TITLES

Advances in Nutrition

This journal of the American Society for Nutrition has established itself as a leading review journal for nutrition, focusing on key findings and recent research to explain the current state of knowledge in all aspects of the field.

The American Journal of Clinical Nutrition

The most influential journal for human nutrition. For 20 years, The American Journal of Clinical Nutrition has been ranked in the top three journals within the JCR category of Nutrition & Dietetics.

Annals of Behavioral Medicine

The leading scientific forum for researchers and clinicians to study the interactions of behavioural, physiological, and biochemical states, as well as morbidity and mortality.

The Chinese Journal of Comparative Law

Published under the auspices of the International Academy of Comparative Law, this journal provides a leading international forum for comparative studies on all disciplines of law, including cross-disciplinary legal studies.

Communication Theory

Communication Theory is an international forum publishing high-quality original research into the theoretical development of communication from across a wide array of disciplines.

Communication, Culture & Critique

Communication, Culture & Critique features critical research and a diversity of approaches to the role of communication, media, and culture in power dynamics on a global scale.

Forest Science

Forest Science presents the latest research supporting the theory and practice of forest management throughout the world, highlighting the value of applied research.

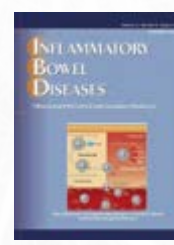

Human Communication Research

The best empirical work in the area of human communication. The journal has a broad social-science focus, with important applications for scholars in a variety of fields.

Inflammatory Bowel Diseases

The official journal of the Crohn's & Colitis Foundation provides physicians and researchers with the most up-to-date information in clinical and basic sciences related to inflammatory bowel diseases.

Journal of Antitrust Enforcement

Covering a wide range of topics, the Journal of Antitrust Enforcement provides a platform for leading scholarship on public and private competition law enforcement, at both domestic and international levels.

Journal of Burn Care & Research

The official publication of the American Burn Association includes the latest information on surgical procedures, reconstruction, burn prevention, and more.

Journal of Communication

The Journal of Communication is the flagship journal of the International Communication Association. It publishes the best available scholarship on all aspects of communication, with a special interest in cross-disciplinary research.

Journal of Forestry

The Journal of Forestry features a comprehensive range of articles on forest management from a wide variety of disciplines.

Each paper clearly explains practical implications of research.

The Journal of Nutrition

The Journal of Nutrition was the first scientific journal created solely for publication of nutrition research. It is the most widely-read journal in its field.

Journal of Victorian Culture

With a reputation for innovative features and cross-disciplinary content, the Journal of Victorian Culture promotes the best work on all aspects of nineteenth-century society, culture, and the material world.

Migration Studies

Migration Studies publishes original scholarship from across the globe, developing the core concepts that link different disciplinary perspectives on migration.

Military Medicine

The journal of AMSUS and the leading journal for military and federal medicine. It includes a wide range of research that can be applied within and beyond the field of military medicine.

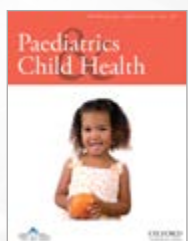

Oxford Journal of Law and Religion

Reflects the widening scope of study concerning law and religion, enhancing understanding of central issues by complementing leading pieces of legal scholarship with the work of historians, theologians, and social scientists.

Paediatrics & Child Health

The official journal of the Canadian Paediatric Society covers a range of clinical and public policy issues in child and youth healthcare.

Perspectives on Public Management and Governance

The newest journal of the Public Management Research Association launches in 2018. It is dedicated to theory development and conceptual work challenging and advancing the field of public affairs.

Translational Behavioral Medicine

This journal of the Society of Behavioral Medicine supports translation of research to clinical and public health practice, fostering dialogue between research and practice communities.

MEDICINE COLLECTION

The Medicine Collection is an authoritative, comprehensive, and highly influential resource of cutting-edge medical research. Many journals are published in partnership with internationally renowned societies, including the European Society of Cardiology, the Infectious Diseases Society of America, the European Society for Medical Oncology, and the Gerontological Society of America.

More than 30 titles are ranked in the top 10 journals of at least one JCR category. The Journals of Gerontology, Series A is ranked first in Gerontology, whilst the European Heart Journal has achieved a significant increase in its Impact Factor and is now ranked first in Cardiac & Cardiovascular Systems with an Impact Factor of 20.212.

Three journals of the European Society of Human Reproduction and Embryology are ranked first, second, and fourth in Reproductive Biology. Human Reproduction Update is of special note, being ranked first in both Reproductive Biology and Obstetrics & Gynecology.

The 2018 Medicine Collection is enhanced by the addition of three journals of the American Society for Nutrition: Advances in Nutrition, The American Journal of Clinical Nutrition, and The Journal of Nutrition. The Medicine Collection now includes three of the top 10 journals in Nutrition & Dietetics.

