- (a) a member of the public who claims to be the person in relation to whom the conduct took place;
- (b) a member of the public not falling within sub-paragraph (a) who claims to have been adversely affected by the conduct;
- (c) a member of the public who claims to have witnessed the conduct;
- (d) a person acting on behalf of a person falling within any of sub-paragraphs (a) to (c).

(2) References in these Regulations, in relation to anything which is or purports to be a complaint, to the complainant are references—

- (a) except in the case of anything which is or purports to be a complaint falling within paragraph (1)(d), to the person by whom the complaint or purported complaint was made; and

(b) in that case, to the person on whose behalf the complaint or purported complaint was made, but where any person is acting on another's behalf for the purposes of any complaint or purported complaint, anything that is to be or may be done under these Regulations or in relation to the complainant may be done instead by or in relation to the person acting on the complainant's behalf.

(3) Subject to paragraph (4), references in these Regulations, in relation to any conduct or anything purporting to be a complaint about any conduct, to a member of the public include references to the Director General and an NCA officer (whether at the time of the conduct or at any subsequent time).

(4) In these Regulations references, in relation to any conduct or anything purporting to be a complaint about any conduct, to a member of the public do not include references to the Director General or an NCA officer (“the relevant person”) where—

- (a) at the time when the conduct is supposed to have taken place, the person whose conduct would otherwise than under this paragraph have given rise to the complaint was—
 - (i) in relation to the Director General, an NCA officer, or
 - (ii) in relation to an NCA officer, the Director General or another NCA officer; and
- (b) the relevant person was on duty in that person’s capacity as the Director General or an NCA officer.

(5) For the purposes of these Regulations, a person is adversely affected if that person suffers any form of loss or damage, distress or inconvenience, if the person is put in danger or is otherwise unduly put at risk of being adversely affected.

(6) In these Regulations “conduct matter” means (subject to the following provisions of this regulation, section 28A of the 2002 Act and any regulations made under it, and any regulations made by virtue of section 23(2)(d) of the 2002 Act) any matter which is not and has not been the subject of a complaint but in the case of which there is an indication (whether from the circumstances or otherwise) that the Director General or an NCA officer may have—

- (a) committed a criminal offence; or
- (b) behaved in a manner which would justify the bringing of disciplinary proceedings.

(7) In these Regulations “death or serious injury matter” (or “DSI matter” for short) means (subject to section 28A of the 2002 Act and any regulations made under it) any circumstances (other than those which are or have been the subject of a complaint or which amount to a conduct matter)—

- (a) in or in consequence of which a person has died or has sustained serious injury; and
- (b) in relation to which the requirements of either paragraph (8) or (9) are satisfied.

- (a) had been arrested by the Director General or an NCA officer and had not been released from that arrest; or
- (b) was otherwise detained in the custody of the Director General or an NCA officer.

(9) The requirements of this paragraph are that—

- (b) there is an indication that the contact may have caused (whether directly or indirectly) or contributed to the death or serious injury.

(10) In paragraph (7) the reference to a person includes the Director General or an NCA officer, but in relation to such a person “contact” in paragraph (9) does not include contact that the person has whilst acting in the execution of that person’s duties.

(11) The complaints that are complaints for the purposes of these Regulations by virtue of paragraph (1)(b) do not, except in a case falling within paragraph (12), include any made by or on behalf of a person who claims to have been adversely affected as a consequence only of having seen or heard the conduct, or any of the alleged effects of the conduct.

(12) A case falls within this paragraph if—

- (a) it was only because the person in question was physically present, or sufficiently nearby, when the conduct took place or the effects occurred that the person was able to see or hear the conduct or its effects; or
 - (b) the adverse effect is attributable to, or was aggravated by, the fact that the person in relation to whom the conduct took place was already known to the person claiming to have suffered the adverse effect.
- (13) For the purposes of this regulation a person shall be taken to have witnessed conduct if, and only if—
- (a) the person’s knowledge of that conduct was acquired in a manner which would make that person a competent witness capable of giving admissible evidence of that conduct in criminal proceedings; or
 - (b) the person has possession or control of anything which would in any such proceedings constitute admissible evidence of that conduct.
- (14) For the purposes of these Regulations a person falling within paragraph 1(a) to (c) shall not be taken to have authorised another person to act on that person’s behalf unless—
- (a) the person so acting is for the time being designated for the purposes of this regulation by the Commission as a person through whom complaints may be made, or is of a description of persons so designated; or
 - (b) the person so acting has been given, and is able to produce, the written consent of the person on whose behalf the person is taking action.

but a chief officer of a third force may be required to give assistance and co-operation under paragraph (8) only with the approval of the chief officer of the force to which the person who requires it belongs.

and where the person whose conduct is under investigation was an NCA officer at the time of the conduct, "third force" means any police force other than the force to which the person carrying out the investigation belongs.

(11) Where the person who requires assistance and co-operation under paragraph (8) is an NCA officer, a chief officer of a third force may be required to give that assistance and co-operation only with the approval of the Director General.

(12) Where—

(4) A requirement imposed by any notification under this regulation may authorise or require information or documents to which it relates to be provided to the Commission electronically.

(5) Where the Commission or any person acting on the Commission’s behalf obtains information from the Director General or an NCA officer in the course of performing a function under these Regulations, that information—

- (a) may not be used for any purpose other than in the performance of a function under these Regulations or as otherwise prescribed by law; and
- (b) may not be disclosed except as permitted under these Regulations or as otherwise prescribed by law.

Inspection of premises on behalf of the Commission

12.—(1) Where—

- (a) the Commission requires—
 - (i) the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office, or
 - (ii) the Director General, to allow a person nominated for the purpose by the Commission to have access to any premises occupied for the purpose of the NCA and to documents or other things on those premises; and

- (b) the requirement is imposed for any of the purposes mentioned in paragraph (2), it shall be the duty of the Permanent Secretary or the Director General to secure that the required access is allowed to the nominated person.

- (2) Those purposes are—
- (a) the purposes of any examination by the Commission of the efficiency and effectiveness of the arrangements made by the NCA for handling complaints or dealing with recordable conduct matters or DSI matters;
 - (b) the purposes of any investigation by the Commission under these Regulations or of any investigation carried out under its supervision or management.

(3) A requirement imposed under this regulation for the purposes mentioned in paragraph (2)(a) must be notified to the Permanent Secretary or Director General at least 48 hours before the time at which access is required.

- (4) Where—
- (a) a requirement imposed under this regulation for the purposes mentioned in paragraph (2)
 - (a) requires access to any premises, document or thing to be allowed to any person; and
 - (b) there are reasonable grounds for not allowing that person to have the required access at the time at which access is sought, the obligation to secure that the required access is allowed shall have effect as an obligation to secure that the access is allowed to that person at the earliest practicable time after there cease to be any such grounds as that person may specify.

- (5) The provisions of this regulation are in addition to, and without prejudice to—
- (a) the rights of entry, search and seizure that are or may be conferred on—
 - (i) a person designated for the purposes of regulation 44 (investigations by the Commission itself); or
 - (ii) any person who otherwise acts on behalf of the Commission, in that person's capacity as a constable or as a person with the powers and privileges of a constable; or
 - (b) the obligations of the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office and Director General under regulations 9 and 11.

Duty to keep the complainant informed

13.—(1) Subject to regulation 16 (exceptions to the duty to keep the complainant informed and to provide information for other persons), in any case in which there is an investigation of a complaint in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations—

- (a) by the Commission; or
- (b) under its management,

it shall be the duty of the Commission to provide the complainant with all such information as will keep the complainant properly informed, while the investigation is being carried out and subsequently, of all the matters mentioned in paragraph (4).

(2) Subject to regulation 16, in any case in which there is an investigation of a complaint in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations—

- (a) by the appropriate authority on its own behalf; or
- (b) under the supervision of the Commission,

it shall be the duty of the appropriate authority to provide the complainant with all such information as will keep the complainant properly informed, while the investigation is being carried out and subsequently, of all the matters mentioned in paragraph (4).

- (3) Where paragraph (2) applies, it shall be the duty of—

- (a) the Commission to give the appropriate authority all such directions as it considers appropriate for securing that that authority complies with its duty under that paragraph; and
 - (b) the appropriate authority to comply with any direction given to it under this paragraph.
- (4) The matters of which the complainant must be kept properly informed are—
- (a) the progress of the investigation;
 - (b) any provisional findings of the person carrying out the investigation;
 - (c) whether any report has been submitted under regulation 57 (final reports on investigations: complaints, conduct matters and certain DSI matters);
 - (d) the action (if any) that is taken in respect of any of the matters dealt with in any such report; and
 - (e) the outcome of any action.
- (5) It shall be the duty of a person appointed to carry out an investigation under these Regulations to provide the Commission or, as the case may be, the appropriate authority with all such information as the Commission or that authority may reasonably require for the purpose of performing its duty under this regulation.

