

RANKING

National Law University Delhi is a top ranked law teaching institution in the country. The University has impeccable credentials in the field of legal education which are very well established in India and abroad. The University has consecutively been ranked second in the Law Category, in the National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF) of Ministry of Education, Govt. of India for last six year.

We wish to state that National Law University Delhi does not participate in any institutional ranking carried out by any News Magazines / Commercial Web Portals / Tabloid based ranking as a policy except for the accreditation process of National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) and the ranking process of National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF).

It is being informed to all that the data and information available about the University on its website and on other platforms should not be used by such private entities without seeking express authorization from the University Authorities. The ranking of National Law University Delhi is only by consent is the policy of this University.

Registrar