Activities - how the charity spends its money:

The Federation works with the dynamic and inspirational grassroots movement of over 7,000 local Friends of Parks groups, supporting volunteers who act on behalf of the communities who use and care about our vital public green spaces of all kinds. We exist to represent their activities, issues and concerns and strengthen their passionate and knowledgeable voices. To that end we communicate with local groups and Forums, manage websites and social media, produce newsletters and reports, organise meetings, liaise with Government, collaborate with other national bodies, contact the media, apply for funding, and manage our organisation.

To further explain what we do the following infographic(from 2019) shows how we fit together in the green spaces big picture.

Our theory of change also explains what we do, why, and the changes we hope to effect

National Federation of Parks and Green Spaces- Theory of Change

Rationale & Assumptions	More and stronger groups; along with a more active, diverse, and inclusive membership, across all aspects of the Friends movement covering the entire United Kingdom Recognition, support and appreciation from land owners and other stakeholders is freely given.

We aim to share learning, develop good practice, and strengthen grassroots organisation, coordination and co-operation throughout the UK. Most importantly, we raise the issues impacting on our open spaces, including seeking the effective protection and improvement of all the UK's 27,000 public parks and green spaces. We successfully campaigned for a national inquiry into how to end the current underfunding crisis, and played a significant role in it.

We want to see an active Friends Group for every public green space, and an active and independent Forum run by such groups in every area throughout the UK.

The Federation is a democratic, accountable, 'bottom up', grassroots organisation of the movement's area forums and networks (currently numbering over 70 such Forums actively networking and coordinating over 3,000 of the local groups). We are uniquely placed to be able to support and build up this grassroots movement.

We provide support for friends groups working together to make a difference to their local area, city, region and nationally. Such groups and their coordination forums are dependent on unpaid and over-stretched volunteer commitment at every level, including our own Federation officers and representatives (who are also active in their local Friends Groups and Area Forums).

We are developing a partnership approach to working with other 'community-facing' national greenspace organisations, most notably with Keep Britain Tidy (through their Love Parks campaign team) with whom we have an agreed Memorandum of Understanding. We have supported the creation and development of The Parks Alliance as a campaigning body.

We call on all those who value the UK's green spaces to work together to speak out and defend them, to call for the effective action urgently needed at Government level – make parks a statutory service backed by adequate public funding and effective protection. We call on everyone to support and help build the Friends Groups movement in every locality and area throughout the UK.

Better Friends – A Report on the State of the Movement of Greenspace Friends Groups throughout the UK

<https://natfedparks.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/2023/10/NFPGS-PCUK-Second-Report-2023.pdf>

This pathbreaking and important report, produced by the PCUK team of the NFPGS (updated 2023), analyses in depth what Friends Groups do, how they do it, their memberships, character, needs, partnerships and successes. It is based on the statistics emanating from our Better Friends strength checker – a state-of-the-art audit tool freely available to all local greenspace community groups.

The only free tool of its type, designed specifically to help the thousands of volunteer Friends groups who champion and improve their local UK parks and green spaces. It is an enjoyable challenge and a neat way to test the current health of your group.

The 'Better Friends' tool aims to help people understand and strengthen the effectiveness of their group, it will get them thinking about how they operate, how effective they are and highlight areas for improvement.

Those doing the survey will receive an emailed feedback report with an overall score for their group, plus a more detailed breakdown covering key topics such as:

- organisation
- structure
- strengths
- effectiveness
- ambition.

Here is an extract from a sample “Better Friends” strength-checker report:

We recommend you use the tool as a group, but completion by individuals can also be useful.

A guideline time for completion is 20-30 minutes. We really hope you find this tool useful.

Our Partner Organisations

We recognise the importance of collaboration and the benefits that good partnerships can bring and as such we are always looking to expand our partnerships with like minded organisations.

We currently have partnerships with a joint memorandum of understanding with:

- Keep Britain Tidy - improving the environment on your doorstep

- Fields in Trust champions and supports our parks and green spaces by protecting them for people to enjoy in perpetuity. Because once lost, they are lost forever.

- The Conservation Volunteers - Connecting people and green spaces to deliver lasting outcomes for both.

- Groundwork takes practical action to create a fair and green future in which people, places, and nature thrive.

- The Gardens Trust is a charity dedicated to protecting and conserving historic parks, gardens and designed landscapes in the UK.

- Campaign to Protect Rural England believes in countryside and green spaces that are accessible to all, rich in nature and that enriches all of our lives.

Let's Celebrate, Improve and Defend the UK's Green Spaces!

