I. ABOUT THE AWARDS PROGRAM

- A. The Defense Media Merit Awards (DMMA) program recognizes excellence among U.S. government civilian broadcast journalists, graphic artists, journalists, photographers, public affairs practitioners, mass communication specialists and videographers assigned to combatant commands, joint task forces, defense agencies and DoD field activities, including the Defense Media Activity. It also fosters an environment of innovation and growth, leading to more effective communication programs. The competition is administered by the Defense Media Activity.
- B. The DMMA competition and the guidance contained in this document also provides a competitive pathway for U.S. government civilian employees assigned to combatant commands, joint task forces, defense agencies and DoD field activities, including the Defense Media Activity, to submit their work for judging as potential entries into the DoD Media Awards competition.
- C. Military members assigned to the combatant commands, joint task forces, defense agencies and DoD field activities, including the Defense Media Activity, submit their work to their respective Service competition. However, team products created by Defense Media Activity personnel, regardless of the team members' branch of service, must all compete in the DMMA competition.

II. POINT OF CONTACT

For information regarding entry requirements, email the DMMA contest coordinator, Mr. Chad McMeen, at chad.e.mcmeen.civ@mail.mil or call (443) 801-7824.

IV. ELIGIBILITY

- A. U.S. government civilian employees assigned to combatant commands, joint task forces, defense agencies and DoD field activities, including the Defense Media Activity, with the photographer, journalist, photojournalist, videographer, broadcast journalist, graphic designer, communication, public affairs, or equivalent occupation series are eligible to enter the competition.
- B. Teams composed of military members, U.S. government employees, or any combination thereof with the photographer, journalist, photojournalist, videographer, broadcast journalist, graphic designer, communication, public affairs, or equivalent occupation series assigned to combatant commands, joint task forces, defense agencies, and DoD field activities, including the Defense Media Activity, are eligible to enter their team products to the competition. All team products, regardless of the team's composition – all military, some military and some U.S. government civilians, or all U.S. government civilians – compete in the DMMA competition as unit entries. Products created with contributions from contractor employees are allowed, but they must not have been created as part of a contract or by a team comprised exclusively of contract employees. Contractors' contribution to a team product must be less than 50 percent of the total submission.
- C. National Guard Joint Force Headquarters staff members with the photographer, journalist, photojournalist, videographer, broadcast journalist, graphic artist, communication, public affairs, or equivalent occupation series are eligible enter their state-level unit products to the competition. Products are the work of teams comprised of civilian employees and military members with contributions by contract employees. However, products must not have been created as part of a contract or by a team comprised exclusively of contract employees. Contractors' contribution to a team product must be less than 50 percent of the total submission.
- D. Military members assigned to the combatant commands, joint task forces, defense agencies and DoD field activities, including the Defense Media Activity, are ineligible to enter their individual work products to the DMMA competition. They must submit their individual work to their respective Service competition. However, team products created by Defense Media Activity personnel, regardless of the team members' branch of service, must all compete in the DMMA competition. Military members assigned to the Defense Media Activity should refer to command guidance.
- E. Active-duty and Reserve military members assigned to combatant commands, joint task forces, defense agencies and DoD field activities enter their individual work products to their respective Service competition. Military members assigned to the Defense Media Activity should refer to the DMA media contest guidance published under separate cover.
- F. Army and Air National Guard members assigned to combatant commands, joint task forces, defense agencies and DoD field activities enter their individual work products through the National Guard Bureau.

- G. Employees who leave U.S. government service during the year may NOT enter the competition.
- H. Personnel assigned to the Coast Guard Auxiliary and the Civil Air Patrol are prohibited from competing unless they meet the eligibility criteria stated above.
- I. Military, civilian and contract personnel assigned to “Stars and Stripes” newspapers are not eligible to participate. All non-appropriated fund productions and personnel are also ineligible.
- J. Employees of another nation, commonly referred to as local national employees, are not eligible to complete in the DMMA competition. Products produced with their assistance are eligible for unit categories. However, they will not be recognized individually and must contribute less than 50 percent of the total submission. Units up to the MAJCOM level can use the DVIDS awards portal for local national employee competition. Those entries must not flow up to the DMMA or DoD competitions.
- K. Government contractor employees are not authorized to compete in any individual category. Products produced with the assistance of government contractor employees are eligible for unit categories. However, contractor employees will not be recognized individually and must contribute less than 50 percent of the total submission.

