day of the statewide primary. This is necessary because by law the county board must approve expenditure of county funds.

 declared as by law provided for holding other city primary elections in any city embraced in the class to which any general state primary law applies. If such primary election be held in any city to which, as to city elections, the general primary laws of this state do not apply, the such primary election shall be, except in the respects hereinbefore provided, proclaimed, noticed, held and conducted, and the vote canvassed and the result declared as by law provided for holding the general or regular city election in any such city; and all officers charged with any duty respecting the proclaiming, holding and conducting of any such general or regular city election in any such city, shall perform such duties for and at such primary election.

NINETY-EIGHTH DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Tuesday, May 27, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., President Everroad presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

Almighty God, give us a renewed sense of direction and purpose in our living. We know we are here not just to exist. We were elected not just to occupy a chair. May we not, through default and stagnation, become zeroes on the ledger sheet of Thy divine economy. May we give more service, which is the rent we pay for our space on earth. Give to each of us the ability not to try to save ourselves from the issues and remain aloof from the struggles of life. If we seek to save ourselves, we will lose ourselves. But Thou hast plainly taught that if we lose our lives, we'll find them, and be found of Thee. In our Lord's name. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Mr. Skarda, excused until 10:45 a.m., and Messrs. Adamson, Bloom, Clark, Danner, Elrod, Mahoney and Stull, who were excused.

Message from the Governor

The President, the Speaker

Dear Senators:

Communications

May 9, 1969

Honorable Jerome Warner
Speaker of the Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Mr. Speaker:

This is written to express the appreciation of the Nebraska Educational Television Network to you and the other forty eight senators forming the 1969 Legislature for your cooperation in presenting UNICAMERAL '69.

The series, as recorded from the Chamber two days per week, edited and televised the following Sunday throughout the statewide network, has been a most important addition to our broadcast schedule and a prime illustration of public television at work. Reaction from every section of the State has been good. Nebraskans of all ages have indicated their keen interest in learning more about the workings of their State Government. By letter, telephone and word of mouth have people these past weeks reported their pleasure at being able to follow the legislative process in an intimate way never before possible. They have had the opportunity, in the comfort of their homes, to study prospective legislation, listen to debate and become cognizant of and sympathetic to the problems and issues—so important to Nebraska—daily being faced by each of you senators. Every indicator points to the telecasts as being highly successful.

As reported when we first requested approval to broadcast, the remote series was made possible through a special $10,000 grant from the Corporation For Public Broadcasting. Originally a total of ten programs were to be provided. We will be able to stretch grant funds to a total of thirteen UNICAMERAL '69 programs. But, because this special budget will soon expire, we reluctantly report that the May 25, 1969 broadcast must be our last.

We are most hopeful that the Legislature will approve the request currently contained in the ETV Commission's 1969-71 appropriations projection, to fund the remote television unit on a permanent basis. This will enable us regularly to broadcast from the Unicameral in the future, as well as to bring to Nebraska's classrooms and home the hundreds of other educational, cultural and public television resources so readily available.

Once again, on behalf of the Nebraska ETV Commissioners, the remote crew and all others working in Nebraska ETV, let me express our deepest appreciation to the 1969 Legislature for your cooperation and support in making this most important series possible. This has been public television at its best. And Nebraska has achieved another national first.

Sincerely,

(Signed) Jack McBride

UNANIMOUS CONSENT—Print in Journal

Mr. Warner asked unanimous consent to have the following messages printed in the Journal. No objections. So ordered.

April 14, 1969

Honorable Jerome Warner
State Senator
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, Nebraska 68509

Dear Senator Warner:

The Department of Insurance respectfully requests the approval of the Legislature to move its offices on July 1, 1969 to the Pioneer Building, 1335 "L" Street, Lincoln, Nebraska. The Department proposes to rent one and one-half floors (approximately 9,000') at an annual rental of not more than $29,000.00. Part of the space is the same as that previously leased by the Tax Commissioner. Although the Pioneer Building is presently owned by an insurance company, it will be sold prior to our proposed occupancy. The Department has proposed a figure of $60,000.00 per biennium in our 1969-71 budget for rent.

At the present time the Department is operating in four different locations on the lower floor of the Capitol. The offices are overcrowded and we have three positions which have not been filled due to a lack of space. In addition there are three additional personnel positions in the proposed 1969-71 budget which will require additional space.