Duty to provide information for other persons

- 14.—(1) A person has an interest in being kept properly informed about the handling of a complaint, recordable conduct matter or DSI matter which is the subject of an investigation in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations if—
- (a) it appears to the Commission or to an appropriate authority that that person is a person falling within paragraph (2) or (3); and
 - (b) that person has indicated consent to the provision of information in accordance with this regulation and that consent has not been withdrawn.
- (2) A person falls within this paragraph if, in the case of a complaint or recordable conduct matter, that person—
- (a) is a relative of a person whose death is the alleged result from the conduct complained of, or to which the recordable conduct matter relates;
 - (b) is a relative of a person whose serious injury is the alleged result from that conduct and that person is incapable of making a complaint; or
 - (c) has suffered serious injury as the alleged result of that conduct.
- (3) A person falls within this paragraph if, in the case of a DSI matter, that person—
- (a) is a relative of a person who has died;
 - (b) is a relative of a person who has suffered serious injury and that person is incapable of making a complaint; or
 - (c) is the person who has suffered serious injury.
- (4) A person who does not fall within paragraph (2) or (3) has an interest in being kept properly informed about the handling of a complaint, conduct matter or DSI matter if—
- (a) the Commission or the appropriate authority consider that that person has an interest in the handling of the complaint, recordable conduct matter or DSI matter which is sufficient to make it appropriate for information to be provided to that person in accordance with this regulation; and
 - (b) that person has indicated consent to the provision of information in accordance with this regulation.
- (5) In relation to a complaint, this regulation confers no rights on the complainant.

(6) A person who has an interest in being kept properly informed about the handling of a complaint, conduct matter or DSI matter is referred to in this regulation as an “interested person”.

(7) Subject to regulation 16 (exceptions to the duty to keep the complainant informed and to provide information for other persons), in any case in which there is an investigation of a complaint, recordable conduct matter or DSI matter in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations—

- (a) by the Commission; or
- (b) under its management,

it shall be the duty of the Commission to provide the interested person with all such information as will keep the interested person properly informed, while the investigation is being carried out and subsequently, of all the matters mentioned in paragraph (10).

(8) Subject to regulation 16, in any case in which there is an investigation of a complaint, recordable conduct matter or DSI matter in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations—

- (a) by the appropriate authority on its own behalf, or
- (b) under the supervision of the Commission,

it shall be the duty of the appropriate authority to provide the interested person with all such information as will keep the interested person properly informed, while the investigation is being carried out and subsequently, of all the matters mentioned in paragraph (10).

(9) Where paragraph (8) applies, it shall be the duty of—

- (a) the Commission to give the appropriate authority all such directions as it considers appropriate for securing that that authority complies with its duty under that paragraph; and
- (b) the appropriate authority to comply with any direction given to it under this paragraph.

(10) The matters of which the interested person must be kept properly informed are—

- (a) the progress of the investigation;
- (b) any provisional findings of the person carrying out the investigation;
- (c) whether the Commission or the appropriate authority has made a determination under regulation 34 (procedure where conduct matter is revealed during investigation of a DSI matter);
- (d) whether any report has been submitted under regulation 66 (final reports on investigations: complaints, conduct matters and certain DSI matters) and regulation 69 (final reports on investigations: other DSI matters);
- (e) the action (if any) the Commission has taken in respect of any of the matters dealt with in any such report; and
- (f) the outcome of any action.

(11) Regulation 13(5) (duty to keep the complainant informed) applies for the purposes of this regulation as it applies for the purposes of that regulation.

(12) In this regulation “relative” means any spouse, partner, parent or adult child.

Manner in which duties to provide information are to be performed

15.—(1) For the purposes of regulations 13 and 14 (duties to keep complainant and other persons informed), the manner in which the Commission or, as the case may be, an appropriate authority shall perform the duties imposed by those regulations is as follows.

(2) The Commission, in a case falling within regulation 13(1) or 14(7) (investigation of a complaint, conduct matter or DSI matter by or under the management of the Commission), shall inform the complainant or, as the case may be, the interested person—

- (a) of the progress of the investigation promptly and in any event—

- (i) if there has been no previous notification, within four weeks of the start of the investigation; and
 - (ii) in any other case, within four weeks of the previous notification;
 - (b) of any provisional findings of the person carrying out the investigation as frequently as the Commission determines to be appropriate in order for the complainant to be kept properly informed.
- (3) An appropriate authority, in a case falling within regulation 13(2) or 14(8) (investigation of a complaint, conduct matter or DSI matter by an appropriate authority on its own behalf or under the supervision of the Commission), shall inform the complainant or the interested person (as the case may be)—
- (a) of the progress of the investigation promptly and in any event—
 - (i) if there has been no previous notification, within four weeks of the start of the investigation; and
 - (ii) in any other case, within four weeks of the previous notification.
 - (b) of any provisional findings of the person carrying out the investigation as frequently as the appropriate authority determines to be appropriate in order for the complainant to be kept properly informed.
- (4) When an investigation has been completed, each complainant and interested person shall be notified—
- (a) of the date on which the final report under regulation 66 (final reports on investigations: complaints, conduct matters and certain DSI matters) is likely to be submitted; and
 - (b) of the date on which the notification under regulation 67(11) or 68(12) (action by the Commission or appropriate authority in response to an investigation report) is likely to be given.
- (5) In performing the duties imposed by regulations 13(1) and (2), 14(7) and (8), 67(11) or 68(12), the Commission or, as the case may be, the appropriate authority shall determine whether it is appropriate to offer, or to accede to a request for, a meeting with a complainant or, as the case may be, an interested person.
- (6) As soon as practicable after any such meeting the Commission or, as the case may be, the appropriate authority shall send to the complainant or interested person a written record of the meeting and an account of how any concerns of that person will be addressed.
- (7) As soon as practicable after the conclusion of any disciplinary proceedings or unsatisfactory performance proceedings that are taken in respect of the matters dealt with in any report submitted under regulation 57, the appropriate authority shall notify any complainant and any interested person of the outcome of those proceedings, including the fact and outcome of any appeal against the outcome of the proceedings.
- (8) If the Commission or, as the case may be, the appropriate authority, considers that an investigation has made minimal or no progress since the previous notification, then the next notification may be made by any means that in the opinion of the Commission or, as the case may be, the appropriate authority is suitable.
- (9) Any notification under this regulation shall be given in writing, except in a case where the notification is given at a meeting held in consequence of a determination under paragraph (5) or it is given by means other than writing in accordance with paragraph (8).

Exceptions to the duty to keep the complainant informed and to provide information for other persons

16.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the duties mentioned in regulation 13(1) and (2) (duty to keep the complainant informed), regulation 14(7) and (8) (duty to provide information for other persons), regulation 67(11) and regulation 68(12) (action by the Commission or appropriate authority in response to an investigation report) shall not apply in circumstances where in the opinion of the Commission, or, as the case may be, of the appropriate authority, the non-disclosure of information is necessary for the purpose of—

- (a) preventing the premature or inappropriate disclosure of information that is relevant to, or may be used in, any actual or prospective criminal proceedings;
- (b) preventing the disclosure of information in any circumstances in which its non-disclosure—
 - (i) is in the interests of national security;
 - (ii) is for the purposes of the prevention or detection of crime, or the apprehension or prosecution of offenders;
 - (iii) is required on proportionality grounds; or
 - (iv) is otherwise necessary in the public interest.

(2) The Commission or, as the case may be, the appropriate authority shall not conclude that the non-disclosure of information is necessary under paragraph (1) unless it is satisfied that—

- (a) there is a real risk of the disclosure of that information causing an adverse effect; and
- (b) that adverse effect would be significant.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (1), the Commission or, as the case may be, the appropriate authority shall consider whether the non-disclosure of information is justified under that paragraph in circumstances where—

- (a) that information is relevant to, or may be used in, any actual or prospective disciplinary proceedings or unsatisfactory performance proceedings;
- (b) the disclosure of that information may lead to the contamination of the evidence of witnesses during such proceedings;
- (c) the disclosure of that information may prejudice the welfare or safety of any third party;
- (d) that information constitutes criminal intelligence.

PART 3

Handling of complaints

Duties to preserve evidence relating to complaints

17.—(1) Where a complaint is made about the conduct of the Director General, it shall be the duty of the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office to secure that all such steps as are appropriate for the purposes of these Regulations are taken, both initially and from time to time, for obtaining and preserving evidence relating to the conduct complained of.

(2) Where—

- (a) a complaint is made to the Director General about the conduct of an NCA officer; or
- (b) the Director General becomes aware that a complaint about the conduct of an NCA officer has been made to the Commission or the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office, the Director General shall take all such steps as appear to be appropriate for the purposes of these Regulations for obtaining and preserving evidence relating to the conduct complained of.

(3) The Director General's duty under paragraph (2) must be performed as soon as practicable after the complaint is made or, as the case may be, the Director General becomes aware of it.

(4) After that, the Director General shall be under a duty, until satisfied that it is no longer necessary to do so, to continue to take the steps which from time to time appear to the Director General to be appropriate for the purposes of these Regulations for obtaining and preserving evidence relating to the conduct complained of.

(5) It shall be the duty of the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office to comply with all such directions as may be given by the Commission in relation to the performance of the Permanent Secretary's duty under paragraph (1).

(6) It shall be the duty of the Director General to take all such specific steps for obtaining or preserving evidence relating to any conduct that is the subject-matter of a complaint as the Director General may be directed to take for the purposes of this regulation by the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office.

Initial handling and recording of complaints

18.—(1) Where a complaint is made to the Commission, it shall give notification of the complaint to the appropriate authority.

(2) But the Commission need not give that notification if the Commission considers that there are exceptional circumstances that justify it not being given.

(3) Where a complaint is made to the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office, the Permanent Secretary shall—

- (a) determine whether or not the Permanent Secretary is the appropriate authority; and
- (b) if the Permanent Secretary determines that the appropriate authority is another person, give notification of the complaint to that person.