V. ENTRY CRITERIA

- A. All products entering the competition must have been created to support or contribute to organizational communication objectives and must meet the highest standards of production, execution, and professional excellence. Products must convey, by content and delivery, relevant information that supports that command's information and/or mission needs and, therefore, must be authorized products approved for public release.
- B. Entries also must have been created, approved for public release, and published to the Defense Visual Information Distribution System (DVIDS) between 12:01 am Eastern Standard Time on Jan. 1, 2023 and 11:59 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on Dec. 31, 2023.
- C. Civilian enterprise guides and directories, yearbooks, cruise books, and products produced using non-appropriated funds are not eligible to compete.
- D. All still and motion imagery (photos and videos), and graphic products will contain embedded captions and other required metadata and will be assigned a Visual Information Record Identification Number (VIRIN) as instructed in the DoD Visual Information Style Guide dated July 16, 2019 and Change 2 to DoDI 5040.02, “Visual Information,” dated April 23, 2019.
- E. All entries must comply with federal law and DoD policy. For a complete list, see Appendix A.

- F. Each combatant command, joint task force, defense agency, and DoD field activity (except for the Defense Media Activity, see paragraphs G, and I in this section), may enter no more than three entries per category listed in Section XIII. Each entry must be from a different competitor. Of-the-year categories, however, are limited to one nomination.
- G. Each U.S. government civilian employee assigned to the Defense Media Activity may submit one entry per individual category listed in Section XIII.
- H. The Defense Information School, each component, Media Center, and each Media Bureau assigned to the Defense Media Activity may submit one entry into the each of the following three categories: short- and long-form production video and publication. Flagship publications, such as “Airman” and “All Hands” magazine, are ineligible to compete in the Online Publication category. Leaders from each division, AFN station, media center, and media bureau will submit a list of their nominees, as stated in Section VII, by the deadline listed in Section III.
- I. The DMMA competition is one of six competitions eligible to submit entries to the DoD-level DoD Media Awards. The DMMA competition may submit only one entry to each of-the-year category.
- J. No single product may be entered in more than one category. In addition, individual components (graphics, photos, video, etc.) of a multimedia product, picture story, or photojournalism entry may not be entered into other categories as these items were created for the overall product, not for individual use.
- K. The Communicator of the Year category is open to U.S. government civilian personnel assigned to combatant commands, joint task forces, defense agencies, and DoD field activating, including the Defense Media Activity, if they meet eligibility criteria listed in Section IV, paragraph A. Entrants may enter multiple of-the-year categories (communicator, graphic designer, photographer, videographer, or writer of the year categories) during the same competition year. Since military members assigned to combatant commands, joint task forces, defense agencies, and DoD field activities must compete in their Service competition, entries received from military members for this category in the DMMA competition will be rejected.
- L. Entries must reach the contest coordinator by the deadlines established in Section III.

VI. ENTRY DISQUALIFICATION AND REJECTION

- A. Products entered by personnel who do not meet eligibility requirements listed in Section IV will be disqualified.
- B. Individual products with more than one name in a byline or credit line will be disqualified.
- C. Unit products entered in individual categories will be disqualified. Individual products containing a DVIAN will also be disqualified.

- D. Products that do not meet the specific category requirements listed in Section XIII or that fail to follow federal law or established DoD policy will be disqualified.
- E. Products that do not reach the contest coordinator by the deadlines listed in Section III will be disqualified.
- F. Challenges in judging will be decided by the Defense Media Activity director or the director's designee.
- G. DVIDS media competition submission requirements enforce as much objective criteria as possible and will prohibit the submitter from a successful submission if errors are found using automation checks. Therefore, it is the entrant's responsibility to ensure the product is uploaded and published to DVIDS correctly. Entries not uploaded or published to DVIDS as required in the category descriptions will be disqualified.