In addition the Department is in need of additional space for a combination hearing room-conference room-law library and space for the public to review records and take examinations. We also need space for our fourteen examiners to prepare and review examination reports. We feel that the facilities at the Pioneer Building will permit more efficient and orderly use of space and personnel.

Our work load is increasing at a rapid rate in direct comparison with the increased activity of the insurance companies and insurance salesmen as well as the increased activities of citizens in their insurance dealings. The move should facilitate the projected work load increase for the next two bienniums.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully,

(Signed) Benjamin C. Neff, Jr.
Director of Insurance

Dear Senator Warner:

I have now reviewed the request of the Department of Insurance, dated April 14, 1969 to move from the Capitol Building to the Pioneer Building, 1335 "L" Street.

The request of the Department of Insurance has my approval and it is requested that the Legislature approve this move.

Wednesday, May 28, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., President Everroad presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

Almighty God, we are very much aware these days of issues having fiscal impact, and it is well that we should be good stewards of the monies of this State. In this we pray for a due sense of proportion in the allocation of our resources. Help us, at the same time, to be aware of the social impact of what we do and say here, the ethical impact of the way we conduct our affairs, and the moral impact of our voting record. Therefore, we pray for Thy spirit of truth and power in our lives, that we may feel the spiritual impact of exposing our minds and consciences to Thee. Amen.

Mr. Simpson Presiding

Message from the Governor

The President, the Spaker and Members of the Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska

Senators of the Eightieth Session:

I am returning to you herewith LB 925 without my signature for the following reasons:

1. The bill does not define the limits within which one may act to protect himself, his family, or his real or personal property. Apparently, therefore, there are no limits. The bill says that a person is immune from any legal action, regardless of the means he uses, founded on anything he might do in protecting himself, his family, or his property. In other words, conduct by authorized persons which is justified may still allow the victim to respond with "necessary force." For example, the language of LB 925 would allow a person to kill a police officer attempting to make a valid arrest since he would be "protecting himself." Likewise, the unreasonable use of force to repel minimal non-deadly force being used by an aggressor is condoned.
2. In protecting property, LB 925 makes no provision for controversies involving legitimate claims by two individuals to the same property. If two individuals claim the same property, both would be entitled to use deadly force, if necessary, against the other.
3. LB 925 makes no provision for the case where the individual is the initial aggressor using minimal force and then discovers the intended victim is responding with deadly force. Thus, if someone committed an armed robbery on a victim, and the victim turned out to have a gun and started to use it to stop the robbery, the robber would be entitled to use any "necessary force" to protect himself.
4. What constitutes "necessary force" is not defined. Since it apparently is an attempt to change the existing law in Nebraska, law which requires a standard of "reasonable force," it must mean something different than "reasonable." Under existing law, the decision as to whether the actor acted reasonably is made in light of the emergency that he faced at the time. A reasonable mistake of fact does not nullify the defense of self-defense. Under LB 925, however, a person who attempts to use the argument of self-defense may in act be held to a standard of absolute knowledge of facts. This would give him less protection than the current law of self-defense in Nebraska gives him.

5. The statute is so ambiguous as to be extremely difficult to enforce and perhaps be unconstitutional as vague. I have already mentioned some of those areas. There are others. "Holdup," "heinous crime," "legal investigation," "court action," and "other expense" are all terms for which there should be clear definitions. Likewise, who makes the determination of whether substantial questions of self-defense exist, when it is made, and how it is made is left unanswered by the statute.

6. There is no limit on the amount of "loss of time, legal fees, court costs, or other expense" which must be reimbursed or indemnified by the state to the defendant should the action be found justified. With unscrupulous defendants, this amount could be limitless. Not only could a defendant pay an attorney any amount for legal fees, but he also could incur unreasonable expenses and the state would be obligated to pay for them.

7. Enactment of LB 925 or the passage of any law which would encourage the use of private force is most inappropriate at this time when Nebraskans are most concerned with the rising level of violence. I feel that LB 925 might increase rather than diminish the level of violence in Nebraska and would escalate the breakdown of law and order. I am insistent upon preserving law and order in Nebraska. Rather than authorize the unreasonable use of private force, as LB 925 does, we must solve the problems of increased violence and unreasonable private force if we are not to perpetuate the very evil we seek to eliminate. This bill permits private individuals to take the law into their own hands in order to deter other individuals from taking the law into their own hands. It implements a system of vigilante law enforcement, a system long ago proved to be destructive of civilized society.

The answer to better law enforcement is not vigilante law enforcement. It is better training, standards, qualifications, etc. for law enforcement officials, and an increased public awareness of the reasonableness and fairness of our laws and the ability and fairness of those officials who enforce the law.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) Norbert T. Tiemann, Governor

ONE HUNDREDTH DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Tuesday, June 3, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., Speaker Warner presiding.

Prayer was offered by Dr. Edward L. Jeambey.

Prayer

Eternal God—our Heavenly Father: For Thy many blessings upon us, as individuals, as a group, as a state, and as a nation, we praise Thee.

Because of Thy word and Thy truth, we can be assured, that even in days that try men's souls, there are some abiding things. We can have faith in the supremacy of spiritual force, in the power of truth, in the passion for freedom, and in the sovereignty of Almighty God. We have been assured can never be destroyed by the Satanic forces of unregenerated men.

We have been admonished in Holy Writ to acknowledge Thee in all our ways, and Thou shalt direct our paths. So at this initial period, as we proceed with the deliberations of this day, we admit of Thy divine sovereignty and Thy power to overrule. We acknowledge Thy infinite wisdom, Thy universal presence, to govern, direct, and motivate us in the drawing of conclusions that will glorify righteousness, administer justice, and bless our fellow men.

Thou hast truly said: "If any man lack wisdom let him ask of God who giveth liberally and upbraideth not" (James 1:5) so we ask for wisdom in the administration of justice, and may we ever be conscious of the truth that "righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people" (Proverbs 14:34).

We ask these favors in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Mr. Moylan, excused until 10:15 a.m. and Messrs. Adamson, Carstens, Nore, Skarda, Waldo and Wenzlaff, who were excused.

The Journal for the Ninety-ninth Day was approved.

Mr. Dave Martin, Member of Congress, acknowledged receipt of letter and LR 48.

Mr. Glenn Cunningham, Member of Congress, acknowledged receipt of LR 48.

ONE HUNDRED-FIRST DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Wednesday, June 4, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:07 a.m., Speaker Warner presiding.

Prayer was offered by Dr. Edward L. Jeambey.

Prayer

Eternal God Our Heavenly Father: We feel today like the Psalmist of old when he exclaimed: "Our lines have fallen in pleasant places and we have a goodly heritage" (Psa. 16:6).

And we in this agricultural belt feel like singing: "O beautiful for spacious skies and amber waves of grain". Surely Thou hast shed Thy grace and bounty on us for which we are grateful.

We thank Thee for the courage of the pioneers who blazed a trail and beat a thoroughfare of freedom across these prairies, and together with those who followed after, who caused this so-called great American desert to blossom as the rose.

But as each must serve in his own day and generation, today's challenge is to us. Help us, as builders of the State, to remember that if the house is built upon the sand, great will be the fall thereof when struck by the storms of national and international discord, social unrest, and political intrigue and deception. Likewise, let us be assured that if the house is built on the rock foundation, amidst the terrors of the storms, the house will stand.

We thank Thee that in this world of change and restlessness, the leaders of the state, as well as others, can find comfort in the divine word which says: "In quietness and confidence shall be your strength" (Isa. 3:15). May we never forget that we have recourse to the Almighty, for wisdom, fortitude, stability and spiritual poise.

Grant us this day power to advance in all things that are right. May we abhor that which is evil and cleave to that which is good (Rom. 12:9). Grant us grace to cast away the works of darkness and to put on the armor of light (Rom. 13:12).

These favors we ask in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Messrs. Bloom and Proud, excused until 9:30 a.m., and Messrs. Kennedy and Ziebarth, who were excused.

ONE HUNDRED-SECOND DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Thursday, June 5, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:05 a.m., President Everroad presiding.

Prayer was offered by Dr. Edward L. Jeambey.

Prayer

Eternal God our Heavenly Father: We come into Thy presence this morning, not because of what we are, but because of what Thou art. As Moses said, "Thou art a great God and mighty." (Deut. 10:17). And as Solomon said, "Great is our God." (2 Chr. 2:5), and as Jeremiah the Prophet said, "Thy name is great." (Jer. 10:6); and as today multitudes are singing:

"O Lord, my God, in awesome wonder, consider all the worlds Thy hands have made, I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder, Thy power throughout the universe displayed. Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee. How great thou art, how great thou art."

Thou knowest the numbers of the stars for Thou didst create them (Gen. 1:16). Thou callest them all by their names, for Thou didst name them (Psa. 147:4). With all Thine infinite power, how wonderful that we can approach Thy throne of grace to find help in time of need. May we so organize ourselves that the dreams of the founders of our country may become realities and not nightmares. Deliver us from the pitfalls and slime pits that ruined ancient civilizations, and help us to keep off the broad way that leads to destruction; and keep on the narrow way that leads to life.

May we heed the warning and profit by the admonition of Thy word, which says, "The wicked shall be turned into hell and the nations that forget God," (Psa. 9:17) and "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord." (Psa. 33:12).

Help us as Americans not to forget Thee, and that even a minority with God is a majority to cause the abiding things to prevail.

Be pleased to honor at this time the servants of this nation, on land, on sea, or in the air, who in any way are contributing to the preservation of the ideals for which our banner, Old Glory, stands.

We ask these favors in the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Mr. Knight, excused until 10:00 a.m. and Mr. Schmit, excused until 10:30 a.m., Mrs. Craft and Messrs. Kennedy and Ziebarth, who were excused.

1. Amend the pending Batchelder amendments by striking amendments 2 to 10 and insert the following:

“2. Strike original sections 7 to 23 and insert 4 new sections to read as follows:

Sec. 7. Provisions of this act shall be administered by the county attorney in each county.

Sec. 8. (1) Any person who claims to have been injured by a discriminatory housing practice may file a complaint with the county attorney of the county in which the practice is alleged to have occurred. The complaint shall be in writing and be in such form as the county attorney requires. Upon the receipt of such complaint, the county attorney shall furnish a copy of the same to the person or persons who allegedly committed the alleged discriminatory housing practice.

(2) Within thirty days after receiving the complaint or within thirty days after receiving reference of a complaint pursuant to Section 810 (c) of the Federal Fair Housing Act of 1968, the county attorney shall investigate the complaint and determine whether probable cause exists to credit the allegations of the complaint. If the county attorney determines probable cause does exist, he shall proceed to try to eliminate or correct the alleged discriminatory housing practice by informal methods of conference, conciliation, and persuasion. Nothing said or done in the course of such informal endeavors may be made public or used as evidence in a subsequent proceeding under this act without the written consent of all persons concerned.

24 (3) A complaint shall be filed within one hun-
25 dred eighty days after the alleged discriminatory hous- 26 ing practice occurred or the same shall be waived. The 27 complaint shall state the facts upon which the allega- 28 tions of the discriminatory housing practice are based.
29 Complaints may be reasonably and fairly amended at any 30 time. Both complaints and answers shall be verified 31 under oath.

32 (4) Whenever a fair housing law of an incorporated 33 city provides rights and remedies for alleged discrimina-
34 tory housing practices which are substantially equivalent 35 to the rights and remedies provided in this act, the 36 county attorney shall, within five days after receiving 37 the complaint, refer such complaint to the appropriate 38 city agency, and the county attorney shall take no further 39 action with respect to such complaint if the city agency 40 has, within thirty days from the date the alleged offense
41 has been brought to its attention, commenced proceedings 42 in the matter, or having done so, carries forward such 43 proceedings with reasonable promptness. In no event 44 shall the county attorney take further action unless he 45 certifies that in his judgment, under the circumstances 46 of the particular case, the protection of the rights of 47 the parties or the interests of justice require such 48 action.

49 (5) In any proceeding brought pursuant to this 50 act, the burden of proof shall be on the complainant.

51 (6) In conducting an investigation the county 52 attorney shall have access at all reasonable times to 53 premises, records, documents, individuals, and other 54 evidence or possible sources of evidence and may examine, 55 record, and copy such materials and take and record the 56 testimony or statements of such persons as are reasonably 57 necessary for the furtherance of the investigation;
58 Provided, that such evidence shall not be made public.
59 The county attorney may issue subpoenas to compel access 60 to or the production of such materials or for the appearance 61 of such persons, and may issue interrogatories to the 62 parties, to the same extent and subject to the same limi-
63 tations as would apply if the subpoenas or interrogatories
64 were issued or served in aid of a civil action in the dis-
65 trict court. The county attorney also may administer 66 oaths.

67 (7) Upon written application to the county attor- 68 ney, a complainant and respondent shall be entitled to

69 the issuance of a reasonable number of subpoenas by and 70 in the name of the county attorney to the same extent and 71 subject to the same limitations as subpoenas issued by 72 the county attorney. Subpoenas issued at the request of 73 a complainant and respondent shall show on their face 74 the name and address of such party and shall state that 75 they were issued at his request.

