SERVICE AND SUPPORT TERMS

The Supplier shall provide the Services in accordance with the Supplier Terms and Conditions Part C (Service and Support Terms).

DEFINITIONS

In addition to the defined terms set out in the Terms and Conditions, the following definitions apply to this Call-Off Contract:

“Analytical Population” means the Supplier’s view of a population that is representative of the UK credit population at the Commencement Date.

“Anonymised Data” means as defined in Recital 26 of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), namely information which does not relate to an identified or identifiable natural person or to personal data rendered anonymous in such a manner that the data subject is not or no longer identifiable.

The GDPR does not apply to anonymised data.

“Applicable Legislation” refers to the Data Protection Legislation, and all laws and regulations which apply to the Buyer in the conduct of its business as a provider of credit facilities.

“Buyer’s Data” means any data which is provided or submitted by the Buyer (which includes the Buyer’s own data and may include the Buyer’s third party data) in the solution or in relation of it that may be used by the Buyer with the Services consistent with the terms of this Call of Contract and does not include Supplier’s Data.

“Core Hours” means Monday to Friday, 09:00 – 17:00, excluding bank holidays in England and Wales;

“Supplier Data” means the uploads of any data that has been provided by the Supplier.

“Lender” means any individual lender or other entity with a trade that is included in the Supplier’s Data.

“Man-Day” means 7.5 hours of time as recorded on the Supplier time sheet recording system during the period of 9.00am to 5-30pm Monday to Friday excluding public holidays in England and Wales. Part Man-days shall be measured in minimum of half day increments.

“Models” means models, scoring algorithms and attributes.

“Principles of Reciprocity” the current version of the Principles of Reciprocity published by the Steering Committee on Reciprocity from time to time.

“Pseudonymised” means the processing of personal data in such a manner that the personal data can no longer be attributed to a specific data subject without the use of additional information, provided that such additional information is kept separately and is subject to technical and organisational measures to ensure that the personal data are not attributed to an identified or identifiable natural person. Pseudonymisation is not an anonymisation technique, therefore GDPR still applies.

“Record Identifier” means an identifier that marks that particular record as unique from every other record.

“Software” means the software used in the provision of the Services.

“User” means Buyer’s employees, contractors or any other person authorised by the Buyer who is performing work solely for the benefit of the Buyer’s operations in the United Kingdom. The number of authorised Users shall be specified in the Services section.

1 CAIS

1.1 The use by the Buyer of any of the Services which is dependent upon data derived from the Supplier’s “Credit Account Information Sharing” Scheme (“CAIS”) is conditional upon there being in force between the Supplier and the Buyer an agreement in respect of CAIS, and the Buyer complying with the Principles of Reciprocity. The Buyer agrees that it will use the Services in compliance with its entitlement under CAIS from time to time. If at any time the Buyer’s use of the Services is not compliant with its entitlement under CAIS, the Supplier may (without prejudice to any other rights or remedies of the Supplier) give the Buyer written notice of its non-compliance. Where the Buyer has not remedied its non-compliance within 28 days of receipt of notice to do so, the Supplier may suspend the Services.

If at any time there is not a valid CAIS agreement between the Supplier and the Buyer or if a complaint is raised in accordance with paragraphs 2 and 3 below the Supplier may (without prejudice to any other rights or remedies of the Supplier) suspend the provision of the relevant Services, and/or to modify the Services accordingly.

2 SCOR

2.1 If the Buyer receives any complaint from the Steering Committee on Reciprocity (SCOR) or any CAIS member relating to the Buyer’s use of the Supplier Data, it shall notify the Supplier as soon as reasonably practical, or if the Supplier receives any such complaint directly, the Supplier may in each case (acting reasonably taking into account the seriousness and in the Supplier’s reasonable opinion the likelihood of the complaint being upheld) suspend the provision of the Services affected by such complaint (the “Affected Services”) with immediate effect pending a ruling or decision by SCOR (the “Ruling”). Prior to the Ruling, the Supplier may require the Buyer to provide such assistance as is reasonably required (including attendance at meetings with the Supplier and/or SCOR) to respond to the complaint.