VII. HOW TO SUBMIT ENTRIES

- A. Upload and publish products to DVIDS at <https://www.dvidshub.net/>. Once logged in, go to the training section for upload instructions. Publishing graphics after they have been uploaded requires extra steps; refer to the DVIDS website for instructions.
- B. Select products using the DVIDS Awards interface module under the Admin Portal. Instructions may be found on the DVIDS website. Entries must be submitted through the DVIDS Awards interface module to enter the competition. Requests for exceptions to this rule will be denied.
- C. The entry submitter may NOT select their own entry as the winner. This second step must be done by a supervisor, or third party and they must certify the entry meets eligibility. This separation rule also applies to entries submitted on behalf of a content producer.

VIII. DESCRIPTION OF AWARD CATEGORY TYPES

Each award category is marked as either an individual or as a unit entry.

- A. Individual awards are for products created by a single person who performed most of the work. Photos or graphics must not contain signatures, logos, or markings of any kind on the image.
- B. Unit awards are for products created because of a team effort. Products created with contributions from contractor employees are allowed, but they must not have been created as part of a contract or by a team comprised exclusively of contract employees. Contractors' contribution to a team product must be less than 50 percent of the total submission.

IX. AWARDS

- A. Individual Awards. DMMA awards will be given to U.S. government civilians competing in 24 individual award categories: Communicator of the Year, five graphic design, six photo, five print, seven video. First-, second- and third-place awards will be given in all individual categories except for the of-the-year categories. Only one person will receive an award in each of-the-year category.
- a. First-place individual award winners will receive plaques and certificates.
 - b. Second- and third-place individual award winners will receive certificates.
 - c. No award will be made if the judges deem that no one entry meets program standards. No honorable mentions will be awarded.
- B. Unit Awards. Awards will be given to combatant commands, joint task forces, National Guard Joint Force Headquarters staffs, defense agencies, and DoD field activities, including the Defense Media Activity, competing in four unit award categories: two print and two video. First-, second- and third-place awards will be given in all categories.
1. First-place unit award winners will receive a plaque for the office of primary responsibility. Contributors will each receive certificates.
 2. Second- and third-place unit award winners will receive certificates: one to the unit and one to each contributor.
 3. No award will be made if the judges deem that no one entry meets program standards. No honorable mentions will be awarded.
- C. Trophies and certificates will be conveyed to the combatant commands, joint task forces, defense agencies, DoD field activities, and National Guard Bureau for presentation to the winners.

X. NOTIFICATION OF WINNERS

- A. The combatant commands, joint task forces, defense agencies, and DoD field activities who submitted entries to the DMMA competition will be notified of the winners and will be responsible for notifying the winners. The National Guard Bureau will also be notified so they may notify the winners.
- B. Winning entries will be announced via the Defense Visual Information Distribution Service website at <https://www.dvidshub.net/awards/dma> after entries have been submitted to the DoD Media Awards program.

XI. AFTER-ACTION REVIEW / MEDIA AWARDS GOVERNANCE

The Defense Media Activity will host a DoD Media Awards Governance Committee meeting June 5-6, 2024, with the Services' appointed voting members and National Guard Bureau advisers to review and update competition guidance for the 2024 award cycle. The DMMA contest coordinator will attend to provide feedback in a non-voting capacity. A DMMA contest after action will be held July 17, 2024 with the designated coordinators for participating Agencies and Activities.

XII. JUDGING GUIDANCE

- A. Judging will occur March 4-8, 2024.
- B. Judges will be assigned and coordinated by DMMA contest coordinator. The coordinator will ensure judges provide feedback for each entry. Comments from the judges will be available in the DVIDS awards module for supervisors to download and share with entrants.
- C. A panel of three judges will be selected for each medium (graphic design, photography, print and video). Selection criteria for judges will be based on their professional experience in the communication and visual information fields. The lead judge for each panel will not be a Defense Media Activity staff member.
- D. All entries will be judged on professional excellence, originality, storytelling ability and creativity.
- E. Judging at all levels will use a weighted rubric within the DVIDS system. Refer to Appendix B for details.

