

River Stage

Family Catwalk –Easy Read Guide

This information is to help you decide if Family Catwalk is for you. Content notes, including what happens in the show, are further in the document.

The Space

The performance will take place outside the National Theatre. There will be a stage and a performance area in front of the stage. There will be chairs and cushions for you to sit on three sides of the space. The performers will dance in the middle.

The Performers

The MC is Stuart Bowden

River Stage

The performers are:

Darnell Gledhill

Fortune Pastor

Xav Thomas

Kaan Sari

Lighting and Sound

- There will be haze in this performance
- There are no strobes or but there are flashing lights
- The whole performance is very loud. There will be ear defenders available

Participation

- Stuart the MC will encourage you to clap or cheer for the dancer who performs the best

River Stage

Content Notes

- The show will start with Stuart and the performers dancing together. Then Stuart will tell you about vogue and the show. The performers will come out and perform. You will cheer and clap for the performer you like the best. The two performers with the loudest cheers and claps will have a dance-off. This repeats several times.

Access Information

- The performance is 35 minutes long with no interval.
- You are free to move or make noise if you need to and can go in and out of the performance space as you please.
- Some of the performances will be BSL interpreted, audio described, and captioned.