

Library Search

Quick Guide

Sign In & My Account

Sign In: Once you sign in, your name will appear.

My Account: Click your name to view the items you have checked out from the library, renew items, check the status of requests, and set your personal preferences.

Performing Basic Searches

By default, Library Search assumes you are searching all the words you enter into the search bar and will return results that contain all of your specified terms.

You can use the following operators and wild cards to improve your results:

AND, OR, NOT, (), *, ?, ""

Searches are not case sensitive, but boolean operators must be written in all caps. Wild cards can not come at the beginning of a word.