XIII. CATEGORIES

A. General Information.

- 1. The 28 (24 individual and four unit) categories listed include five categories eligible to enter the DoD Media Awards competition: Communicator of the Year, Civilian Graphic Designer of the Year, Civilian Photographer of the Year, Thomas Jefferson Civilian Writer of the Year and Civilian Videographer of the Year.
- 2. U.S. government civilian employees assigned to combatant commands, joint task forces, defense agencies and DoD field activities, including Defense Media Activity U.S. government civilians assigned to the Air Force, Army, Navy, and Marine Corps production divisions, enter their individual work to the individual categories.
- 3. Combatant commands, joint task forces, defense agencies, and DoD field activities, including the Defense Media Activity, will enter team products to the unit award categories. Team products created by National Guard Joint Headquarters Staff members also enter the unit award categories.
- 4. Refer to Section IV of these instructions for eligibility information and Section V for entry criteria.

- B. Communicator of the Year. Candidates must submit a portfolio consisting of five examples of their work. Entry must be a portfolio profiling the work credited to one individual.

Portfolio must contain the following clearly labeled for the judges when submitting:

- One print story (Must be either a commentary, feature story, information story or one stories of a series)
- One video story
- One photo (Must be either a news photo, feature photo, portrait or one photo from a photo series.)
- Two products of the candidate's choice (Must not be a photo series.)

Follow entry criteria listed in Section V. Each product must follow the rules listed in the category descriptions.

If electing to enter a photojournalism entry as a candidate's choice, it must be the entire package (story and 3-5 photos) and it must be on a topic different from other products in the portfolio. Only one photojournalism product may be entered as part of the portfolio.

Upload each element of the portfolio as a separate product in DVIDS, and then follow the submission instructions to complete the portfolio.

Do not extract and submit component elements of a product as a candidate's choice if that product in its entirety is being submitted by the entrant to this or another category. For example, do not extract and submit a logo or other graphic from a multimedia product if the entire multimedia product is being submitted as a candidate's choice to this or another category.

Submit entry as a portfolio with the DVIDS Awards interface module.

Award Type: Individual.

- C. Graphic Design. Products must contain embedded captions and other required metadata, including a VIRIN. In addition, products must support or contribute to organizational communication objectives and be authorized products approved for public release. Products that do not follow these requirements will be disqualified. Ineligible: two-dimensional work created by free-hand methods using dry- or wet-based methods, such as line art, sketches, watercolors and oil paintings, and work created using pencil, chalk, and charcoal; pictures of displays; photo illustrations, and fine art pieces.

1. Digital Art. This category is for original work created by digital means. Examples of work accepted in this category are digital paintings, vector art, and 3-D renderings. A hand-drawn sketch, which is then digitized, may be used as the starting point, but these marks may not be visible in the final product. Ineligible: animation, cartoons, comic strips, and still photographs enhanced by digital means. Within the caption, explain why the product was created, how it was used and the meaning/purpose of each composite element within the design. Upload entry in DVIDS as a high-resolution file.

Award type: Individual.

