(1) Subsection (2) applies to a statutory instrument under this bill to which the super-affirmative resolution procedure applies,

(2) The instrument may be made without scrutiny under the super-affirmative resolution procedure if it contains a declaration that the Secretary of State is of the opinion that, by reason of urgency, it is necessary to make the regulations without a draft being approved under that procedure.

(3) After an instrument is made in accordance with subsection (2), it must be laid before each House of Parliament.

(4) Regulations contained in an instrument made in accordance with subsection (2) cease to have effect at the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the instrument is made unless, during that period, the instrument is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

(5) In calculating the period of 28 days, no account is to be taken of any time during which—

- (a) Parliament is dissolved or prorogued, or
- (b) either House of Parliament is adjourned for more than four days.

(6) If regulations cease to have effect as a result of sub-paragraph (4), that does not

- (a) affect the validity of anything previously done under the regulations, or
- (b) prevent the making of new regulations.
