

*These notes refer to the Extradition Act 2003 (c.41)
which received Royal Assent on 20th November 2003*

EXTRADITION ACT 2003

EXPLANATORY NOTES

TERRITORIAL APPLICATION: WALES

Part 5

Miscellaneous and General Provisions

Section 211: Service of notices

597. This section provides for the manner in which specified notices are to be served on a person, in a Part 1 or a Part 2 case. The first type of notice is one informing the person that a request has been received for permission to deal with him for an offence other than the offence for which he was extradited (see sections 54 and 129). The second type of notice is one informing the person that a request has been received for permission to re-extradite the person on to another Part 1 or Part 2 territory (see sections 56, 58, 130 and 131).