1965

Duke and South Carolina finished the 1965 regular season tied for conference leadership with identical 4-2 league marks before ACC Commissioner Jim Weaver ruled that the Gamecocks had violated league rules in regards to the eligibility of two players and were required to forfeit all conference games in which the two players had participated. Due to the forfeit wins they received, NC State and Clemson, which had both lost to South Carolina, were declared ACC co-champions with 5-2 records in league play.

NOTES: Clemson's ACC games in 1983 and 1984 are not counted due to NCAA and ACC probation. Georgia Tech joined the ACC in 1979, but did not become eligible for the title until 1983. Virginia's 1953 season is not counted because the school did not join the ACC until December, 1953. In several instances, games against non-conference opponents were designated as league games.
