Search for All Words

By default, documents are displayed that include all of your search terms. There is no need to include 'and, &, @' between the terms.

The following searches will produce the same results:

rome london paris
rome and london and paris
rome & london & paris
rome @ london @ paris

Exclude a Word

To search for documents that don't have a specific word included, add a minus sign (- , !, not) before the word. Be sure to include a space before the minus sign.

nutritional –supplemental

Search for Either Word

To search for documents that may have just one of several words, include 'or' (or, | , #) between the words. Without the 'or', the results show only documents that match all the words.

The following searches will produce documents containing any of the following words:

> rome or london or paris
> rome | london | paris

Wildcard

Add an asterisk at the end of a word to indicate the word should be treated as a prefix.

> Results: eyesight, eyeglasses, eyewear

Phrase Connectors

Hyphens are phrase connectors. Phrase connectors work like quotes because they join your search words in the same way double quotes join your search words. The difference is that phrase connectors will search for all forms of the word.

> Results: right-of-way >   rights-of-way
>   right of way

Modify a search by using parentheses and combinations of 'and' and 'or'.
'And' takes precedence over 'or'.

> Search Phrase without parentheses: dangerous dog or canine

> Results: The word dangerous and the word dog in same document
>   The word canine in a document

> Search Phrase with parentheses: dangerous (dog or canine)

> Results: The word dangerous and the word dog in the same document
>   The word dangerous and the word canine in the same document

Punctuation

Most punctuation and special characters will be ignored when searching for a phrase enclosed in quotes.

Search Phrase without comma: "and for the second"

Results: and for the second and, for the second

Search Phrase with embedded quotes: ""organized gang" means an association"

Results: organized gang means an association
"organized gang" means an association

Apostrophes are one exception. If apostrophes are missing in search phrases, documents will not display.
