Dear Friends,

As we kick off fall and all our new seasons of your favorite PBS shows you'll want to make sure you don't miss anything.

We start off Hispanic Heritage Month with an encore of American Masters Rita Moreno: Just a Girl Who Decided to Go For It, and a new American Masters on one of the most critically and commercially successful Latina writers of her age in Julia Alvarez: A Life Reimagined. Rita Moreno: Just a Girl Who Decided to Go For It airs September 11th at 9 PM, and Julia Alvarez: A Life Reimagined airs the following week of September 18 at 9 PM.

Sunday nights heat up with an all new season of Ridley, the new series Moonflower Murders, and the return of Van Der Valk. Ridley sees Alex Ridley, a retired Detective Inspector, returning to the force as a police consultant in this thrilling crime series. The devilishly delightful Moonflower Murders, starring Lesley Manville, picks up where literary whodunit Magpie Murders left off, and finds Susan must uncover a murder detailed in Alan Conway's book to find a missing woman before it's too late. Van der Valk and his team return to investigate new crimes in Amsterdam in the season four premiere. New seasons of Ridley, Moonflower Murders, and Van Der Valk all air September 15th starting at 8 PM.

Starting September 19th at 8 PM, we have an incredibly lush six-part series from the BBC titled Big Cats 24/7. These massive kitties were followed in the Okavango Delta of Botswana for never-before-seen moments that will stop viewers in their tracks.

FRONTLINE returns with The Choice 2024, just in time for this Presidential election year. FRONTLINE will take a three-hour look at the candidates, as well as their time in the Oval Office. The Choice 2024 airs September 24th at 9 PM.

PBS Charlotte has you covered with great programming all month long.