2.2 If the complaint is dismissed at the Ruling, the Supplier shall reinstate the Affected Services and refund the Charges in relation to the Affected Services on a pro rata basis for the period such services were suspended as soon as reasonably practical but in no event later than 28 days. If the complaint is upheld at the Ruling, the Supplier shall be entitled to at its discretion either (i) terminate this Call of Contract in respect of the Affected Services upon providing written notice to the Buyer; or (ii) modify the Affected Services such that they comply with the Ruling. For the avoidance of doubt this Call of Contract shall continue in full force and effect in relation to any Services other than the Affected Services.

3 Buyer’s Data

3.1 The Buyer is responsible for obtaining, and must ensure that it has obtained, all permissions in relation to Buyer Data necessary or relevant to permit the Supplier to provide the Services for the Buyer to undertake the Permitted Purpose. The Buyer must obtain all required permissions prior to any use of the Services, Supplier’s Materials and/or Supplier’s Data.

3.2 The Buyer represents and warrants the Supplier that it has sufficient right, title and interest in and to the data contained in the Buyer’s Data to provide such data to the Supplier for use by the Supplier and the Buyer as contemplated in this Call of Contract. Further, to the extent any such the Buyer Data that has been licenced from a third party, the Buyer represents and warrants that the use of the Buyer Data as contemplated by this Call of Contract complies with the applicable licence terms, terms of use, and other usage terms as set forth by the providers of such data. The Buyer shall be solely responsible for ensuring that any Users of the Services access and use such Services in strict adherence to the terms of this Call of Contract.

3.3 The Buyer will:

3.3.1 be responsible for verifying the accuracy of the Buyer Data input and output while using the Services.

3.3.2 be responsible for ensuring that all Buyer’s Data furnished and used by the Buyer in Ascend are adequately duplicated, documented and protected.

4 Report Access

4.1 In the event the Buyer creates one or more reports using Supplier’s Data and/or Buyer’s Data, the Supplier agrees that Users shall be permitted to access and use such reports. In addition, the Supplier agrees that the Buyer can share such reports with authorised employees of the Buyer that are not Users of Ascend provided that the reports have been created only using Supplier's Data and Buyer's Data, as contemplated herein.

4.2 In the event the Buyer creates one or more reports using the Supplier's Data and/or Buyer's Data, and wishes to share such a report with a third party, the Buyer shall only do so following the Supplier's approval.

5 Termination

The Supplier may terminate the Services upon thirty (30) days' notice to the Buyer at any time during the Term if the Services are no longer available by reason of termination or expiration of the Supplier's agreement(s) with its supplier(s) and/or third party licensors.

6 Indemnity

The Buyer will indemnify and hold the Supplier and its third party licensors harmless for all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses resulting from (i) the Buyer's use of the Services (including the Software); and/or (ii) the Buyer's failure to comply with the terms of the Call of Contract, to include any terms imposed by third party licensors. The limits and exclusions of liability in Clause 9 of the Terms and Conditions shall not apply to this indemnity.

7 No representations or warranties

Except as expressly provided in this Schedule, the Supplier makes no representations or warranties of any kind, nature or description, express or implied, with respect to the Consultancy Services, or any advice, assistance or materials supplied or provided hereunder, including any warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose.

8 Software tools and upgrades

Both parties agree that the Supplier reserves the right to change the software tools detailed in this Call of Contract and the Supplier will apply upgrades to these software tools as needed.

9 Supplier's recommendations

The implementation of any recommendations made by the Supplier to the Buyer hereunder shall be at the sole discretion of the Buyer. The Buyer shall be solely responsible for determining whether the recommendations offered by the Supplier will meet the Buyer's business needs. As a result, the Supplier is not a guarantor of any Consultancy Services and shall assume no responsibility or liability for the strategies implemented or the results achieved by the Buyer.
