Samuel Z. Westerfield Award Luncheon

Event (Invitation Only)

 Saturday, Jan. 7, 2023  12:30 PM - 2:30 PM (CST)

Hilton Riverside, St. James Ballroom

Hosted By: National Economic Association

The National Economic Association periodically presents the Samuel Z. Westerfield Award to a black economist in recognition of their distinguished service, outstanding scholarship, and achievement of high standards of excellence. The award is named after its first recipient, Ambassador Westerfield, an outstanding teacher and university administrator, a dedicated official in government service, a talented international diplomat, and a successful and avid builder of institutions dedicated to economic development and the appreciation of the black experience.

While economists recommend using market incentives, regulation is widespread to achieve agricultural and environmental resource management objectives. This pre-conference workshop aims to understand this reality better using multiple vantage points, including political economy, irreversibility, and supply chain perspectives. With these perspectives in mind, the workshop will overview the policy choices of environmental and agricultural policies in the US, followed by a roundtable and a public discussion.
