Club Safeguarding Website Audit

Completing this checklist will help you review the safeguarding content on your website, ensuring that your club is providing a safe and welcoming environment for all.

Name of Club:

Reviewed by:                                                    Date Reviewed:

|  | Y/N |
|---|---|
| Is the name of the club safeguarding officer and their contact details available and easy to find on the website?Best Practice: The club should have a section for safeguarding available on the front loading page in a prominent position.  The club safeguarding contacts should be clear and easy to find in this section. |  |
| Are there safeguarding pages on the club website?Best Practice: The club should have a section for safeguarding available on the front loading page in a prominent position. |  |
| Does the club link to the Bowls England approved safeguarding policy for Children on their website?Best Practice: The club should have a section for safeguarding available on the front loading page in a prominent position, under this there should be a link to this page |  |
| Does the club link to the Bowls England approved safeguarding policy for Adults on their website?Best Practice: The club should have a section for safeguarding available on the front loading page in a prominent position, under this there should be a link to this page |  |
| Does the website include what to do in the event of a concern or disclosure?Best Practice: The club should have details for the club safeguarding officer and the NGB Lead Safeguarding officer, it might be useful to include a link to this document. |  |
| Does the website include a copy of the clubs code of conduct?Best Practice: This should be for club members, coaches, officials, volunteers, parents, carers, spectators etc.  This should include; Anti-Bullying, Social Media Policy, Photography Policy… |  |

| | |
|---|---|
| Does the website provide links to the Bowls England Safeguarding pages?Best Practice: This should include in all safeguarding advice, so all club members have access. | |