The present document lists “non-IAB Partners”, i.e. entities that may process your personal data in relation to your use of the Dailymotion Service and which do not participate in the Transparency and Consent Framework developed by the Interactive Advertising Bureau Europe (the “IAB Framework”). Note that the actual identity and number of these non-IAB Partners collecting your personal data at any given time depend on how you use our Service and what content and ads you watch.

By processing your personal data, our non-IAB Partners act in their capacity of Independent or Joint Data Controllers. They process your personal data for the Purposes they have chosen and pursuant to a legal basis they have established. To learn more about the Purposes and legal bases of each of the non-IAB Partners please refer to their respective privacy policies by following the links available below.

We inform you that, for reasons inherent to the dynamic and highly automatized character of online activities as well as the diversity of the ad campaigns you may be exposed to, the present list of Dailymotion's non-IAB Partners may evolve. We will update it periodically and invite you to consult it on a regular basis. Note that most of the non-IAB Partners listed below are advertisers, media agencies or their service providers.
