Executive Summary

The June West Virginia Board of Education Meeting will include an update on the 2021 Strategic Plan for West Virginia Public Schools regarding Goal 2: Improve Student Achievement and Accountability and Objective 3. Create data for county boards of education to utilize in responsible local decision-making. The Office of Data Management and Information Systems' secure data analysis/research/management reports are provided by the following groups:

1. West Virginia Education Information System (WVEIS) Group
2. Data Analysis and Research Group
3. Infrastructure and Network Operations Group

This office also works closely with local school boards as a collaborative partner to provide a multitude of data sets to include the 1) scheduled reports that are required by the state and federal government, and the 2) on-demand report requests from the schools, counties, or state. These data sets are used by the local teacher, school, county, and/or state to make targeted local instructional and accountability decisions.

This June Strategic Plan Update will provide evidence of the analysis/research/management data sets that are developed by the West Virginia Department of Education (WVDE). For the reader's ease, these reports have been categorized into the following two areas:

1. Scheduled Data Reports and Dashboards for counties, state, and federal organizations are developed by Office of Data Management and Information Systems.
2. On-Demand Data Reports and Dashboards for schools, counties, and state organizations that are developed by Office of Data Management and Information Systems.

Each of these two report types provides the 1) data summary report, 2) purpose, 3) report location, and 4) link if the link is available. Scheduled data reports are updated annually and on-demand reports are updated daily.

If you have further questions, please contact Senior Officer Tim Conzett, Office of Data Management and Information Systems, at tim.conzett@k12.wv.us or 304-558-8869.

Conclusion

The 119 WVEIS, ZoomWV-e and ZoomWV reports are generated based on data already entered in the system and require no additional effort on the part of local officials (aside from setting parameters for the report they wish to see in WVEIS and ZoomWV-e). To the extent possible, all WVEIS and ZoomWV-e applications and reports are beta tested prior to release for use in local districts and schools. The West Virginia Department of Education (WVDE) has several monitoring strategies in place. These strategies include the following: school officials receive daily emails regarding the quality of key data elements to ensure that all reported data are of the highest possible quality and reliability, a separate application is available to run quality checks on demand, and the WVDE provides support to districts to resolve any data quality issues. Additionally, it is important to note that the WVEIS and ZoomWV-e are secure systems that require verified user accounts for access. The access is based on user roles determined and managed by local officials.
