

AmeriCorps NCCC Pacific Region Campus

The NCCC Pacific Region campus is in California's Central Valley on the former McClellan Air Force Base in North Highlands, CA.

About North Highlands

North Highlands, CA is located just northeast of Sacramento. The NCCC Pacific Region campus is on the former McClellan Air Force Base in North Highlands, CA. Following the base's closure in 2001, the property was converted into a multi-use business community called McClellan Park. In addition to AmeriCorps, McClellan Park hosts private business, residential neighborhoods, and services for active and retired military personnel.

Things to do

There are plenty of places to see and visit around North Highlands. Whether you love hiking or cycling, North Highlands has outdoor activities you'll want to check out. Sacramento is full of things to do, whether it's catching a live music performance, visiting a museum, enjoying the outdoors, going for a hike, checking out our 800+ murals, or any number of other activities.

Lodging

You will be assigned a dorm that will serve as your "home base" during your term of service with the Pacific Region campus. The dormitories are co-ed, with each room divided by gender. Suite style rooms are connected by a bathroom. Roommate assignments are made shortly before your arrival on campus, so you can meet your roommate(s) when you get here. A typical room has bunk beds, closet space, drawers and desks. There are lounges and outdoor space for relaxing. Each room also has a mini-fridge and cleaning supplies.

The Pacific Region supports service projects in 9 states and several territories: Alaska, California, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, Washington, and the Pacific Territories.