76 (8) Any person who willfully fails or neglects
77 to attend and testify or to answer any lawful inquiry 78 or to produce records, documents, or other evidence, if

82 not more than one thousand dollars or imprisoned in the 83 county jail for not more than one year, or both. Any 84 person who with the intent to thereby mislead the county
85 attorney, shall make or cause to be made any false entry 86 or statement of fact in any complaint, report, account, 87 record, or other documents submitted to the county attor- 88 ney pursuant to this subpoena or other order, or shall 89 willfully neglect or fail to make or a cause to be made full, 90 true and correct entries in such reports, accounts, rec- 91 ords, or other documents, or shall willfully mutilate, 92 alter, or by other means falsify any documentary evidence, 93 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction
94 thereof, shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars
95 or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than one 96 year, or both.

Sec. 9. Any incorporated city may enact ordinances
2 which are substantially equivalent to this act, and may 3 establish agencies to carry out the provisions of such 4 ordinances. Wherever a city ordinance provides rights 5 and remedies for alleged discriminatory practices which 6 are substantially equivalent to the rights and remedies
7 provided in this act, the county attorney shall refer 8 any complaint arising in such city to the appropriate 9 local agency, and shall take no further action on such 10 complaint if the local agency proceeds promptly to handle 11 such complaint pursuant to the local ordinance. If the 12 county attorney determines that a local agency is not 13 handling a complaint with reasonable promptness, or that 14 the protection of the rights of the parties or the in- 15 terests of justice requires such action, he may regain 16 jurisdiction of the complaint and proceed to handle it 17 in the same manner as other complaints which are not 18 referred to local agencies.

2 Sec. 10. If within thirty days after a complaint
3 is filed with the county attorney or within thirty days
4 after the reference by the county attorney of a complaint
5 to a local agency, the county attorney or local agency 6 has been unable to obtain voluntary compliance with the 7 provisions of this act or the local ordinance, the com-
8 plainant may commence a civil action in the district 9 court of the county in which the complaint arose, against 10 the respondent named in the complaint, to enforce the 11 rights granted or protected by this act. If the court 12 finds that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred, 13 the court may enjoin the respondent from engaging in such 14 practice or order such affirmative action as may be appro- 15 priate. In any proceeding brought pursuant to this 16 section the burden of proof shall be on the complainant.
17 Whenever an action is commenced pursuant to this section, 18 the county attorney shall terminate all efforts to achieve 19 voluntary compliance, unless otherwise ordered by the 20 court. Such actions shall be commenced within one hun-
21 dred eighty days after the alleged discriminatory housing 22 practice occurred. The court shall continue any such 23 case from time to time before bringing it to trial if 24 it believes that the conciliation efforts of the county 25 attorney or local agency are likely to result in satisfac-
26 tory settlement of the complaint. Any sale, encumbrance, 27 or rental consummated prior to the issuance of any court 28 order under the authority of this act, and involving a

ONE HUNDRED-THIRD DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Friday, June 6, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., Speaker Warner presiding.

Prayer was offered by Dr. Edward L. Jeambey.

Eternal God—Our Heavenly Father:

We invoke thy divine blessing to rest upon us at the threshold of this new day. Bless our going out and our coming in. Guide us in our deliberations and our conclusions. Help us to do good to all men as we are presented with open doors of opportunity. Prompts us in the relief of suffering, help us to bear the burdens of others, and motivate us to share our blessings with the less fortunate.

Give us strength and wisdom and gird us with power that we might successfully oppose the aggression of evil, and stay the hand of the enemy that would cause degeneration in our society.

Grant that we might not be guilty of weighing our lives down with worthless efforts and needless purposes, but rather dedicate our talents and exercise them in the cause of peace and progress.
As one of past days was prone to pray:

“Give us, Lord, a bit of sun,

A bit of work, a bit of fun;

Give us all, in this struggle and sputter,

Our daily bread, and a bit of butter.

Give us Lord, a chance to be

Our goodly best, brave, wise, and free,

Our goodly best, for ourselves and others,

Till all men learn to live like brothers.”

Help us to realize that the troublers of a nation are not the Elijahs, but the prophets of Baal (1 Kings. 18:17-18), for the Elijahs are the true patriots ever struggling to maintain the high ideals upon which a people should build an enduring structure.

