

TRADemark LICENSE
FOR USE WITH
PHOTOGRAPHS, ILLUSTRATIONS AND PAINTINGS

Background: Lockheed Martin Corporation (“LMC”) recognizes that the copyright in a photograph, illustration or painting of an aircraft is owned by the photographer, illustrator or artist, respectively (absent a contractual arrangement otherwise). At the same time, LMC, as the manufacturer, owns the trademarks (e.g. “F-22”, “Raptor”, “F-16”) in the aircraft it makes. Under the Trademark Laws of the United States and other countries, a trademark owner risks losing his trademark rights if others use his trademarks without permission.

Purpose: LMC has a keen appreciation of and great respect for the creative talents of the aviation photographic and artistic communities. LMC desires to promote the use of its trademarks with photographs, illustrations and paintings by granting a free license to photographers and artists so that LMC can maintain its trademark rights while at the same time being minimally intrusive.

License Terms:

1. LMC hereby grants a free license to photographers and artists to use LMC’s trademarks with his/her photographs, illustrations or paintings, including with any that are sold.
2. The photographer or artist agrees that the quality of his/her photographs, illustrations or paintings that use LMC trademarks will: (a) be at least equal to the standards commonly used by the International Society for Aviation Photography (ISAP) for photographs or to generally accepted standards in the aviation artistic community for illustrations or paintings, (b) display the correct name of the LMC aircraft, and (c) not disparage the name or reputation of LMC or violate any laws.
3. The free license does not apply to the use of LMC’s trademarks in books, posters or calendars in runs that exceed 6,000. Likewise, the free license does not apply to use of LMC’s trademarks for any form of merchandise such as toys, models, clothing, coffee cups, notebooks, electronic or video games, etc. Licenses for such uses are available from Equity Management Inc. (EMI), LMC’s trademark licensing agent. EMI can be contacted at 4365 Executive Drive, Suite 1000, San Diego, CA 92121, Telephone: (858) 558-2500; Fax: (858) 558-2507; Web: www.equitymanagementinc.com.