2. Identity Design. This category includes original work that represents a logo or crest that was used in some kind of official military capacity. Examples include unit coin designs, team logos and unit crests. An entry entered in the Digital Art category cannot be entered in this category. Unit crests must have been registered with the appropriate office of heraldry prior to entry. Entrant must be prepared to provide proof of registration. Within the caption, explain why the product was created, how it was used and the meaning/purpose of each composite element within the design. Upload entry in DVIDS as a high-resolution file.
Award Type: Individual.
3. Layout and Design. This category is for single-page or double-truck layouts created using elements from various sources. Examples include info charts, info graphics, flyers, certificates, CD covers, cover art, and posters. All layout and design work must be completed by the entrant, but elements can come from other sources. Entry is limited to two pages that may be extracted from a larger work published between Jan. 1, 2023 and Dec. 31, 2023. Layouts from interactive publications or interactive PDF documents are not allowed. An entry created and entered in the Digital Art category cannot enter this category. For example, adding elements to a Digital Art entry and submitting it as a Layout and Design entry. Using a Digital Art entry as part of the layout is also not permitted. Upload entry to DVIDS as a high-resolution file.
Award Type: Individual.
4. Animation. Products include various media components that allow for animation, such as video production elements, digital displays, web animations or info graphics. Productions must not use any copyrighted materials, such as movie clips and sound bites or music without broadcast rights. Any animation style is allowed, such as 2-D, 2.5-D, 3-D, or stop motion. Products will be judged on the use of cleverness to convey information, entertainment value and evidence of animation skill. Do not submit copyrighted rigs, props, or characters. Within the caption, explain why the product was created and how it was used such as a broadcast product, video production, or web element. Animation created and used as a part of another entry, such as a video product or multimedia story, may not be entered. Upload entry to DVIDS as a high-resolution MP4 or SVG file using the graphics upload portal.
Award Type: Individual.
5. Civilian Graphic Designer of the Year. Candidates must submit an entry consisting of six products from the graphic design categories with at least one from each of the following categories: Digital Art, Identity Design, and Layout and Design. Each product must contain a caption and have its own VIRIN.

Other requirements:

- Follow entry criteria listed in Section V.
- Submit entry as a collection within the DVIDS Awards interface module.

- Do not submit two-dimensional work created by free-hand methods using dry- or wet-based methods, such as line art, sketches, watercolors and oil paintings, and work created using pencil, chalk, and charcoal: pictures of displays; and fine art pieces.
- Do not extract and submit component elements of a multimedia product, video story or video spot as one of the six graphic design products if the multimedia product, video story or video spot in its entirety is being submitted by the entrant to another category. This does not prohibit individuals from extracting a graphic element they created for a team produced product or a product credited to another individual.
- Do not extract elements from a layout and design product as a separate product. Conversely, do not enter a layout and design product that contains elements submitted into the digital art and identity design categories. Each product must be a separate and distinct from the other.
- Do not submit layouts from interactive publications or interactive PDF documents.

Submit entry as a collection in the DVIDS Awards module interface.

Award Type: Individual.

D. Photo. All products will contain embedded captions and other required metadata, including a VIRIN. Refer to the DoD Visual Information Style Guide for specific details. In addition, all products must support or contribute to organizational communication objectives and be authorized products approved for release. Photo illustrations are ineligible to compete in any of the photo categories. Those that do not follow these requirements will be disqualified.

1. Photo Series. A series of at least 7, but no more than 12 uncontrolled action photos that depict a military or military-related storyline or theme, including a military operation or contingency, or participation in a military exercise or training events. Photos may depict one aspect of an operation or the entire event. Do not submit a composite layout. Entrants electing to enter photos from the series to the portfolio categories may not enter the remaining photos in any other category. Upload each photo separately in DVIDS as a high-resolution file, each with its own VIRIN, and then submit the items as a collection within DVIDS.

Award Type: Individual.

2. Picture Story. A series of at least 7, but no more than 12 photos that depict a military or military-related storyline or theme that does not meet the criteria specified in Photo Series category. Controlled and uncontrolled action photos are acceptable. Do not submit a composite layout. Entrants electing to enter photos from the Picture Story series to the portfolio categories may not enter the remaining photos in any other category. Upload each photo separately in DVIDS as a high-resolution file, each with its own VIRIN, and then submit the items as a collection within DVIDS.

Award Type: Individual.