Let it be said of us, as it was said of the Apostle Paul:

“Always a gentleman, but never a coward.” So—
 Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet—
 Lest we forget, lest we forget.
 Through Christ, our Risen Lord and Redeemer, we pray.
 Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Mrs. Craft, Miss Reynolds and Messrs. Batchelder, Burbach, Carpenter, Clark, Harsh, Klaver and Kokes, who were excused.

ONE HUNDRED-FOURTH DAY

Legislative Chamber, Lincoln, Nebraska
Monday, June 9, 1969

Pursuant to adjournment, the Legislature met at 9:00 a.m., Speaker Warner presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Prayer

Almighty God, deliver us from the foolishness of impatience. Let us not be in such a hurry as to run on without Thee. We know that it takes a lifetime to make a tree; we know that fruit does not ripen in an afternoon, and Thou Thyself didst take a week to make the universe. May we remember that it takes time to build the State that can truly be called God's own country. It takes time to find out what we should do; what is right and what is best. So slow us down for a minute, O Lord, that we may take time to think, time to pray, and time to find out what Thy will is for our lives and our State. Then give us the common sense and the firm courage to do it, for the good of our people and the glory of Thy name. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Messrs. Adamson and Bloom, Mrs. Craft, Messrs. Duis and Harsh, Mrs. Orme and Miss Reynolds, who were excused.

12 cept that an investment in stock of such a company in 13 an amount determined by the director to be insignificant 14 shall not be considered disqualifying.

2 Sec. 3. The chief of the transportation services 3 bureau shall have the following duties, powers and 4 responsibilities:

- 4 (1) To establish standards for which a state agency
5 may qualify for the full-time assignment of state-owned 6 motor vehicles;

8 the use of agencies whose travel requirements do not 9 meet the qualifications set in subdivision (1) of this 10 section;
- 11 (3) To repair, maintain, and lease to state

16 using state vehicles and write specifications for state-17 owned vehicles to be purchased by the Purchasing Agent; 18 and

19 (5) To present to the accounting division of the 23 such use. Income arising from these billings shall be 24 deposited to the Transportation Services Bureau Revolving 25 Fund, which is hereby created. All expenses of acquisi-26 tion, operation, and maintenance of state-owned vehicles 27 used primarily for transportation of state employees 28 shall be paid from such fund. The Department of Adminis-29 trative Services shall develop a system of time and 30 mileage charges for the purpose of billing the various 31 state agencies for their vehicle usage. The daily, 32 weekly, or monthly charge shall cover all fixed expenses 33 of such vehicles and the mileage charge shall cover the 34 variable costs of operation. All salaries, capital 35 equipment other than vehicle acquisition, capital con-36 struction, and other administrative costs of this bureau 37 shall be paid out of appropriations from the General

4 airplanes except aircraft of the National Guard or Air 5 National Guard used primarily for transportation of 6 persons which were paid for wholly or partially by funds 7 other than the General Fund shall transfer title to such 8 vehicles to the transportation services bureau. The 9 transportation services bureau shall compute the value 10 of such vehicles at time of transfer and give credit to 11 the appropriate agency and program for the portion of such 12 value based on the percentage of original purchase cost 13 charged to appropriations from the General Fund. To get 14 such credit each agency will make available the appro-15 priate accounting data. Such credit will be applied

15 against future daily, weekly, or monthly charges but not 16 against future mileage charges.

Sec. 7. No agency shall allow mileage reimburse-

11 mile actually and necessarily traveled in each calendar 12 month.

Sec. 8. Subject to the provisions of section 6

2 81-1003, 81-1004, 81-1005, and 81,1006, Reissue Revised 3 Statutes of Nebraska, 1943, and section 81-1007, Revised 4 Statutes Supplement, 1967, are repealed.

LEGISLATIVE BILL 1381. Placed on General File as amended.

Standing Committee amendments to LB 1381:

1. Strike sections 1 to 5 and insert the following:

“Section 1. The Legislature by this act recog-2 nizes that freedom of expression under the first amend-3 ment of the United States Constitution includes the 4 freedom for individuals to communicate their views to 5 the public in public places, but at the same time recog-6 nizes that there must be reasonable limitations on the 7 exercise of that freedom in order to preserve public 8 order. The act further seeks to preserve the public 9 interest in the orderly use of public facilities while 10 not unnecessarily hindering the communication of ideas

11 and opinions. It seeks to prevent conduct which materi-12 ally disrupts, or involves substantial disorder or inva-13 sion of the rights of others, and to do this by punishing 14 and preventing specific disorders, or the threat thereof, 15 where such conduct is disruptive of the public peace.

