

Ohio Revised Code

Section 109.122 Review of entertainment or sponsorship contracts of expositions commission.

Effective: July 1, 1993

Legislation: House Bill 152 - 120th General Assembly

(A) The attorney general may review for form, content, and legality and provide legal advice concerning any proposed entertainment or sponsorship contracts of the Ohio expositions commission that the commission provides as required by section 991.03 of the Revised Code.

(B) The commission shall reimburse the attorney general for all legal expenses associated with reviewing proposed entertainment or sponsorship contracts under division (A) of this section.
