JULY 29, 2022.—Referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed

Mr. DEUTCH, from the Committee on Ethics, submitted the following

R E P O R T

In accordance with Rule 18(e)(2) of the Committee on Ethics (Committee), the Committee hereby submits the following Report to the House of Representatives:

I. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

On July 27, 2022, the Committee convened for the purpose of considering the July 20, 2022, arrest of Representative Andy Levin for Crowding, Obstructing, or Incommoding, during a protest outside the Capitol Building in Washington, D.C. Representative Levin was released following his arrest. Representative Levin informed the Committee that he intends to pay a $50 fine related to his arrest. The legal proceedings related to the arrest are expected to be resolved with no further action.

The Committee voted against impanelling an investigative subcommittee in this matter. The Committee considered the scope and nature of the conduct described above and determined that review by an investigative subcommittee is not required in this matter.

The Committee has determined to take no further action in this matter, and upon publication of this Report, considers the matter closed.

II. STATEMENT UNDER HOUSE RULE XIII, CLAUSE 3(C)

The Committee made no special oversight findings in this Report. No budget statement is submitted. No funding is authorized by any measure in this Report.