3. News Photo. Scheduled or unscheduled news event featuring a military organization, employees, equipment, or family members. Upload entry in DVIDS as a high-resolution file.
Award Type: Individual.
4. Feature Photo. Storytelling picture not news related; usually a situation that has strong human interest or a fresh view of a commonplace occurrence featuring a military organization, military equipment, employees, or family members. Upload entry in DVIDS as a high-resolution file.
Award Type: Individual.
5. Portrait. A picture of a person that identifies and captures the essence of that person's character and depicts his or her personality. Only one person may be portrayed in the photo. Official photos are not allowed. Upload entry in DVIDS as a high-resolution file.
Award Type: Individual.
6. Civilian Photographer of the Year. Candidates must submit a portfolio consisting of seven examples of their work from the photography categories. The portfolio must contain the following each clearly labeled for the judges when submitting:
 - One news photo
 - One feature photo
 - One portrait
 - Three photos of the candidate's choice
 - One photo series that consists of at least 7, but no more than 12 photos. Series can be a Picture Story. Do not submit a composite layout.

Entry will consist of 13 to 18 images in total.

Do not submit the same photo more than once in the portfolio. For example, candidates entering Picture Story as their series entry may not use one of these images as their news or feature photo, portrait or as one of their candidate's choice entries. This does not prohibit photographers from using a different photo from that same operation as their news, feature, or photographer's choice photos. Note, however, that the purpose of the portfolio is to demonstrate one's ability to take photos in a variety of settings. Therefore, photos taken from more than one operation or event may earn higher scores.

Portfolio may not include Photojournalism or Multimedia Story entries, and it will include only one photo series.

Do not extract photos from a multimedia product or other video product and enter them as a portrait, news photo, feature photo or candidate's choice photo if the multimedia product or video is submitted in its entirety to another category. Upload each photo separately in DVIDS as a high-resolution file, each with its own VIRIN, and then group the photos for the series entry as a collection prior to creating the portfolio entry.

Submit entry as a portfolio in the DVIDS Awards interface module.

Award Type: Individual.

E. Print.

1. Publication. DoD publications (newspapers, newsletters, or magazines) that support the command's information mission. Eligible publications include those that are printed by a commercial publisher under an exclusive contract with the command using appropriated funds (which means they do not have advertising) or those printed using the commercial-enterprise concept (which means the publication contains advertisements) as stated in DoDI 5120.04 and those produced using desktop publishing software with a PDF as the final product.

For printed publications, organizations must be prepared to provide a copy of the signed contract between the command and the publisher. Printed publication must contain a publication flag (nameplate) and a masthead specifically stating the publication is an official publication printed under contract with the commercial publisher as required by DoDI 5120.04. Upload entry as a PDF in DVIDS and list all contributors in the credit field of the metadata. If a version may also be found on the command's website, provide the URL on the submission list; both versions must be the same. Publications that use the commercial-enterprise concept may include advertisements, but they are not required to do so. Advertisements are not judged.

PDF publications are page oriented and have static layouts. Entries may not contain interactive design elements, such as animation, slideshows, or embedded video. Publication must contain a publication flag (nameplate) and a masthead using similar language required of funded publications as specified in DoDI 5120.04. Since the publication is a PDF, simply upload it in DVIDS and list all contributors in the credit field of the metadata.

Additional requirements for printed and PDF publication entries:

- At least four editions of the publication must have been printed in calendar year 2023. For the 2023 competition year, enter only one issue.
- Installation guides, directories, yearbooks, annual reports, and cruise books are not news publications and, therefore, are ineligible.

Award Type: Unit.

2. Information Story. A story that conveys information while answering the five W's (who, what, where, when, why) and H (how). It can be written in different shapes and forms, including the Inverted Pyramid, Kabob/Wall Street Journal Style, Hour/Martini Glass, and Question and Answer. News and sports stories are allowed. Upload entry to DVIDS as a story with or without photos. Photos will not be judged. Photos uploaded with the story to DVIDS may be submitted in the News Photo, Feature Photo or Portrait categories as appropriate since they are not being judged, but they may not be used in the Photo Series, Picture Story, or Photojournalism categories.

Award Type: Individual.

3. Feature Story. Feature story must have a focus that is maintained and supported throughout. Entry may be a sports, human interest, personality, or news feature.

Upload entry to DVIDS as a story with or without photos. Photos will not be judged.

Photos uploaded with the story to DVIDS may be submitted in the News Photo, Feature Photo or Portrait categories as appropriate since they are not being judged, but they may not be used in the Photo Series, Picture Story, or Photojournalism categories.