(4) Where a complaint is made to the Director General, the Director General shall—

- (a) determine whether or not the Director General is the appropriate authority; and
- (b) if the Director General determines that the appropriate authority is another person, give notification of the complaint to that person.

(5) Where the Commission, the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or the Director General gives notification of a complaint under any of paragraphs (1) to (4), the person who gave the notification shall notify the complainant that the notification has been given and of what it contained.

(6) Where—

- (a) the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office determines, in the case of any complaint made to the Permanent Secretary, that the Permanent Secretary is the appropriate authority;
- (b) the Director General determines, in the case of any complaint made to the Director General, that the Director General is the appropriate authority; or
- (c) a complaint is notified to the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or the Director General under this paragraph, the Permanent Secretary or the Director General shall record the complaint.

(7) Nothing in this regulation shall require the notification or recording by any person of any complaint about any conduct if—

- (a) that person is satisfied that the subject-matter of the complaint has been, or is already being, dealt with by means of criminal or disciplinary proceedings against the person whose conduct it was; or

(b) the complaint has been withdrawn.

(8) Nothing in this regulation shall require the recording by any person of any complaint about any conduct if that person considers that the complaint falls within a description of complaints specified in regulation 20 (recording of complaints).

Copies of complaints etc

19.—(1) Where a complaint is recorded under regulation 18(6), the appropriate authority shall—

- (a) supply to the complainant a copy of the record made of that complaint; and
- (b) subject to paragraphs (2) to (4), supply to the person complained against a copy of the complaint.

(2) A copy of a complaint supplied under this regulation may be in a form which keeps anonymous the identity of the complainant or of any other person.

(3) An appropriate authority may decide not to supply such a copy of a complaint if it is of the opinion that to do so—

- (a) might prejudice any criminal investigation or pending proceedings; or
- (b) would otherwise be contrary to the public interest.

(4) Where an appropriate authority decides not to supply such a copy, it shall keep that decision under regular review.

Recording of complaints

20.—(1) For the purposes of regulation 18(8) (descriptions of complaint not required to be recorded) the complaints set out in paragraph (2) are hereby specified.

(2) Those complaints are complaints in the case of which the appropriate authority considers that—

- (a) the matter is already the subject of a complaint made by or on behalf of the same complainant;
- (b) the complaint discloses neither the name and address of the complainant nor that of any other interested person and it is not reasonably practicable to ascertain such a name or address;
- (c) the complaint is vexatious, oppressive or otherwise an abuse of the procedures for dealing with complaints;
- (d) the complaint is repetitious; or
- (e) the complaint is fanciful.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(d) a complaint is repetitious if, and only if—

- (a) it concerns substantially the same conduct as a previous conduct matter or it is substantially the same as a previous complaint made by or on behalf of the same complainant;
- (b) it contains no fresh allegations which significantly affect the account of the conduct complained of;
- (c) no fresh evidence, being evidence which was not reasonably available at the time the previous complaint was made, is tendered in support of it; and
- (d) as respects the previous complaint or conduct matter, either—

- (i) the complaint was locally resolved in accordance the provisions in regulation 26;

- (ii) the complaint was handled otherwise than in accordance with these Regulations or no action was taken in relation to it, in accordance with regulation 23(2) or (3) (disapplication of requirements of these Regulations);
- (iii) the Commission gave the appropriate authority a direction under regulation 38 (power to discontinue an investigation);
- (iv) the appropriate authority disappplied the requirements of these Regulations in accordance with regulation 38(13)(b);
- (v) the complainant gave such notification as is mentioned in regulation 39(1); or
- (vi) the requirements of regulation 58(9) or 59(11) (determination by the appropriate authority of what action to take) were complied with.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(e) a complaint is fanciful if, and only if, no reasonable person could lend any credence to it.

Failures to notify or record a complaint

21.—(1) This regulation applies where anything which is or purports to be a complaint in relation to which regulation 18 has effect is received by the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or the Director General (whether in consequence of having been made directly or of a notification under that regulation).

(2) If the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or the Director General decides not to take action under regulation 18 for notifying or recording the whole or any part of what has been received, the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or the Director General shall notify the complainant of the following matters—

- (a) the decision to take no action and, if that decision relates to only part of what was received, the part in question;
- (b) the grounds on which the decision was made; and
- (c) that complainant’s right to appeal against that decision under this regulation.

(3) Subject to paragraph 4, the complainant shall have a right of appeal to the Commission against any failure by the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or the Director General to make a determination under regulation 18 or to notify or record anything under that regulation.

(4) The complainant has no right of appeal under paragraph (3) if—

- (a) by virtue of regulation 18(7), there is no requirement to record the complaint; or
- (b) the appeal relates to a failure by the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office.

(5) On an appeal under this regulation, the Commission shall—

- (a) determine whether any action under regulation 18 should have been taken in the case in question; and
- (b) if the Commission finds in the complainant’s favour, give such directions as the Commission considers appropriate to the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or the Director General as to the action to be taken for making a determination, or for notifying or recording what was received, and it shall be the duty of the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or the Director General to comply with any directions given under sub-paragraph (b).

(6) Directions under paragraph (5)(b) may require action taken in pursuance of the directions to be treated as taken in accordance with any such provision of regulation 18 as may be specified in the direction.

(7) The Commission—

- (a) shall give notification to the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or the Director General and the complainant of any determination made by it under this regulation; and
- (b) shall give notification to the complainant of any direction given by it under this regulation to the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or the Director General.

Reference of complaints to the Commission

22.—(1) It shall be the duty of the appropriate authority to refer a complaint to the Commission if—

- (a) the complaint is one alleging that the conduct complained of has resulted in death or serious injury;
- (b) the complaint does not fall within sub-paragraph (a) but is one alleging conduct which constitutes—
 - (i) a serious assault, as defined in guidance issued by the Commission⁽⁸⁾;
 - (ii) a serious sexual offence, as defined in guidance issued by the Commission;
 - (iii) serious corruption, as defined in guidance issued by the Commission;
 - (iv) a criminal offence or behaviour which is liable to lead to disciplinary proceedings and which in either case was aggravated by discriminatory behaviour on the grounds of a person's race, sex, religion, or other status identified in guidance by the Commission;
 - (v) a relevant offence;
- (c) the complaint arises from the same incident as one in which any conduct falling within sub-paragraph (a) or (b) is alleged; or
- (d) the complaint is one in respect of which the Commission notifies the appropriate authority that it requires the complaint in question to be referred to the Commission for its consideration.

(2) In a case where there is no obligation under paragraph (1) to make a reference, the appropriate authority may refer a complaint to the Commission if that authority considers that it would be appropriate to do so by reason of—

- (a) the gravity of the subject-matter of the complaint; or
- (b) any exceptional circumstances.

(3) In a case in which a reference under paragraph (1) or (2) is neither made nor required to be made, the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office may refer a complaint to the Commission if—

- (a) it is one in relation to which the Director General is the appropriate authority; and
- (b) the Permanent Secretary considers that it would be appropriate to do so by reason of—
 - (i) the gravity of the subject-matter of the complaint; or
 - (ii) any exceptional circumstances.

(4) Where a complaint is required to be referred to the Commission under paragraph (1)(a), (b) or (c), notification of the complaint shall be given to the Commission—

- (a) without delay and in any event not later than the end of the day following the day on which it first becomes clear to the appropriate authority that the complaint is one to which that sub-paragraph applies; and
- (b) in such manner as the Commission specifies.

⁽⁸⁾ Guidance issued by the Commission under section 22 of the 2002 Act in January 2013.

(5) Where a complaint is required to be referred to the Commission under paragraph (1)(d), notification of the complaint shall be given to the Commission—

- (a) without delay and in any event not later than the end of the day following the day on which the Commission notifies the appropriate authority that the complaint is to be referred; and
- (b) in such manner as the Commission specifies.

(6) Subject to paragraph (8), the following powers—

- (a) the power of the Commission by virtue of paragraph (1)(d) to require a complaint to be referred to it; and
- (b) the power of the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or the Director General to refer a complaint to the Commission under paragraph (2) or (3), shall each be exercisable at any time irrespective of whether the complaint is already being investigated by any person or has already been considered by the Commission.

(7) The Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or the Director General who refers a complaint to the Commission under this regulation shall give a notification of the making of the reference—

- (a) to the complainant; and
- (b) except in a case where it appears to the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or the Director General that to do so might prejudice a possible future investigation of the complaint, to the person complained against.

(8) A complaint that has already been referred to the Commission under this regulation on a previous occasion—

- (a) shall not be required to be referred again under this regulation unless the Commission so directs; and
- (b) shall not be referred in exercise of any power conferred by this regulation unless the Commission consents.

Duties of the Commission on references under regulation 22

23.—(1) It shall be the duty of the Commission in the case of every complaint referred to it by the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or the Director General, to determine whether or not it is necessary for the complaint to be investigated.

(2) Where the Commission determines under this regulation that it is not necessary for a complaint to be investigated, it may, if it thinks fit, refer the complaint back to the appropriate authority to be dealt with by that authority in accordance with regulation 24.

(3) Where the Commission refers a complaint back under paragraph (2), it shall give a notification of the making of the reference back—

- (a) to the complainant; and
- (b) except in a case where it appears to the Commission that to do so might prejudice a possible future investigation of the complaint, to the person complained against.

Handling of complaints by the appropriate authority

24.—(1) This regulation applies where a complaint has been recorded by the appropriate authority.

