2003 CHAPTER 41

PART 2

EXTRADITION TO CATEGORY 2 TERRITORIES

[^{F1}Provisional arrest without warrant

[^{F1}74E Person provisionally arrested under section 74A: next steps

- (1) If the appropriate judge is required by section 74D(3) to proceed under this section, the judge must—
 - (a) inform the person that they are accused of the commission of an offence in a category 2 territory or are alleged to be unlawfully at large after conviction of an offence by a court in a category 2 territory,
 - (b) give the person the required information about consent, and
 - (c) remand the person in custody or on bail.

(2) The required information about consent is-

- (a) that the person may consent to extradition to the category 2 territory in which the person is accused of the commission of an offence or is alleged to have been convicted of an offence;
- (b) an explanation of the effect of consent and the procedure that will apply if the person gives consent;
- (c) that consent must be given in writing and is irrevocable.
- (3) If the person is remanded in custody, the appropriate judge may later grant bail.
- (4) The judge must order the person's discharge if the documents referred to in section 70(9) are not received by the judge within the required period as defined by section 74(11).]
