

O God, be merciful

Christopher Tye
(c. 1500-1573)

S. O God, be mer - ci - ful un - - to us, un -

A. O God, be mer - ci - ful un - - to

T. O God, be mer - ci - ful

B. O God, be

- to us, O God, be mer - ci - ful us, un - - to us, O God, be un - - to us,

mer - ci - ful un - - to us, un - - to us, un - - to mer - ci - ful un - - to us, un - - to

O God, be mer - ci - ful un - - to

O God, be mer - ci - ful un - - to us, and bless us, and bless us, and bless us, and bless us, and bless us, and bless us, and bless

us, and bless us, and bless us, and bless us, and bless us, and bless us, and bless us, and bless us, and shew the light of his countenance upon us, and shew the light of his countenance, of his countenance, and shew the light of his

us, his coun - te-nance up - on us, nance up - on us, light of his coun - te-nance on us, and shew the light coun - te-nance up - on us, and shew the and shew the light of his coun - te-nance and shew the light of his coun - te - of his coun - te-nance up - on us, light of his coun - te-nance on us, and shew the up - on us, his coun - te-nance on us, up - on us. nance, of his coun - te-nance up - on us. and shew the light of his coun - te-nance up - on us.

 light of his coun - te-nance on us, up - on us.

So be it,
So be
So be it, so be
So be it,

so be it, so be it, so it, so be it, so be it, so be it, so be it,
so be it, so be

be it, so be it, so be it.
it, so be it.
so be it, so be it.
it, so be it.