(2) But this regulation does not apply to a complaint if it is one that has been, or must be, referred to the Commission under regulation 22, unless the complaint is for the time being—

- (a) referred back to the authority under regulation 23; or
- (b) the subject of a determination under regulation 38.

(3) Subject to regulation 25, the appropriate authority shall determine whether or not the complaint is suitable for being subjected to local resolution.

(4) If the appropriate authority determines that the complaint is suitable for being subjected to local resolution, it shall make arrangements for it to be so subjected.

(5) If the appropriate authority determines that the complaint is not so suitable, it shall make arrangements for the complaint to be investigated by the authority on its own behalf.

(6) A determination that a complaint is suitable for being subjected to local resolution may not be made unless—

(a) the appropriate authority is satisfied that the conduct complained of (even if it were proved) would not justify the bringing of any criminal or disciplinary proceedings against the person whose conduct is complained of; and

(b) the appropriate authority is satisfied that the conduct complained of (even if it were proved) would not involve the infringement of a person's rights under Article 2 or 3 of the Convention (within the meaning of the Human Rights Act 1998(9)).

(7) In a case where this regulation applies to a complaint by virtue of paragraph (2)(b), a determination that the complaint is suitable for being subjected to local resolution may not be made unless the Commission approves the determination.

(8) No more than one application may be made to the Commission for the purposes of paragraph (9) in respect of the same complaint.

(9) Paragraph (9) (where applicable) is in addition to paragraphs (6) to (8).

Disapplication of requirements of these Regulations

25.—(1) If, in a case in which regulation 24 applies, the appropriate authority considers—

(a) that it should handle the complaint otherwise than in accordance with these Regulations or should take no action in relation to it; and

(b) that the complaint falls within a description of complaints specified in paragraph (7), the appropriate authority may handle the complaint in whatever manner (if any) that authority thinks fit.

(2) But, in a case where regulation 24 applies by virtue of regulation 24(2)(a) or (b), the appropriate authority may not handle the complaint in whatever manner (if any) the authority thinks fit unless—

(a) the authority applies to the Commission, in accordance with these Regulations, for permission to so handle the complaint; and

(b) the Commission gives permission.

(3) An application under paragraph (2) for permission to handle a complaint in whatever manner (if any) an appropriate authority thinks fit shall be in writing and shall be accompanied by—

(a) a copy of the complaint;

(b) an explanation of the appropriate authority's reasons for making the application; and

(c) copies of any other documents or material in the possession of the appropriate authority which are relevant to the complaint.

(4) The appropriate authority shall supply any further information requested by the Commission for the purpose of considering an application by that authority made under paragraph (1).

(5) Where such an application is made to the Commission, it shall—

- (a) consider the application and determine whether to grant the permission applied for; and
 - (b) notify its decision to the appropriate authority and the complainant.
- (6) Where an application is made under this paragraph in respect of any complaint, the appropriate authority shall not, while the application is being considered by the Commission, take any action in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations (other than under regulation 17) in relation to that complaint.
- (7) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), the description of complaints are any one in relation to which the appropriate authority considers that—
- (a) more than 12 months have elapsed between the incident, or the latest incident, giving rise to the complaint and the making of the complaint and either that no good reason for the delay has been shown or that injustice would be likely to be caused by the delay;
 - (b) the matter is already the subject of a complaint made by or on behalf of the same complainant;
 - (c) the complaint discloses neither the name and address of the complainant nor that of any other interested person and it is not reasonably practicable to ascertain such a name or address;
 - (d) the complaint is vexatious, oppressive or otherwise an abuse of the procedures for dealing with complaints;
 - (e) the complaint is repetitious, as defined in regulation 20(3); or
 - (f) it is not reasonably practicable to complete the investigation of the complaint or any other procedures under these Regulations.
- (8) For the purposes of paragraph (7)(f) it is not reasonably practicable to complete the investigation of a complaint or any other procedures under these Regulations if, and only if—
- (a) it is not reasonably practicable to communicate with the complainant or a person acting on his behalf; or
 - (b) it is not reasonably practicable to complete a satisfactory investigation in consequence of—
 - (i) a refusal or failure, on the part of the complainant, to make a statement or afford other reasonable assistance for the purposes of the investigation; or
 - (ii) the lapse of time since the event or events forming the subject-matter of the complaint.
- (9) In this regulation any reference to action not being reasonably practicable shall include a reference to action which it does not appear reasonably practicable to take within a period which is reasonable in all the circumstances of the case.
- (10) Before deciding to handle a complaint in whatever manner (if any) it thinks fit in accordance with paragraph (1), the appropriate authority shall—
- (a) write to the complainant at the complainant's last known address—
 - (i) inviting the complainant to make representations in relation to the matter; and
 - (ii) allowing the complainant a period of 28 days, commencing on the day after the date of the letter, to do so; and
 - (b) have regard to any representations made by the complainant.
- (11) The appropriate authority shall notify the complainant—
- (a) that the appropriate authority has decided to handle the complaint as permitted by paragraph (1) (in a case where the appropriate authority is not required to apply for permission under paragraph (2) to so handle the complaint); or

- (b) about the making of the application under paragraph (2) (in a case where the appropriate authority makes such an application).
- (12) Where the complaint is to be handled in whatever manner (if any) the appropriate authority thinks fit (whether or not the Commission's permission is needed), the authority—
 - (a) shall not be required by virtue of any of the provisions of these Regulations (other than regulation 17) to take any action in relation to the complaint; and
 - (b) may handle the complaint in whatever manner it thinks fit, or take no action in relation to the complaint, and for the purposes of handling the complaint may take any step that it could have taken, or would have been required to take, if it were not proceeding in accordance with this regulation.
- (13) Where the appropriate authority applies to the Commission under paragraph (2) and the Commission determines that no permission should be granted—
 - (a) it shall refer the matter back to the appropriate authority for the making of a determination under regulation 24(3); and
 - (b) the authority shall then make that determination.
- (14) No more than one application may be made to the Commission under this regulation in respect of the same complaint.
- (15) The complainant shall have a right of appeal to the relevant appeal body against any decision by the appropriate authority under this regulation to handle the complaint otherwise than in accordance with these Regulations or to take no action in relation to it.
- (16) But the complainant has no right of appeal in a case in which the appeal relates to a decision for which the Commission has given permission under this regulation.
- (17) On an appeal under this paragraph, subject to paragraphs (18) and (19), the relevant appeal body shall—
 - (a) determine whether any decision taken by the appropriate authority under this regulation should have been taken in the case in question; and
 - (b) if the relevant appeal body finds in the complainant's favour, give such directions as the relevant appeal body thinks appropriate to the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or the Director General as to the action to be taken for handling the complaint in accordance with these Regulations or handling it otherwise than in accordance with these Regulations;and it shall be the duty of the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or the Director General to comply with any directions given under sub-paragraph (b).
- (18) Paragraph (17) does not apply in a case where the Director General is—
 - (a) the person in respect of whose decision the appeal is made under this regulation, and
 - (b) the relevant appeal body in relation to the appeal.
- (19) In such a case—
 - (a) the appeal shall determine whether any decision taken by the appropriate authority under this paragraph should have been taken in the case in question; and
 - (b) if the appeal finds in the complainant's favour, the Director General must take such action as the Director General thinks appropriate for handling the complaint in accordance with these Regulations or handling it otherwise than in accordance with these Regulations.

Local resolution of complaints

26.—(1) The arrangements made by the appropriate authority for subjecting any complaint to local resolution may include the appointment of a person who is an NCA officer to secure the local resolution of the complaint.

(2) The procedures that are to be available for dealing with a complaint which is to be subjected to local resolution are, subject to the provisions of this regulation, any procedures which are approved by the Commission.

(3) Where it appears to the appointed person that the complaint had in fact already been satisfactorily dealt with at the time it was brought to his notice, the appointed person may, subject to any representation by the complainant, treat it as having been locally resolved.

(4) The appointed person shall as soon as practicable give the complainant and the person complained against an opportunity to comment on the complaint.

(5) The appointed person shall not, for the purpose of locally resolving a complaint, tender on behalf of the person complained against an apology for that person's conduct unless the person complained against has agreed to the apology.

(6) Where a complaint has been dealt with by way of local resolution, a record shall be made as soon as practicable of the outcome of the procedure and a copy of the record sent to the complainant and the person complained against.

(7) At the time of sending a copy of the record of outcome to the complainant under paragraph (6), the appropriate authority shall notify the complainant in writing of the complainant's right of appeal against that outcome under regulation 27 (appeals relating to complaints dealt with other than by investigation), unless paragraph (2) of that regulation applies.

(8) In this regulation, "the appointed person" means a person appointed under paragraph (1) to secure the local resolution of a complaint.

(9) A statement made by any person for the purposes of the local resolution of any complaint shall not be admissible in any subsequent criminal, civil or disciplinary proceedings except to the extent that it consists of an admission relating to a matter that has not been subjected to local resolution.

(10) If, after attempts have been made to resolve a complaint using local resolution, it appears to the appropriate authority—

- (a) that the resolution of the complaint in that manner is impossible; or
- (b) that the complaint is, for any other reason, not suitable for such resolution, it shall make arrangements for the complaint to be investigated by that authority on its own behalf.

(11) The local resolution of any complaint shall be discontinued if—

- (a) any arrangements are made under paragraph (9);
- (b) the Commission notifies the appropriate authority that it requires the complaint to be referred to the Commission under regulation 22; or
- (c) the complaint is so referred otherwise than in pursuance of such a notification.

