STIPULATION AND PROTECTIVE ORDER

1 Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c) and the Court's Status (Pretrial
2 Scheduling) Order of April 29, 2015 (ECF No. 69), the Parties to this action -- i.e., Plaintiffs and 3 Counterclaim-Defendants Duarte Nursery, Inc. and John Duarte (collectively, "Duarte") and 4 Defendant United States Army Corps of Engineers and Counterclaim-Plaintiff United States of 5 America (collectively, "United States") -- hereby enter into the following stipulation and request
6 that the Court approve it as an Order ("Stipulation and Confidentiality Order").

7 1. The term "confidential document" herein means all documents, or parts thereof, 8 which are designated as confidential by the person producing them consistent with the 9 requirements of this stipulation. The designation shall be made at the time of production by 10 placing: (a) the words "CONTAINS CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, PRODUCED BY"
11 and the name of the producing person on the first page of the each document; and (b) the word 12 "CONFIDENTIAL" on each confidential page of such document. Such designation shall 13 constitute a certification by the attorney of record for the producing person that the document so 14 designated, or parts thereof, is in good faith claimed to be confidential because of its private 15 personal financial information. In addition, such designation shall constitute a certification by 16 the attorney of record for the producing person that all of the following are true to the best of his 17 or her knowledge after a reasonable inquiry:

18 a. the producing person has taken reasonable measures to protect the 19 confidentiality of the document and intends to continue to take such measures;

20 b. the document is not required to be disclosed, or otherwise made available, 21 to the general public or to any federal, state, or local governmental body or agency under federal 22 or state law, unless the document is a tax return which is required to be so disclosed but may be 23 designated as confidential under this Stipulation and Confidentiality Order nevertheless;

24 c. unlimited disclosure of the document is likely to cause substantial harm to 25 the privacy of the producing person;

26 d. the document was not previously provided to the producing person from a 27 third party with a lawful right to it; and 28

1 e. the document is not already or was not in the public domain.¹

2 2. The receiving party may challenge the producing person's designation, but unless 3 and until such designation is overturned by the Court (or otherwise resolved) the document shall 4 remain a "confidential document." The burden of establishing the confidentiality of any 5 document shall be on the person favoring confidentiality.

6 3. No confidential document shall be disclosed to any person for any purpose other 7 than the prosecution, defense, appeal, or settlement of the above-entitled action. In addition, 8 disclosure may only be made to the persons identified in paragraph 4 below and only in the 9 manner provided in this Stipulation and Confidentiality Order, or as necessary for pretrial or trial
10 proceedings, unless otherwise provided by further Order of this Court, by further stipulation, or 11 by order or subpoena of any court of competent jurisdiction.

12 4. The following persons may have access to any confidential document for 13 purposes of the prosecution, defense, appeal, or settlement of the above-entitled action:

14 a. the Parties and their employees working on the above-entitled action;

15 b. the attorneys representing the Parties and supervisors and personnel of the 16 attorneys' law firms and agencies as necessary for the attorneys to perform their work in 17 connection with the above-entitled action;

18 c. the Court, employees of the Court assigned to the above-entitled action,
19 and Court stenographic reporter, outside photocopying organization, or other litigation support 20 provided, engaged, or retained by counsel for a party;

21 d. deposition court reporters, transcribers, or their assistants;

23 ¹ "In the public domain" means, and the confidentiality requirements set forth herein shall not 24 apply to, documents to the extent that they: (a) are already public knowledge, i.e., demonstrably
25 obtainable from public sources through legitimate means; (b) have become public knowledge 26 (other than as a result of an improper disclosure by a receiving party in the above-entitled 27 action); or (c) have or shall come into the receiving party's legitimate possession independently 28 of the producing person.

1 e. persons (and their assistants) not employed by a party but retained to assist 2 in the above-entitled action, such as experts or consultants, with disclosure only to the extent
3 necessary to perform such work (such as an expert report);

4 f. persons who have access to the confidential document as evidenced by the 5 material itself in that it is either to, from, or copied to such persons;

6 g. any person whose testimony is to be taken, to the extent necessary for the 7 preparation or perpetuation of that testimony or potential testimony;

8 h. persons involved in one or more aspects of filing, organizing, coding, 9 converting, photocopying, storing, retrieving, or designing programs for handling data connected 10 with the above-entitled action; and

11 i. other persons qualified to have access to any confidential document by 12 agreement of the producing party or by further Order of the Court.

13 5. Any party affirmatively disclosing any confidential document to any person 14 enumerated in paragraph 3 above shall make such person aware of this Stipulation and 15 Confidentiality Order, and such person shall agree not to disclose any confidential document to 16 any other person except in conformance with this Stipulation and Confidentiality Order.

17 6. In connection with the issuance of process to compel attendance of a witness at a 18 deposition or other testimonial proceeding, such process may include a notice specifying that one 19 or more confidential document disclosed at such deposition or other proceeding is protected
20 pursuant to the terms of this Stipulation and Confidentiality Order, in which event the witness, 21 who shall be served with a copy of this Stipulation and Confidentiality Order along with the 22 notice of deposition or subpoena, shall be deemed fully apprised and bound by the terms of this 23 Stipulation and Order.

24 7. Any party who has designated a document as confidential may designate 25 deposition or other testimony of any person related to that document as confidential, by making 26 the designation on the record and specifically identifying the document's production number or,
27 if a document is not numbered, its date, author, recipients, and subject matter, to the extent
28 possible. If any confidential document is used during the testimony, portions of the transcript

1 referring to such confidential document shall themselves be deemed confidential and subject to 2 the terms and restrictions of this Stipulation and Confidentiality Order. In all other respects, the 3 transcript shall not be treated as confidential.

4 8. Any Party may file, proffer into evidence, or address orally or in writing the 5 contents of, any confidential document with the Court, provided that the Party provides the 6 opposing Party sufficient notice in advance to allow for the seeking of an Order of seal or 7 redaction. If a sealing or redaction Order issues, the Parties shall follow the Court's ECF
8 procedures for sealing and redaction, Local Rules 140 and 141, and the Court's April 28, 2015
9 Status (Pretrial Scheduling) Order (ECF No. 69), unless the Court Orders otherwise.

10 9. Nothing in this Stipulation and Confidentiality Order shall prevent or otherwise 11 restrict any counsel from rendering advice to his or her client and, in the course thereof, relying 12 on the examination of any confidential document.

13 10. Any party wishing to designate a document as confidential must do so no later 14 than 30 days before the deadline for the exchange of trial exhibits. Any party wishing to 15 challenge a confidential document designation must do so no later than 10 days prior to the date
16 on which Parties must exchange trial exhibits.

17 11. Nothing in this Stipulation and Confidentiality Order shall prevent the Parties 18 from seeking modification of it or from objecting to discovery or evidence on other grounds.

19 12. Nothing in this Stipulation and Confidentiality Order shall modify those 20 provisions of Local Rule 140(a) relating to omission or redaction or personal data identifiers, or 21 those provisions of Local Rule 140(b) relating to the seeking of a protective order or order 22 authorizing redaction before protected information is submitted.

23 Respectfully submitted,