Our local green spaces are vital for everyone and every community – and for all age groups and interests! They are an essential and unique service promoting relaxation, recreation and play, wildlife and bio-diversity, attractive walking and cycling routes, green jobs and skills, heritage, flood control, health and social well-being, and community cohesion.

However, there is growing alarm from the public, from Friends of Parks groups, parks managers, experts and MPs, about the serious long-term damage being caused by devastating cuts to green space budgets for staff and maintenance, and the lack of funding and investment by local and national government. If not reversed, this neglect will cause them to go into serious decline and become problem spaces abandoned by park users and plagued by vandalism – or even being closed and sold off. We must not let this happen.

We call on all park lovers and the UK public in general to...

- CELEBRATE our public green spaces and community activities organised there
- EMPOWER OUR COMMUNITIES to take 'ownership' of our local spaces and get involved in all decision-making
- SET UP FRIENDS GROUPS for every urban park and green space
- SPEAK OUT to ensure that the needs of parks are heard loud and clear
- OPPOSE threats of inappropriate commercialisation, development and sell-offs of facilities and green space
- HELP CREATE A MASSIVE CO-ORDINATED GRASSROOTS MOVEMENT to promote, defend and improve our green spaces
- DEMAND THE GOVERNMENT bring in a Statutory Duty to monitor and manage these spaces to Green Flag Award standard; and ensure adequate public resources and protection for all green spaces

The NFPGS, as the voice of the Friends Groups movement, pledges to...

- CONTINUE TO ENCOURAGE, PROMOTE AND SUPPORT co-ordinated Friends Groups networks and conferences around the country
- CALL for whole greenspace sector and supporters everywhere to back the grassroots movement and this call to action

The Charter for Parks

- Celebrate the central role well-run parks play in our neighbourhoods for all sections of our communities

David Morris: Dave was one of the founders of the NFPGS in 2010. He is the chair of his local Friends Group in Tottenham (North London), helps coordinate the Haringey Friends of Parks Forum, and chairs the London Friends of Green Spaces Network which coordinates the movement of around 900 Friends Groups throughout London. He liaises on our behalf with other national greenspace organisations and has been a member (its only community representative) of the Government/Sector official liaison body, the Parks Action Group, coordinating its Empowering Communities Working Group and projects.

Michelle Furtado: Michelle Furtado is a climate and sustainability consultant, focusing on systems-thinking and systems-dynamics, future visioning, and regenerative practices. She works independently as FuturEcoLogic (www.futurecologic.co.uk), is a Director of the Association of Sustainability Practitioners (<https://sustainabilitypractitioners.org/>), and Director of Green Tides CIC (<https://greentides.org.uk/>). She now lives in the mountains of Portugal, remaining a committed to supporting UK organisations, whilst growing her networks locally.

Nearly 20 years ago, she started designing parks and playgrounds with communities and fell in love with the volunteers who helped to improve and maintain these spaces. Whilst working in green spaces policy at national level, she joined the National Federation of Parks and Green Spaces, helping to lobby for fair funding and protection for our precious green spaces. With Green Tides, in Adur and Worthing, she helps develop The Wildflower Trail (<https://www.thewildflowertrail.org/>) that showcases the wonderful efforts of volunteers in protecting and enhancing the environment for pollinators. Connect with her on LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/michelle-furtado/>

Sarah Royal: I have been part of NFPGS from the very beginning, as our first Chair. We worked in in close partnership with GreenSpace and then Keep Britain Tidy to help start up more Community Green Space Forums across the country and bring us all together in to the network. I have spoken to groups across the country and have met some many wonderful people I have been working in Birmingham with the Birmingham Open Spaces Forum since we started in 2004, moving from a forum of local parks Friends Groups to a CIO with around 140 community green space groups from across the city. My background shows my continued passion for our natural environment with a B.Sc. (Hons) from Leicester Polytechnic in Science and the Environment.

Nigel Sharp: From early days as an urban ranger, and later as a development officer, Nigel worked with Liverpool City Council for over thirty years, helping establish the Liverpool Parks Friends Forum, and later the regional North West Parks Friends Forum (which he still coordinates). Following work on the Love Parks project at Keep Britain Tidy, Nigel is now a group development worker at Sefton Council for Voluntary Services, in North Merseyside, supporting a wide range of voluntary, community and faith organisations, including park and beach friends groups. This role also helps inform his position as NFPGS secretary, responding to parks and green space community group enquiries with guidance, advice and support.