(12) A person who has participated in any attempt to resolve a complaint using local resolution shall be disqualified for appointment under any provision of these Regulations to investigate that complaint, or to assist with the carrying out of the investigation of that complaint.

Appeals relating to complaints dealt with other than by investigation

27.—(1) The complainant shall have a right of appeal to the relevant appeal body against the outcome of any complaint that is—

- (a) subjected to local resolution; or
- (b) handled otherwise than in accordance with these Regulations.

(2) On an appeal under this regulation, subject to paragraphs (3) and (4), the relevant appeal body shall—

- (a) determine whether the outcome of the complaint is a proper outcome; and

- (b) if the relevant appeal body finds in the complainant's favour, give such directions as the relevant appeal body thinks appropriate to the appropriate authority as to the action to be taken in relation to the complaint?

and it shall be the duty of the appropriate authority to comply with any directions given under paragraph (b).

(3) Paragraph (2) does not apply in a case where the Director General is the relevant appeal body in relation to the appeal.

(4) In such a case—

- (a) the appeal shall determine whether the outcome of the complaint is a proper outcome; and
- (b) if the appeal finds in the complainant's favour, the Director General must take such action as the Director General thinks appropriate in relation to the complaint.

PART 4

Handling of conduct matters

Conduct matters arising in civil proceedings

28.—(1) This regulation applies where—

- (a) the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office and the Director General has received notification (whether or not under this regulation) that civil proceedings relating to any matter have been brought by a member of the public against the Secretary of State, NCA or Director General, or it otherwise appears to the appropriate authority that such proceedings are likely to be so brought; and
- (b) it appears to the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office and the Director General (whether at the time of the notification or at any time subsequently) that those proceedings involve or would involve a conduct matter.

(2) The Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or Director General—

- (a) shall consider whether it is the appropriate authority in relation to the conduct matter in question; and
- (b) if it is not, shall notify the person who is the appropriate authority about the proceedings, or the proposal to bring them, and about the circumstances that make it appear as mentioned in paragraph (1)(b).

(3) Where the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or Director General determines for the purposes of this paragraph that one of them is the appropriate authority in relation to any conduct matter, the appropriate authority shall determine whether the matter is one which that authority is required to refer to the Commission under regulation 32 or is one which it would be appropriate to so refer.

(4) In a case where the appropriate authority determines that the matter is one which it is required to refer to the Commission under regulation 32, or is one which it would be appropriate to so refer, it shall record the matter.

(5) In any other case, the appropriate authority shall determine whether the matter is repetitive within the meaning of regulation 30.

(6) In a case where the appropriate authority determines that the matter is not repetitive within the meaning of regulation 30, it shall record the matter.

(7) In any other case, the appropriate authority may (but need not) record the matter.

(8) In a case where the appropriate authority—

- (a) records a matter under this regulation; and
- (b) is not required to refer the matter to the Commission under regulation 32 and does not do so,

the appropriate authority may deal with the matter in such other manner (if any) as it may determine.

(9) Nothing in paragraph (4) or (6) shall require the appropriate authority to record any conduct matter if it is satisfied that the matter has been, or is already being, dealt with by means of criminal or disciplinary proceedings against the person to whose conduct the matter relates.

- (10) For the purposes of this regulation civil proceedings involve a conduct matter if—
 - (a) they relate to such a matter; or
 - (b) they are proceedings that relate to a matter in relation to which a conduct matter, or evidence of a conduct matter, is or may be relevant.

Recording etc. of conduct matters in other cases

- 29.—(1) This paragraph applies where—
- (a) a conduct matter comes (otherwise than as mentioned in regulation 28) to the attention of the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office and the Director General; and
 - (b) it appears to the appropriate authority that the conduct involved in that matter falls within paragraph (2).
- (2) Conduct falls within this paragraph if (assuming it to have taken place)—
- (a) it appears to have resulted in the death of any person or in serious injury to any person;
 - (b) a member of public has been adversely affected by it; or
 - (c) it is of a description specified in paragraph (3).
- (3) The following descriptions of conduct are specified for the purposes of paragraph (2)—
- (a) a serious assault, as defined in guidance issued by the Commission;
 - (b) a serious sexual offence, as defined in guidance issued by the Commission;
 - (c) serious corruption, as defined in guidance issued by the Commission;
 - (d) a criminal offence or behaviour which is liable to lead to disciplinary proceedings and which in either case was aggravated by discriminatory behaviour on the grounds of a person's race, sex, religion, or other status identified in guidance by the Commission;
 - (e) a relevant offence;
 - (f) conduct whose gravity or other exceptional circumstances make it appropriate to record the matter in which the conduct is involved; or
 - (g) conduct which is alleged to have taken place in the same incident as one in which conduct within sub-paragraph (a) to (f) is alleged.
- (4) The appropriate authority must determine whether the matter is one which it is required to refer to the Commission under regulation 32 or is one which it would be appropriate to so refer.
- (5) In a case in which the appropriate authority determines that the matter is one which it is required to refer to the Commission under regulation 32, or is one which it would be appropriate to so refer, it shall record the matter.
- (6) In any other case, the appropriate authority shall determine whether the matter is repetitious within the meaning of regulation 30.
- (7) In a case where the appropriate authority determines that the matter is not repetitious within the meaning of regulation 30, it shall record the matter.
- (8) In any other case, the appropriate authority may (but need not) record the matter.

- (9) In a case where the appropriate authority—
- (a) records a matter under this regulation; and
 - (b) is not required to refer the matter to the Commission under regulation 32 and does not do so,

the appropriate authority may deal with the matter in such other manner (if any) as it may determine.

(10) Nothing in paragraph (5) or (7) shall require the appropriate authority to record any conduct matter if it is satisfied that the matter has been, or is already being, dealt with by means of criminal or disciplinary proceedings against the person to whose conduct the matter relates.

- (11) If it appears to the Commission that—
- (a) any matter that has come to its attention is a recordable conduct matter; but
 - (b) the matter has not been recorded by the appropriate authority, the Commission may direct the appropriate authority to record that matter; and it shall be the duty of that authority to comply with the direction.

Conduct matters not required to be recorded

- 30. For the purposes of regulations 28(5) and 29(6), a conduct matter is repetitious only if—
- (a) it concerns substantially the same conduct as a previous complaint or conduct matter;
 - (b) there is no fresh indication in respect of that matter that the Director General or an NCA officer may have committed a criminal offence or behaved in a manner which would justify the bringing of disciplinary proceedings;
 - (c) there is no fresh evidence in respect of that matter which was not reasonably available at the time the previous complaint was made or the previous conduct matter was recorded; and
 - (d) as respects the previous complaint or conduct matter, either—
 - (i) the complaint was locally resolved in accordance with the provisions of regulation 26;
 - (ii) the complaint was handled otherwise than in accordance with these Regulations or no action was taken in relation to it, in accordance with regulation 25 (disapplication of requirements of these Regulations);
 - (iii) the Commission gave the appropriate authority a direction under regulation 64 (power to discontinue an investigation);
 - (iv) the appropriate authority disappplied the requirements of these Regulations in accordance with regulation 64(15)(b);
 - (v) the complainant gave such notification as is mentioned in regulation 40(1); or
 - (vi) the requirements of regulations 67(9) or 68(11) (determination by the appropriate authority of what action to take) were complied with.

Duties to preserve evidence relating to conduct matters

31.—(1) Where a recordable conduct matter that relates to the conduct of the Director General comes to the attention of the Permanent Secretary of the Home Office, it shall be the duty of the Permanent Secretary to secure that all such steps as are appropriate for the purposes of these Regulations are taken, both initially and from time to time after that, for obtaining and preserving evidence relating to that matter.

(2) Where the Director General becomes aware of any recordable conduct matter relating to the conduct of an NCA officer, it shall be the Director General's duty to take all such steps as appear to be appropriate for the purposes of these Regulations for obtaining and preserving evidence relating to that matter.

(3) The Director General's duty under paragraph (2) must be performed as soon as practicable after the Director General becomes aware of the matter in question.

(4) After that, the Director General shall be under a duty, until it is satisfied that it is no longer necessary to do so, to continue to take the steps from time to time appearing to the Director General to be appropriate for the purposes of these Regulations for obtaining and preserving evidence relating to the matter.

(5) It shall be the duty of the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office to comply with all such directions as may be given by the Commission in relation to the performance of any duty imposed by virtue of paragraph (1).

(6) It shall be the duty of the Director General to take all such specific steps for obtaining or preserving evidence relating to any recordable conduct matter as the Director General may be directed to take for the purposes of this regulation by the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or by the Commission.

Reference of conduct matters to the Commission

32.—(1) It shall be the duty of the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or Director General to refer a recordable conduct matter to the Commission if, in a case (whether or not falling within regulation 28 (conduct matters arising in civil proceedings)) in which the Permanent Secretary or Director General is the appropriate authority—

- (a) that matter relates to any incident or circumstances in or in consequence of which any person has died or suffered serious injury;
- (b) that matter is of a description specified in paragraph (2); or
- (c) the Commission notifies the appropriate authority that it requires that matter to be referred to the Commission for its consideration.