Sec. 2. (1) A person is guilty of riot if, with 2 two or more persons, he participates in a course of dis-3 orderly conduct:

4 (a) With intent to commit or facilitate the com-5 mission of a felony or misdemeanor;

6 (b) With intent to prevent or coerce official 7 action; or

8 (c) When such person or any other participant 9 to the knowledge of such person uses or plans to use a 10 firearm or other deadly weapon.

11 (2) Where two or more persons are participating 12 in a course of disorderly conduct which threatens to 13 cause violent and destructive interference with the rights 14 of others, a peace officer may order the participants 15 and others in the vicinity to disperse. Any person who 16 refuses or knowingly fails to obey such an order commits 17 a misdemeanor.

18 (3) Any person convicted of riot shall be guilty 19 of a felony and shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined 20 in a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, or be im-21 prisoned in the county jail not exceeding six months, or 22 imprisoned in the Nebraska Penal and Correctional Complex 23 for not less than one year nor more than three years, or 24 be both fined and imprisoned in either institution.

Sec. 3. (1) A person is guilty of unlawful as-2 ssembly if he assembles with two or more persons for the 3 purpose of engaging in conduct constituting the crime
4 of riot or if, being present at any assembly that either 5 has or develops such a purpose, he remains there with an 6 intent to advance that purpose.

7 (2) Any person convicted of unlawful assembly 8 shall be fined in a sum not exceeding three hundred dol-9 lars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding 10 ninety days.

Sec. 4. (1) A person is guilty of disorderly
2 conduct if, with intent to cause public inconvenience,

3 annoyance or alarm, or recklessly creating a risk thereof, 4 he:

5 (a) Engages in fighting or threatening, or in 6 violent or tumultuous behavior; or

7 (b) Makes unreasonable noise or offensively
8 coarse utterance, gesture or display, or addressed abu-9 sive language to any person present; or

10 (c) Creates a hazardous or physically offensive 11 condition by any act which serves no legitimate purpose 12 of the actor.

13 Public, as used in this act, unless the context 14 otherwise requires, shall mean affecting or likely to 15 affect persons in a place to which the public or a sub-16 stantial group thereof has access, including, but not 17 limited to, highways, transport facilities, schools, 18 colleges, universities, prisons, apartment houses, places 19 of business or amusement, or any neighborhood.

20 (2) Any person convicted of disorderly conduct 21 shall be fined in a sum not exceeding one hundred dol-22 lars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding 23 thirty days.

Sec. 5. A person who purposely obstructs, or im-2 pairs the administration of law or other governmental 3 function by force, violence, physical interference or 4 obstruction, or any other unlawful act, shall, upon con-5 viction thereof, be fined in a sum not exceeding five 6 hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail not 7 more than six months. The provisions of this section 8 does not apply to flight by a person charged with crime, 9 refusal to submit to arrest, failure to perform a 10 legal duty other than an official duty or any other means 11 of avoiding compliance with law without affirmative 12 interference with governmental functions.

Sec. 6. (1) A person is guilty of the crime of 19 for a use that carries a threat of serious bodily injury 20 or destruction of property; or any instrument or sub-21 stance that is capable of being used to inflict serious 22 bodily injury, when probable cause exists that such 23 instrument or substance will be so used; or any part or 24 ingredient in any instrument or substance included above, 25 when probable cause exists that such part or ingredient 26 will be so used.

27 (4) Any person convicted of an assault on emer-28 gency personnel shall be fined in a sum not exceeding 29 five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county 30 jail not exceeding six months. Any person who commits 31 an assault upon emergency personnel with or through the 32 use of any dangerous weapon or substance is guilty of a 33 felony and shall, upon conviction thereof, be imprisoned 34 in the Nebraska Penal and Correctional Complex for not 35 less than one year nor more than five years.

Sec. 7. (1) Except as otherwise provided in 2 this section, it is unlawful for any person to transport 3 or possess off his own premises any dangerous weapon or 4 substance as defined in subsection (3) of section 6 of 5 this act, in any area:

6 (a) In which a declared state of emergency exists; 7 or

5 period of said emergency and within the area defined in 6 the declaration of said state of emergency.

10 firearms of any size or description is prohibited.

