

Young Writers' Award 2011

Declaration of authenticity and The Advertiser's right to publish

TERMS AND CONDITIONS - Please read carefully

1. The prose or poetry piece was written in the presence of an adult or teacher.
2. The choice of topic is entirely free. The aim is to encourage creative writing on any subject.
3. Entrants may submit one poem and/or piece of prose (should not exceed 1000 words).
4. Teachers please sort bulk entries into genre and group and send only the best writing from each class.
5. All entries must be on one side on A4 paper.
6. Typed and word processed entries must be double spaced.
7. Each entry must be clearly marked at the top of the first page with the entry group and section (prose or poetry).
8. Multiple page entries must be stapled in the top left hand corner.
9. One copy of this entry form must be filled in and stapled to each entry.
10. The signed declaration testifying to the authenticity of the work and The Advertiser's right to publish the entry must accompany the piece.
If you do not wish to have your name published please advise The Advertiser by emailing dazianir@theadvertiser.com.au
11. Unfortunately, entries cannot be returned. (It is therefore suggested that entrants make copies of their work before submitting to the award).
12. Responsibility will not be accepted by the organisers for any entries lost, mislaid, delayed or damaged in the mail.
13. Copyright remains the property of the author.
14. It is the intention of The Advertiser to publish the winning entries together with the author's name in The Advertiser and on its internet website, however publication is not guaranteed.
15. This award is only open to students in South Australia.

*Optional. Shortlisted finalists will be contacted and invited to the Young Writers' Award 2011 Presentation Night.