(2) Any matter which relates to conduct falling within the following descriptions is specified for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b)—

- (a) a serious assault, as defined in guidance issued by the Commission;
- (b) a serious sexual offence, as defined in guidance issued by the Commission;
- (c) serious corruption, as defined in guidance issued by the Commission;
- (d) a criminal offence or behaviour which is liable to lead to disciplinary proceedings and which in either case was aggravated by discriminatory behaviour on the grounds of a person's race, sex, religion, or other status identified in guidance by the Commission;
- (e) a relevant offence; or
- (f) conduct which is alleged to have taken place in the same incident as one in which conduct within sub-paragraphs (a) to (e) is alleged.

(3) In any case where there is no obligation under paragraph (1) to make a reference, the appropriate authority may refer a recordable conduct matter to the Commission if that authority considers that it would be appropriate to do so by reason of—

- (a) the gravity of the matter; or
- (b) any exceptional circumstances.

(4) In a case in which a reference under paragraphs (1) or (2) is neither made nor required to be made, the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office may refer any recordable conduct matter to the Commission if—

- (a) it is one in relation to which the Director General is the appropriate authority; and

- (b) the Permanent Secretary considers that it would be appropriate to do so by reason of—
 - (i) the gravity of the matter; or
 - (ii) any exceptional circumstances.
- (5) Where there is an obligation under this regulation to refer any matter to the Commission, it must be referred in such manner as the Commission specifies and—
 - (a) if the matter falls within paragraph (1)(a) or (b), without delay and in any event not later than the end of the day following the day on which it first becomes clear to the appropriate authority that the conduct matter is one to which that sub-paragraph applies; and
 - (b) if the matter falls within paragraph (1)(c), without delay and in any event not later than the end of the day following the day on which the Commission notifies the appropriate authority that the conduct matter is to be referred.
- (6) Subject to paragraph (8), the following powers—
 - (a) the power of the Commission by virtue of paragraph (1)(c) to require a matter to be referred to it; and
 - (b) the power of the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office and the Director General to refer any matter to the Commission under paragraph (3) or (4), shall each be exercisable at any time irrespective of whether the matter is already being investigated by any person or has already been considered by the Commission.

- (7) Where—
 - (a) the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or the Director General refers a matter to the Commission under this regulation; and
 - (b) the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or (as the case may be) the Director General does not consider that to do so might prejudice a possible future investigation of that matter, it shall give a notification of the making of the reference to the person to whose conduct that matter relates.

- (8) A matter that has already been referred to the Commission under this regulation on a previous occasion—
 - (a) shall not be required to be referred again under this regulation unless the Commission so directs; and
 - (b) shall not be referred in exercise of any power conferred by this regulation unless the Commission consents.

Duties of the Commission on references under regulation 28

33.—(1) It shall be the duty of the Commission, in the case of every recordable conduct matter referred to it by the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office and the Director General under regulation 32 (reference of conduct matters to the Commission), to determine whether or not it is necessary for the matter to be investigated.

(2) Where the Commission determines under this regulation that it is not necessary for a recordable conduct matter referred by the appropriate authority to be investigated, it may if it thinks fit refer the matter back to the appropriate authority to be dealt with by that authority in such manner (if any) as that authority may determine.

- (3) Where the commission—
 - (a) refers a matter back to the appropriate authority under this regulation; and

- (b) does not consider that to do so might prejudice a possible future investigation of that matter, the Commission shall give a notification of the making of the reference to the person to whose conduct that matter relates.

PART 5

Handling of Death and Serious Injury (DSI) Matters

Duty to record DSI matters

34.—(1) Where a DSI matter comes to the attention of the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or Director General who is the appropriate authority in relation to that matter, it shall be the duty of the appropriate authority to record that matter.

(2) If it appears to the Commission—

- (a) that any matter that has come to its attention is a DSI matter; but
- (b) that that matter has not been recorded by the appropriate authority, the Commission may direct the appropriate authority to record that matter and it shall be the duty of that authority to comply with the direction.

Duty to preserve evidence relating to DSI matters

35.—(1) Where—

- (a) a DSI matter comes to the attention of the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office, and
- (b) the relevant officer in relation to that matter is the Director General, it shall be the duty of the Permanent Secretary to secure that all such steps as are appropriate for the purposes of these Regulations are taken, both initially and from time to time, for obtaining and preserving evidence relating to that matter.

(2) Where—

- (a) the Director General becomes aware of a DSI matter; and
- (b) the relevant officer in relation to that matter is an NCA officer, it shall be the duty of the Director General to take all such steps as appear to be appropriate for the purposes of these Regulations for obtaining and preserving evidence relating to that matter.

(3) The Director General's duty under paragraph (2) must be performed as soon as practicable after the Director General becomes aware of the matter in question.

(4) After that, the Director General shall be under a duty, until the Director General is satisfied that it is no longer necessary to do so, to continue to take the steps from time to time as appear to be appropriate for the purposes of these Regulations for obtaining and preserving evidence relating to the matter.

(5) It shall be the duty of the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office to comply with all such directions as may be given by the Commission in relation to the performance of any duty imposed under paragraph (1).

(6) It shall be the duty of the Director General to take all such specific steps for obtaining or preserving evidence relating to any DSI matter as the Director General may be directed to take for the purposes of this regulation by the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or by the Commission.

Reference of DSI matters to the Commission

- 36.—(1) It shall be the duty of the appropriate authority to refer a DSI matter to the Commission.
- (2) A DSI matter shall be referred to the Commission in such manner as the Commission specifies and—
- (a) in a case where the Commission directs that the matter be referred to it, without delay and in any event not later than the end of the day following the day on which the Commission so directs;
 - (b) in any other case, without delay and in any event not later than the end of the day following the day on which the matter first comes to the attention of the appropriate authority.
- (3) A matter that has already been referred to the Commission under this regulation on a previous occasion shall not be required to be referred again under this regulation unless the Commission so directs.

Duties of Commission on references under regulation 36

- 37.—(1) It shall be the duty of the Commission, in the case of every DSI matter referred to it by the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office and the Director General, to determine whether or not it is necessary for the matter to be investigated.
- (2) Where the Commission determines under this regulation that it is not necessary for a DSI matter to be investigated, it may if it thinks fit refer the matter back to the appropriate authority to be dealt with by it in such manner (if any) as that authority may determine.

PART 6

Investigations and Subsequent Proceedings

Power of the Commission to determine the form of an investigation

- 38.—(1) This regulation applies where—
- (a) a complaint, recordable conduct matter or DSI matter is referred to the Commission; and
 - (b) the Commission determines that it is necessary for the complaint or matter to be investigated.
- (2) It shall be the duty of the Commission to determine the form which the investigation should take.
- (3) In making a determination under paragraph (2) the Commission shall have regard to the following factors—
- (a) the seriousness of the case; and
 - (b) the public interest.
- (4) The only forms which the investigation may take in accordance with a determination made under this regulation are an investigation by—
- (a) the appropriate authority on its own behalf;
 - (b) the appropriate authority under the supervision of the Commission;
 - (c) the appropriate authority under the management of the Commission;
 - (d) the Commission.
- (5) The Commission may at any time make a further determination under this regulation to replace an earlier one.

(6) Where a determination under this regulation replaces an earlier determination under this regulation, or relates to a complaint or matter in relation to which the appropriate authority has already begun an investigation on its own behalf, the Commission may give—

- (a) the appropriate authority; and
- (b) any person previously appointed to carry out the investigation, such directions as it considers appropriate for the purpose of giving effect to the new determination.

(7) It shall be the duty of a person to whom a direction is given under paragraph (6) to comply with it.

(8) The Commission shall notify the appropriate authority of any determination that it makes under this regulation in relation to a particular complaint, recordable conduct matter or DSI matter.

Appointment of persons to carry out investigations

39. No person shall be appointed to carry out an investigation under regulation 41, 42 or 43 (investigation by the appropriate authority on its own behalf, supervised and managed investigations)

- (a) unless that person has an appropriate level of knowledge, skills and experience to plan and manage the investigation;
- (b) if that person works, directly or indirectly, under the management of the person whose conduct is being investigated;
- (c) in a case where the person concerned is a senior officer, if that person is the Director General;
- (d) if that person's involvement in the role could reasonably give rise to a concern as to whether that person could act impartially under these Regulations.

Withdrawn complaints

40.—(1) If an appropriate authority receives from a complainant notification in writing signed by the complainant or by a solicitor or other authorised agent on the complainant's behalf to the effect either—

- (a) that the complainant withdraws the complaint; or
- (b) that the complainant does not wish any further steps to be taken in consequence of the complaint, then the appropriate authority shall forthwith record the withdrawal or the fact that the complainant does not wish any further steps to be taken, as the case may be, and subject to the following provisions of this regulation, these Regulations shall cease to apply in respect of that complaint.

(2) Where a complainant gives such notification as is mentioned in paragraph (1) to the Commission but, so far as is apparent to the Commission, has not sent that notification to the appropriate authority, then—

- (a) the Commission shall send a copy of the notification to the appropriate authority;
- (b) that appropriate authority shall record the withdrawal or the fact that the complainant does not wish any further steps to be taken, as the case may be; and
- (c) subject to the following provisions of this regulation, these Regulations shall cease to apply in respect of that complaint.