Award Type: Individual.

4. Commentary. A commentary is an article that conveys the writer's opinion on a topic as specified in DoDI 5120.04. Ghost-written commentaries and those written by commanders or those in a leadership position are ineligible. Commentaries posted to an official military website are eligible as are commentaries published in a command newspaper, magazine, or newsletter.

Upload entry to DVIDS as a story with or without photos. Photos will not be judged.

Photos uploaded with the commentary to DVIDS may be submitted in the News Photo, Feature Photo or Portrait categories as appropriate since they are not being judged. They may not be used in the Photo Series, Picture Story, or Photojournalism categories.

Award Type: Individual.

5. Photojournalism. Entries must include a story and at least three, but no more than five photographs with embedded captions. All elements will be judged. Photos and story must be on the same topic. Story and photos must be the work of one individual.

Upload entry to DVIDS as a story with photos included.

Award Type: Individual.

6. Civilian Writer of the Year. Candidates must submit five writing examples: one information story, one feature story, and three stories of the candidate's choice. All entries must be from separate events.

Do not submit a photojournalism product in its entirety as a candidate's choice; submit only the story. However, do not submit a story from a photojournalism product if the entire photojournalism product is being entered into the Communicator of the Year category.

Upload each article as a separate story in DVIDS.

Submit entry as a collection within the DVIDS Awards interface module.

Award Type: Individual.

- F. Video. All products will contain required metadata, including a VIRIN. They must also support or contribute to organizational communication objectives and be approved for release. Slates are not required and should not be included. However, slate information may be useful when completing the metadata fields, including the caption field, upon file upload to DVIDS. Those that do not follow these requirements will be disqualified.

Note the use of the words “caption” and “captioning” is not the same as “closed caption” or “closed captioning.”

A caption is used to describe who is profiled in the product, what happened, and where and when it happened. The caption also explains why the event took place: the purpose of the event. It is added to the product's metadata upon upload to DVIDS. Refer to the DoD Visual Information Style Guide for specific information.

A closed caption (or closed captioning) is used to display the audio portion of a television program or video product as text on the screen for individuals who are deaf or partially deaf.

Video products submitted to the media awards competition may contain closed captions, but they are not required. However, a caption in the metadata field is required.

1. Short-form Production Video. A self-contained video production conveying military information using process components such as script, talent, pre-production, production, and post-production. Sound, music, narration, and interviews with identified participants for voice-over may be used. Appropriate effects, graphics, fades, or wipes are allowed. This is a unit award, which means that the product was created by more than one individual. Since it is a team product, the VIRIN must contain a DVIAN in place of the Vision ID. List all contributors in the credit field during metadata review. Production in its entirety must be 5 minutes or less in duration. Product may not be submitted in any other category. Upload entry in DVIDS.

Award Type: Unit.

2. Long-form Production Video. A self-contained video production conveying military information using process components such as script, talent, pre-production, production, and post-production. Sound, music, narration, and interviews with identified participants for voice-over may be used. Appropriate effects, graphics, fades, or wipes are allowed. This is a unit award, which means that the product was created by more than one individual. Since it is a team product, the VIRIN must contain a DVIAN in place of the Vision ID.

Entry must be greater than 5 minutes in duration. Enter productions 15 minutes or less in duration in their entirety. Productions greater than 15 minutes must be condensed to 15 minutes or less for judging. Upload original production in DVIDS first and then upload the condensed version. While editing metadata during upload to DVIDS, list all contributors in the credit field and add a link to the original version in the caption. For example:

U.S. Soldiers assigned to the 842nd Signal Company participate in a unit history commemoration at Fort Bragg, N.C., April 21, 2023. (U.S. Army video by Cpl. Jane Smith, Sgt. 1st Class Jack Sparrow and Staff Sgt. Jill Jones.

This is a condensed version of the original production, which may be found at www.dvidshub.net/video/XXXXXX/title-of-product.

Product may not be submitted in any other category.