11 (b) The displaying by or in any store or shop of 12 any ammunition, guns and other firearms of any size or 13 description is prohibited. The owner or one in possession 14 of such store or shop shall, during the existence of such 15 emergency, place such items in a locked, fireproof con-16 tainer stored away from public access.

17 (c) The possession in a public place of a pistol, 18 revolver, rifle or a shotgun by any person, except emer-

33 with or without consideration, of gasoline or any other

44 (3) When a state of emergency has been declared, 45 the proclamation thereof may provide for the establish-46 ment of curfews, including, but not limited to, the pro-

3 within their respective jurisdictions, may declare the 4 existence of a state of emergency for all or part of said
5 jurisdiction according to the provisions of subsection
6 (2) of this section; Provided, that when the Governor 7 determines that a state of emergency exists, he must 8 further find that local control of the emergency is 9 insufficient to assure adequate protection for lives
10 and property. Local control shall be deemed insufficient 11 only if: (a) Needed control cannot be imposed locally 12 because local authorities responsible for preservation 13 of the public peace have not taken steps necessary for 14 effectual control of the emergency that has arisen; (b) 15 the area in which the state of emergency exists has 16 spread across local jurisdictional boundaries and the 17 local control measures of the jurisdictions are conflict-

19 tect life and property are, or unquestionably will be, 20 severely hampered; or (c) the scale of the emergency is 21 so great it exceeds the capability of local authorities 22 to cope with it.

23 (2) Whenever the appropriate official determines 24 that there has been an act of violence or a flagrant and 25 substantial defiance or resistance to a lawful exercise 26 of public authority, and that, partly on account thereof, 27 there is probable cause to believe that there exists a 28 clear and present danger of a riot or other general public

29 disorder, widespread disobedience to the law, and sub-30 stantial injury to persons or to property, all of which 31 constitutes a threat to public peace or order, he may 32 declare that a state of emergency exists; Provided, that 33 the proclamation declaring such state of emergency must 34 contain a clear and concise statement of the area to 35 which it applies.

36 (3) All prohibitions and restrictions imposed by 37 proclamation shall take effect immediately upon publica-38 tion of the proclamation in the area affected unless the 52 (5) Obligations and expenses incurred by a 53 municipality or a county during a state of emergency 54 shall be paid by such municipality or county; Provided, 55 if a state of emergency is declared under the provisions

59 with the authority contained in the Governor's Emergency 60 Fund Act and the Interlocal Cooperation Act.

61 (6) Nothing in this section shall prevent partic-

64 regulation, custom or practice.

Sec. 10. (1) The prosecuting attorney of any 2 municipality is hereby empowered to designate special

4 violations of ordinances or provisions contained in a 5 proclamation made pursuant to section 8 of this act, 6 occurring during a state of emergency, and such appointees 7 shall have the same authority to prosecute such violations 8 as the appointing officer.

9 (2) The county attorney of any county is hereby 10 empowered to designate special prosecuting attorneys to 11 assist in the prosecution of violations of provisions 12 contained in a proclamation made pursuant to section 8 13 of this act, or statutes of the State of Nebraska oc-14 ccurring during a state of emergency declared pursuant 15 to section 8 of this act, and such special prosecuting 16 attorneys shall have the same authority to prosecute as 17 the appointing officer.

18 (3) When the Governor determines that a state of 19 emergency exists in any part of Nebraska, the Attorney 20 General may provide assistance, upon request of a county 21 attorney, in the prosecution of violations of provisions 22 of proclamations made pursuant to section 8 of this act, 23 or statutes of the State of Nebraska occurring during such 24 state of emergency. The Attorney General, in providing 25 such assistance, is authorized to designate special deputy 26 attorneys general for the State of Nebraska, who shall 27 have authority to sign complaints and informations.

 Sec. 11. (1) In a state of emergency declared 2 under section 8 of this act, and with the approval of 3 the governing body of the municipality, the presiding

18 assist in disposing of the additional cases and matters 19 arising because of such emergency. The county judge may 20 assign such cases and matters to the special county judge 21 as he deems necessary and proper. Only lawyers in good 22 standing may be selected and appointed as special county 23 judges, and they shall receive a per diem of one-two 24 hundredth of the annual salary of the appointing judge.

28 (3) No person shall willfully refuse or fail to 29 leave the property of, or any building or other facility 30 owned, operated, or controlled by the governing board 31 of any educational institution upon being requested to 32 do so by the chief administrative officer of such insti-