LIFE SCIENCES COLLECTION

Ecology to evolution, marine biology to molecular biology – the Life Sciences Collection reveals the extraordinary scope of life on our planet. It features a wealth of top-quality journals offering original research, cutting-edge review articles, opinion, commentaries, and more.

Our diverse range of highly cited titles includes Behavioral Ecology, FEMS Microbiology Reviews, ILAR Journal, the Journal of Experimental Botany, Molecular Biology and Evolution, and Systematic Biology – just some of our life sciences journals ranked within the top 10% of at least one JCR category.

In 2018, the Life Sciences Collection is enhanced by the addition of two journals of the Society of American Foresters. The Journal of Forestry features a comprehensive range of articles on forest management from a wide variety of disciplines, focusing on the latest science. Forest Science consistently provides content that recognizes the value of applied research.

The Life Sciences Collection also features three journals of the Linnean Society. The Zoological Journal of the Linnean Society is ranked in the top 10% of its JCR subject category, whilst the Biological Journal of the Linnean Society is the direct descendant of the oldest biological journal in the world, which published the epoch-making papers on evolution by Darwin and Wallace.

HUMANITIES COLLECTION

Our Humanities Collection features a wide range of specialized publications in history, philosophy, literature, linguistics, religion, music, and the arts. Partnerships with many pre-eminent societies – including the Organization of American Historians, the American Academy of Religion, and the Mind Association – allow us to publish the latest and most influential research in the humanities.

Oxford University Press has a legacy of being a leading publisher of bibles and dictionaries, and this reputation of top-quality humanities publishing continues to the present day. Applied Linguistics is ranked first in the JCR category of Linguistics. Over 80% of journals in the Humanities Collection have a 2016 CiteScore that is in the top 50% of that journal's subject field (Scopus, 2017).

2018 sees the addition of the Journal of Victorian Culture, a journal with a CiteScore in the top 10% of its field. It has a reputation for innovative features and interdisciplinary content, and furthers the quality and pioneering content of the Humanities Collection.

Subject Collections

SOCIAL SCIENCES COLLECTION

We work with prestigious scholars, societies, and associations, such as the International Studies Association, President and Fellows of Harvard College, and The World Bank, to produce many of the highest-quality journals across the social sciences. Three journals in the Social Sciences Collection are ranked first in their best JCR subject category: African Affairs, Journal of Public Administration Research and Theory, and The Quarterly Journal of Economics.

The Social Sciences Collection includes an exceptional and diverse selection in economics and finance, including six of the top 20 journals in the JCR category of Economics. The Quarterly Journal of Economics is ranked first in Economics.

The Social Sciences Collection now features four journals of the International Communication Association, including two of the top ten journals in the JCR subject category of Communication. These four journals enhance the Social Science Collection's quality of far-reaching, critical, and highly cited content for scholars and policy-makers worldwide.

MATHEMATICS & PHYSICAL SCIENCES COLLECTION

The Mathematics & Physical Sciences Collection features journals produced in collaboration with a number of distinguished societies, including The Royal Astronomical Society and the Institute of Mathematics and Its Applications. The collection encompasses a wide array of subjects in established fields as well as emerging fields such as human-computer interaction.

The Mathematics & Physical Sciences Collection includes leading journals in the fields of pure and applied mathematics, statistics, logic, computer science, astronomy, astrophysics, and medical physics. Bioinformatics and Briefings in Bioinformatics are ranked second and third respectively in the JCR subject category of Mathematical & Computational Biology, whilst the Journal of Logic and Computation is ranked third in Logic.

LAW COLLECTION

The Law Collection is an essential resource for scholars and practitioners across the globe, including high-quality journals produced in partnership with prestigious legal organizations and societies. Oxford University Press is the leading publisher of international law scholarship, and journals in the Law Collection reflect this exceptional reputation. The Law Collection covers areas of legal scholarship such as commercial, economic, and refugee law, as well as criminal justice.

New in 2018 are three journals that demonstrate the strength and diversity of the Law Collection, providing a wealth of perspectives: the Journal of Antitrust Enforcement focuses on competition law enforcement from both a domestic and international perspective, the Oxford Journal of Law and Religion provides international coverage of different religious perspectives and legal systems, and The Chinese Journal of Comparative Law has a special focus on cross-disciplinary legal studies and the development of the Chinese legal system.

A photograph of a modern library interior. The scene is dominated by a long, narrow wooden table with a light-colored wood finish, running down the center of the frame. The table is flanked by tall, dark wood bookshelves filled with books. The lighting is warm and focused on the table, creating a sense of depth and perspective. The background shows more bookshelves and a glimpse of a reading area with a small table and stool.
