SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, 5 U.S.C. 552a, the Department of the Treasury ("Treasury" or the "Department"), Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB), proposes to modify an existing Treasury system of records titled, "Treasury/TTB .001 Regulatory Enforcement Record System." This is the only system of records adopted by TTB as of October 1, 2020.

TTB administers the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (IRC), as amended, at 26 U.S.C. chapter 51 (distilled spirits, wine, and beer), chapter 52 (tobacco products, processed tobacco, and cigarette papers and tubes), and sections 4181-4182 (firearms and ammunition excise taxes), and the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (FAA Act, 27 U.S.C. chapter 8). Under its IRC authorities, TTB collects the Federal excise taxes levied on alcohol, tobacco, firearms, and ammunition products and the special occupational taxes levied on certain tobacco industry members. Under these IRC and the FAA Act authorities, TTB also administers the Federal permit, registration, or notice requirements that apply to alcohol and tobacco industry members, as well the Federal requirements that apply to the production, labeling, and marketing of alcohol beverage products.

Under this system of records, TTB collects certain personal information from individuals who file tax returns with or submit return information to TTB regarding excise taxes on alcohol, tobacco, firearms, and ammunition, and from individuals who file special occupational tax returns or information. Also under this system of records, TTB collects certain personal information about individuals who are associated with operations and businesses that are the subject of permit applications, notices, or registrations under the IRC or FAA Act or activity undertaken under such permits, notices, or registrations. Such operations and businesses include alcohol and tobacco permittees; alcohol, tobacco, and firearms and ammunition excise taxpayers; special occupational taxpayers; claimants for refund, abatement, credit, allowance, or drawback of excise or special occupational taxes; and those filing offers in compromise.

While there are no significant changes to this system of records, TTB is modifying this system to make clarifying changes to conform to the latest guidance from the Department. Specifically:

- TTB is revising the system title to include the full name of the Department and Bureau, to read “Department of the Treasury, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB) .001–Regulatory Enforcement System of Records.”

- TTB is revising the categories of records included in this system to clarify the types of personally identifiable information (PII) currently kept in the system, including names of individuals, dates of birth, Social Security Numbers (SSNs) (if collected), Employer Identification Numbers (EINs), and address and contact information.

- TTB is adding or revising several routine use descriptions for this system to clarify to whom and for what purpose TTB may provide information contained in this system. In particular, as required by OMB Memorandum M–17–12, “Preparing for and Responding to a Breach of Personally Identifiable Information,” dated January 3, 2017, TTB is updating the language used to describe the existing routine use for this system regarding sharing information with other Federal agencies or Federal entities to assist the Department and TTB in responding to a suspected or confirmed breach of this system or to prevent, minimize, or remedy the risk of harm from such a breach to regulated industry members, TTB, the Federal Government, or national security.

- Other minor changes made throughout the document are editorial in nature and include updates to the notice’s format and correction of grammatical or typographic errors.

Federal law protects PII and other information contained in this system from disclosure. Specifically, 5 U.S.C. 552 prohibits the unauthorized disclosure of confidential commercial information obtained by the Federal Government from regulated businesses and individuals, and 26 U.S.C. 6103 prohibits disclosure of tax returns and related information unless disclosure is specifically authorized by that section.

This modified system will be included in Treasury’s inventory of record systems. Treasury and TTB have provided a report of this system of records to the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs of the Senate, and the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(r) and OMB

Circular A–108, “Federal Agency Responsibilities for Review, Reporting, and Publication under the Privacy Act,” dated December 23, 2016.

For the reasons set forth above in the preamble, TTB proposes to modify its system of records entitled “Treasury/TTB .001 Regulatory Enforcement Record System” as follows:
