Prospective student reviews the Departmental Prospective website, to work out: student contacts What topics they Prospective PhD relevant potential Prospective student student decides may propose to submits formal supervisors/group Supervisor and they are interested research for their application online s to discuss prospective student in studying in PhD potential projects, via the Central agree a research Mechanical Which potential College systems funding, and proposal Engineering at supervisor(s)/res agree a research Imperial earch groups to proposal for the approach about student. their research proposal Prospective student's application is reviewed by Registry and the Department Student Once all the arrives at offer If successful, the College conditions are applicants receive on agreed met, the an offer via their start date. student e-service account. registers