(3) Where a complainant gives such notification as is mentioned in paragraph (1) to an appropriate authority, or where the appropriate authority receives a copy of a notification under paragraph (2), and it relates to a complaint—

- (a) which was referred to the Commission under regulation 22 (reference of complaints to the Commission) and which has not been referred back to the appropriate authority under regulation 23 (duties of the Commission on references under regulation 22); or
- (b) which the appropriate authority knows is currently the subject of an appeal to the Commission under regulation 21(3), 25(15), 27(1), 64(19) or 71(2), then the appropriate authority shall notify the Commission that it has recorded the withdrawal of the complaint or the fact that the complainant does not wish any further steps to be taken, as the case may be.

(4) In a case falling within paragraph (3)(a), the Commission shall determine whether it is in the public interest for the complaint to be treated as a recordable conduct matter, and shall notify the appropriate authority of its decision.

(5) In a case falling within paragraph (3)(b), the appropriate authority shall—

- (a) determine whether it is in the public interest for the complaint to be treated as a recordable conduct matter; and
- (b) notify the Commission of its determination and the reasons for that determination.

(6) Where a determination is made that a complaint is to be treated as a recordable conduct matter, then the provisions of these Regulations shall apply to that matter.

(7) Where a complainant gives such notification as is mentioned in paragraph (1) to an appropriate authority, or where the appropriate authority receives a copy of a notification under paragraph (2), and that notification relates to a complaint which does not fall within paragraph (3), then—

- (a) the appropriate authority shall determine whether it is in the public interest for the complaint to be treated as a recordable conduct matter;
- (b) if the complaint is to be treated as a recordable conduct matter, the provisions of these Regulations shall apply to that matter;
- (c) if the complaint is not to be treated as a recordable conduct matter, the provisions of these Regulations shall cease to apply in respect of that complaint.

(8) In a case where—

- (a) a complaint has been subjected to an investigation by the appropriate authority on its own behalf;
- (b) the complaint is currently subject to an appeal to the Commission under regulation 71; and
- (c) the appropriate authority has notified the Commission under paragraph (5)(b) that it has determined that the complaint is not to be treated as a recordable conduct matter, the Commission shall consider whether it is in the public interest for that determination to be reversed, and if so it shall instruct the appropriate authority to reverse the decision.

(9) Where a complainant indicates a wish to withdraw the complaint or the wish that no further steps are to be taken in consequence of the complaint, but the complainant fails to provide a notification to that effect in writing signed by or on behalf of the complainant, then—

- (a) in the case of an indication received by the appropriate authority, the authority shall take the steps set out in paragraph (10);
- (b) in the case of an indication received by the Commission, the Commission shall refer the matter to the appropriate authority which shall take the steps set out in paragraph (10).

(10) Those steps are—

- (a) the appropriate authority shall write to the complainant to ascertain whether the complainant wishes to withdraw the complaint or does not wish any further steps to be taken in consequence of the complaint;

- (b) if the complainant indicates the wish to withdraw the complaint or does not wish any further steps to be taken in consequence of the complaint, or if the complainant fails to reply within a period of 28 days commencing on the day after the date of the written communication under sub-paragraph (a), the appropriate authority shall treat the indication as though it had been received in writing signed by the complainant;
 - (c) if the complainant indicates the wish not to withdraw the complaint, or the wish for further steps to be taken in consequence of the complaint, the appropriate authority shall start or resume the investigation as the case may be.
- (11) Subject to paragraph (12), the appropriate authority shall notify the person complained against if—
- (a) it records the withdrawal of a complaint or the fact that the complainant does not wish any further steps to be taken;
 - (b) it determines that a complaint shall be treated as a recordable conduct matter;
 - (c) the Commission determines that a complaint shall be treated as a recordable conduct matter;
 - (d) the Commission instructs it to reverse a decision not to treat a complaint as a recordable conduct matter;
 - (e) the provisions of these Regulations cease to apply in respect of a complaint.
- (12) Nothing in paragraph (11) shall require the appropriate authority to make a notification if it has previously decided under regulation 19 (copies of complaints etc.) not to notify the person complained against of the complaint because it is of the opinion that that might prejudice any criminal investigation or pending proceedings or would be contrary to the public interest.

Investigations by the appropriate authority on its own behalf

- 41.—(1) This regulation applies if the appropriate authority is required by virtue of—
- (a) any determination made by that authority under regulation 24(3) (whether following the recording of a complaint or on a reference back under regulation 23(2)) or under regulation 26(9); or
 - (b) any determination made by the Commission under regulation 38 (power of the Commission to determine the form of an investigation),
- to make arrangements for a complaint, recordable conduct matter or DSI matter to be investigated by the appropriate authority on its own behalf.
- (2) This regulation also applies if—
- (a) a determination falls to be made by that authority under regulation 28(8), 29(9) or 33(2) in relation to any recordable conduct matter or under regulation 37(2) in relation to any DSI matter; and
 - (b) the appropriate authority determines that it is necessary for the matter to be investigated by the authority on its own behalf.
- (3) Subject to paragraph (4), it shall be the duty of the appropriate authority to appoint—
- (a) an NCA officer; or
 - (b) a person serving with the police,
- to investigate the complaint or matter.
- (4) The person appointed under this regulation to investigate any complaint or matter—
- (a) in the case of an investigation relating to any conduct of the Director General; or
 - (b) in relation to which the relevant officer is the Director General,

must not be an NCA officer.

Investigations supervised by the Commission

42.—(1) This regulation applies where the Commission has determined that it should supervise the investigation by the appropriate authority of any complaint or recordable conduct matter or DSI matter.

(2) On being given notice of that determination, the appropriate authority shall, if it has not already done so, appoint—

- (a) an NCA officer; or
- (b) a person serving with the police,

to investigate the complaint or matter.

(3) The Commission may require that no appointment is made under paragraph (2) unless it has given notice to the appropriate authority that it approves the person whom that authority proposes to appoint.

(4) Where a person has already been appointed to investigate the complaint or matter, or is selected under this paragraph for appointment, and the Commission is not satisfied with that person, the Commission may require the appropriate authority, as soon as reasonably practicable after being required to do so—

- (a) to select another person falling within paragraph (2) to investigate the complaint or matter; and
- (b) to notify the Commission of the person selected.

(5) Where a selection made in pursuance of a requirement under paragraph (4) has been notified to the Commission, the appropriate authority shall appoint that person to investigate the complaint or matter if, but only if, the Commission notifies the authority that it approves the appointment of that person.

(6) The person appointed under this regulation to investigate any complaint or matter—

- (a) in the case of an investigation relating to any conduct of the Director General; or
- (b) in relation to which the relevant officer is the Director General,

must not be an NCA officer.

(7) Subject to paragraphs (8) and (9), the person appointed to investigate the complaint or matter shall comply with any reasonable requirements as to the conduct of the investigation which may be imposed by the Commission as appear to it to be necessary.

(8) Where at any stage of an investigation of a complaint, recordable conduct matter or DSI matter the possibility of criminal proceedings arises, the Commission shall not, under paragraph (7), impose any requirement relating to the obtaining or preservation of evidence of a criminal offence without first obtaining the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

(9) The Commission shall not, under paragraph (7), impose any requirement relating to the resources to be made available by the Director General for the purposes of an investigation without first consulting the Director General and having regard to any representations the Director General may make.

Investigations managed by the Commission

43.—(1) This regulation applies where the Commission has determined that it should manage the investigation by the appropriate authority of any complaint, recordable conduct matter or DSI matter.

(2) Paragraphs (2) to (6) of regulation 42 (investigations supervised by the Commission) shall apply as they apply in the case of an investigation which the Commission has determined is one that it should supervise.

(3) The person appointed to investigate the complaint or matter shall, in relation to that investigation, be under the direction and control of the Commission.

Investigations by the Commission itself

44.—(1) This regulation applies where the Commission has determined that it should itself carry out the investigation of a complaint or recordable conduct matter or DSI matter.

(2) The Commission shall designate both—

- (a) a member of the Commission’s staff to take charge of the investigation on behalf of the Commission; and
- (b) all such other members of the Commission’s staff as are required by the Commission to assist that member.

(3) A member of the Commission’s staff who—

- (a) is designated under paragraph (2) in relation to any investigation; but
- (b) does not already, by virtue of section 97(8) (police officers engaged on service outside their force) of the Police Act 1996⁽¹⁰⁾ have all the powers and privileges of a constable throughout England and Wales and the adjacent United Kingdom waters, shall for the purposes of the carrying out of the investigation and all purposes connected with it, have all those powers and privileges throughout England and Wales and those waters.

(4) A member of the Commission’s staff who is not a constable shall not, as a result of paragraph (3), be treated as being in police service for the purposes of—

- (a) section 280 (police service) of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992⁽¹¹⁾; or
- (b) section 200 (police officers) of the Employment Rights Act 1996⁽¹²⁾.

(5) References in this regulation to the powers and privileges of a constable—

- (a) are references to any power or privilege conferred by or under any enactment (including one passed after the making of these Regulations) on a constable; and
- (b) shall have effect as if every such power were exercisable, and every such privilege existed, throughout England and Wales and the adjacent United Kingdom waters (whether or not that is the case apart from this paragraph).

(6) In this regulation “United Kingdom waters” means the sea and other waters within the seaward limits of the United Kingdom’s territorial sea.

Combining and splitting investigations

45.—(1) An appropriate authority which is carrying out an investigation on its own behalf may—

- (a) combine that investigation with another such investigation; or
- (b) split that investigation into two or more such separate investigations,

if it considers that it is more efficient and effective, or is otherwise in the public interest, to do so.

⁽¹⁰⁾ 1996 c.16.

⁽¹¹⁾ 1992 c.52.

