Section 108: Appeal against extradition order

312. Subsections (1) to (3) allow a person to appeal on a question of law or fact against the decision of the Secretary of State to order his extradition. This does not apply where a person has consented to his extradition under section 127 (subsection (2)). Notice of appeal must be given to the High Court within 14 days from the date the person was notified of the Secretary of State's decision (subsection (4)).
