

Health and Safety at Work etc Act 1974 Ionising Radiations Regulations 2017

Health Record

• IMPORTANT - This health record or a copy of it, must be kept until the person to whom it relates has or would have attained the age of 75 years, but in any event for at least 30 years from the date of the last entry.

Part A - To be completed by employer
(i)	Details of employer
Nam
Address (including post code - give address at which the employee to which this record relates is employed)
(ii)	Details of employee
Surn	me Forename(s) Date of birth
Perm	anent address (including post code)
	anone address (molaumy post code)
Gen	er: Male Female National Insurance No:
Date	of commencement as a classified person in this employment
Natu	e of employment
(iii)	Details of Approved Dosimetry Service responsible for maintaining employee's dose record
Nam	,
Addr	ess (including post code)

Part B - To be completed by Appointed Doctor or Employment Medical Adviser for all employees subject to medical surveillance under these Regulations

Date of assessment	Type of assessment - pre-employment examination (A) - periodic review - paper review (B1) - face to face examination (B2) - special examination (C)	Result of assessment (ie 'fit', 'fit subject to conditions', or 'unfit')	Details of any conditions/ restrictions imposed	'Expiry date' of certification (normally 12 months after last 'expiry date')	Name (in capitals) & PIN of Appointed Doctor or EMA conducting assessment	Signature of Appointed Doctor or EMA