Martin Willis: Current Chair Nottingham Open Spaces Forum; Joint Vice Chair of Nottinghamshire Wildlife Trust; Chair of Nottingham Urban Wildlife Scheme; Founding Chair of NWT City Group; One of organisers of Wild.NG

Marion Williams: Marion is the chair of her local Friends Group in Newcastle upon Tyne's Leazes Park. A city councillor, she was a founding director of Urban Green Newcastle, the body now responsible for managing the majority of the city's parks and allotments. Marion has been a member of a Heritage Lottery Fund Regional Committee, a regional Cultural Consortium and Chair of a regional Museums, Libraries & Archives Council.

Shelly Quinton-Hulme MBE: Shelly joined as a trustee at the AGM in 2021. She is the Chairperson for the Friends of Victoria Park, Stretford and also the Friends of Trafford's Parks and Green Spaces. She has a strong background in governance and is also Chair of Governors at her local infant school and runs Stretford Children's Theatre too. She works as a Project Manager for Network Rail and loves her family life in Stretford and is a big part of the community there.

Clifford Munn: Cliff joined us at the AGM meeting

Paul Ely: Paul lives in London and joined us at the AGM meeting.

The majority of his working life has been spent in local government working for London based local authorities, Haringey and Tower Hamlets, and he also worked in the charity sector for Bankside Open Spaces Trust and more recently as an independent consultant.

Whilst in Haringey, he worked closely with the Friends of Lordship Rec to fundraise for and implement the £5.5m restoration of Lordship and subsequently teamed up again with Dave Morris on the NESTA funded project to share the good practice learned from Lordship about partnership working and community empowerment. As a trustee for NFPGS, he has taken a lead in developing a partnership with University College London's Community Research Initiative (CRIS) which has enabled us to investigate how we could better involve people from an ethnic minority background in Friends groups and this year to identify factors that can lead to better working relationships with local authority partners.

In the pursuance of our activities the trustees named above confirm that they have given due regard to the Charity Commissions public benefit guidance.

We are always looking for new Trustees to join us to help strengthen the Federation and the wider movement.

Our Year in Review – April 2022 to March 2023

By NFPGS Chair – Dave Morris

The Friends Groups movement in 2022 to 2023 continued to re-emerge and seemingly almost-fully recover from the Covid pandemic.

Greenspace had been proven during the Covid era to be an essential service for all the UK's communities. However the generally woeful level of funding and staffing for the maintenance and management of greenspace over the last decade continued to be placed even further under pressure as Councils reported serious budgetary crises, cutting 'non-statutory' services, and some even being forced to declare bankruptcy.

As for us as the voice and coordination body of the movement, our key activities included:

- assuming responsibility for, and upgrading, the Parks Community UK platform for supporting those at the grassroots of the movement. This included promoting our 'Better Friends' self-audit tool (which over 400 groups had taken advantage of by the end of 2023) – also being promoted by the Green Flag Awards scheme.
- providing ongoing support for local groups and their area Forums (our members), general communication and promotion including regular bulletins, updates and additional social media activity.
- the continued promotion of our major 'state of the movement' report: [updated version, October 2023 - <https://natfedparks.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/2023/10/NFPGS-PCUK-Second-Report-2023.pdf>] concluding that there are around 7,000 local groups with 60,000 core activists and a total membership of around 840,000 – altogether contributing around 7m hours of volunteering each year.
- the development of much-needed specialist research, including on the themes of Friends Groups and Ethnic Diversity, Friends Groups relations with Local Authorities, and (for The Gardens Trust) Friends Groups Heritage Volunteering. We also sent out a questionnaire to identify some of the longest-established Friends Groups.
- holding a very well attended AGM in November 2022, and regular trustee meetings
- preparing some major funding applications which unfortunately have so far proved to be unsuccessful despite extensive efforts by Trustees. So we have been forced to continue to try to fulfil our crucial role within the sector and for the wider UK public without any staffing or substantial resources.
- continuing to support collaboration among greenspace national organisations, including sector alliances and joint calls for adequate resources for the sector. This included us being invited to provide evidence to, and to address a special 'recall' meeting of the MLUHC Select Cmttee of Westminster MPs regarding progress made against their 'Future of Green Spaces' recommendations to Government in 2017.

We also conducted an internal 'Theory of Change' process to clarify our mission, processes and priorities – included in this report.

Impact We believe that the Friends Groups movement in general has continued to remain a crucial force within the sector and in local communities throughout the UK, and makes a real difference to many thousands of the UK's green spaces. The NFPGS is crucial to the practice, coordination, and success of this movement and ensures that there is a strategic voice at national level. However, if the NFPGS had the resources our movement requires and deserves (eg staffing for admin, coordination and social media - which we continue to seek and which most of the other national greenspace organisations have) our impact would be far far greater.
