On 12 March 2010, the Chamber denied the Defence requests for a permanent restraining order directed to Croatia to stop all searches of records and computers in its custody which were seized from Gotovina Defence offices or members. They also denied the requests for restraining orders precluding Croatia from taking investigative steps against any member and/or office of the Gotovina or Markač Defence without a prior order of the Chamber. However, Croatia was ordered, inter alia, to return to the Gotovina Defence, without inspecting their contents or keeping any copies, items which an independent body has determined fall within scope of Rule 70(A) or 97 of the Rules, within the deadline set by that body.