⁽¹²⁾ 1996 c.18.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), where the Commission is supervising, managing or carrying out an investigation, it may—

if it considers that it is more efficient and effective, or is otherwise in the public interest, to do so.

(3) The Commission shall not take any action under paragraph (2) in relation to a supervised or managed investigation except after consultation with the appropriate authority.

(4) Nothing in this regulation shall prevent the Commission from determining that—

- (a) where an investigation is split into two or more separate investigations, those investigations may take different forms;
- (b) two or more separate investigations which take different forms (including an investigation being carried out by the appropriate authority on its own behalf) may be combined into a single investigation.

Relinquishing the Commission’s supervision or management of an investigation

46.—(1) This regulation applies where the Commission relinquishes—

- (a) the management of an investigation in favour of a supervised investigation or an investigation by the appropriate authority on its own behalf; or
- (b) the supervision of an investigation in favour of an investigation by the appropriate authority on its own behalf.

(2) Where this regulation applies, and subject to paragraph (3), the Commission shall—

- (a) notify the appropriate authority, the complainant, any interested person within the meaning of regulation 14 (duty to provide information for other persons) and the person complained against of its decision, and the reasons for that decision; and
- (b) send to the appropriate authority any documentation and evidence gathered during its investigations as will assist the appropriate authority to carry out its functions under these Regulations.

(3) Nothing in paragraph (2)(a) shall require the Commission to make a notification to the person complained against if it is of the opinion that that might prejudice any criminal investigation or pending proceedings or would be contrary to the public interest.

Circumstances in which an investigation or other procedure may be suspended

47.—(1) The Commission may suspend any investigation or other procedure under these Regulations which would, if it were to continue, prejudice any criminal investigation or proceedings.

(2) An appropriate authority may, subject to paragraph (3), suspend any investigation or other procedure under these Regulations which would, if it were to continue, prejudice any criminal investigation or proceedings.

(3) The Commission may direct that any investigation or other procedure under these Regulations which is liable to be suspended under paragraph (2) shall continue if it is of the view that it is in the public interest to make such a direction.

(4) The Commission shall consult the appropriate authority before making such a direction.

Resumption of investigation after criminal proceedings

48.—(1) Where the whole or part of the investigation of a complaint has been suspended until the conclusion of criminal proceedings, and the complainant has failed to indicate after the conclusion of those proceedings that the complainant wishes the investigation to start or be resumed, the Commission or, as the case may be, appropriate authority shall take the steps set out in paragraph (2).

(2) The Commission or appropriate authority shall take all reasonable steps to contact the complainant to ascertain whether the complainant wants the investigation to start or be resumed as the case may be.

(3) If the complainant indicates the wish for the investigation to start or be resumed, the Commission or appropriate authority shall start or resume the investigation as the case may be.

(4) If the complainant indicates that the complainant does not want the investigation to start or be resumed, or if the complainant fails to reply within a period of 28 days commencing on the day after the date of a letter sent to the complainant by the Commission or appropriate authority, the Commission or appropriate authority as the case may be shall determine whether it is in the public interest for the complaint to be treated as a recordable conduct matter.

(5) If the Commission or appropriate authority determines that it is not in the public interest for the complaint to be treated as a recordable conduct matter, the provisions of these Regulations shall cease to apply to the complaint.

(6) If the Commission or appropriate authority determines that it is in the public interest for the complaint to be treated as a recordable conduct matter, the provisions of these Regulations shall apply to the matter.

(7) Subject to paragraph (8), the Commission or appropriate authority shall notify the person complained against if paragraph (5) or (6) applies.

(8) Nothing in paragraph (7) shall require the Commission or appropriate authority to make a notification if it is of the opinion that that might prejudice any criminal investigation or pending proceedings or would be contrary to the public interest.

Special procedure: assessment of seriousness of conduct under investigation

49.—(1) If, during the course of an investigation of a complaint, it appears to the person investigating that there is an indication that a person to whose conduct the investigation relates may have—

- (a) committed a criminal offence; or
- (b) behaved in a manner which would justify the bringing of disciplinary proceedings, the person investigating must certify the investigation as one subject to special requirements.

(2) If the person investigating a complaint certifies the investigation as one subject to special requirements, the person must, as soon as is reasonably practicable after doing so, make a severity assessment in relation to the conduct of the person concerned to which the investigation relates.

(3) The person investigating a recordable conduct matter must make a severity assessment in relation to the conduct to which the investigation relates—

- (a) as soon as is reasonably practicable after that person's appointment or designation; or
- (b) in the case of a matter recorded in accordance with regulations 65(5) or 70(2), as soon as is reasonably practicable after it is so recorded.

(4) For the purposes of this regulation a "severity assessment", in relation to conduct, means an assessment as to whether the conduct, if proved, would amount to misconduct or gross misconduct.

(5) An assessment under this regulation may only be made after consultation with the appropriate authority.

(6) On completing an assessment under this regulation, the person investigating the complaint or matter must give a notification to the person concerned that complies with paragraph (7).

(7) The notification must be in writing and state—

- (a) the conduct that is the subject matter of the allegation and how that conduct is alleged to fall below the NCA standards;
- (b) that there is to be an investigation into the matter and the identity of the investigator;
- (c) the investigator's assessment of whether that conduct, if proved, would amount to misconduct or gross misconduct;
- (d) that the person concerned has the right to seek advice from the Trade Union or any other body representing the interests of the person concerned and of the effect of regulation 53(1) to (3); and
- (e) the effect of paragraph (8) and regulation 50 (duty to consider submissions from person whose conduct is being investigated).

(8) The person concerned or NCA friend shall have such a period as determined by the NCA, starting with the day after which the notice is given under paragraph (7) (unless this period is extended by the investigator) to provide any relevant statement or relevant document as the case may be.

(9) Paragraph (6) does not apply for so long as the person investigating the complaint or matter considers that giving the notification might prejudice—

- (a) the investigation; or
- (b) any other investigation (including, in particular, a criminal investigation).

(10) Where the person investigating a complaint or matter has made a severity assessment and considers it appropriate to do so, the person may revise the assessment.

(11) On revising a severity assessment, the person investigating the complaint or matter must, as soon as practicable, give the person concerned further written notice of the assessment of whether the conduct, if proved, would amount to misconduct or gross misconduct as the case may be and the reason for that assessment.

(12) The notice whether given in accordance with paragraph (6) or (11) shall be—

- (a) given to the person concerned in person;
- (b) left with some person at, or sent by recorded delivery to, the last known address of the person concerned; or
- (c) given to him in person by that person's NCA friend where the NCA friend has agreed with the appropriate authority to deliver the notice.

(13) In this regulation and regulations 50 to 53—

“the person concerned” means—

- (3) Where no date and time is agreed under paragraph (1), the investigator shall specify a date and time for the interview.
- (4) Where a date and time is specified under paragraph (2) and—

- (9) An NCA friend may not answer any questions asked of the person concerned during the interview.

Duty to provide certain information to appropriate authority

- 52.—(1) This paragraph applies during the course of an investigation to which regulation 50(1) (a) or (b) applies.
- (2) The person investigating the complaint or matter must supply the appropriate authority with such information in that person’s possession as the authority may reasonably request for the purpose mentioned in paragraph (3).
- (3) That purpose is determining whether—
- (a) the person concerned should be, or should remain, suspended from that person’s appointment as an NCA officer; or
 - (b) in relation to a person who has been seconded to the NCA to serve as an NCA officer, the secondment of the person concerned should cease to have effect, or continue to cease to have effect.

(4) Where no date and time is agreed under paragraph (3), the relevant investigator shall specify a date and time for the interview.

(5) Where a date and time is specified under paragraph (4) and—

(13) Nothing in this regulation prevents or restricts the holding of interviews to which this regulation does not apply during the course of any investigation under these Regulations.

(14) In this regulation—

“accompanying person” means any person nominated by the NCA officer and who is not otherwise involved in the matter;

“relevant indication” means an indication that a person to whose conduct the investigation relates may have—

(b) behaved in a manner which would justify the bringing of disciplinary proceedings;

“relevant investigator” means a person appointed or designated to investigate under regulations 43 or 44.

Restrictions on proceedings pending the conclusion of an investigation

55.—(1) No criminal or disciplinary proceedings shall be brought in relation to any matter which is the subject of an investigation in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations until—

(a) the appropriate authority has certified the case as a special case under regulation 57(3) or 60(3); or

(b) a report on that investigation has been submitted to the Commission or to the appropriate authority under regulation 66 or 69.

(2) Nothing in this regulation shall prevent the bringing of criminal or disciplinary proceedings in respect of any conduct at any time after the discontinuance of the investigation in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations which relate to that conduct.

(3) The restrictions imposed by this regulation in relation to the bringing of criminal proceedings shall not apply to the bringing of criminal proceedings by the Director of Public Prosecutions in any case in which it appears to him that there are exceptional circumstances which make it undesirable to delay the bringing of such proceedings.

Accelerated procedure in special cases

56.—(1) If, at any time before the completion of the investigation, the person investigating a complaint or recordable conduct matter believes that the appropriate authority would, on consideration of the matter, be likely to consider that the special conditions are satisfied, the person shall proceed in accordance with the following provisions of this paragraph.

(2) If the person was appointed under regulation 41, the person shall submit to the appropriate authority—

- (a) a statement of that person’s belief and the grounds for it; and
- (b) a written report on the investigation to that point, and if the person was appointed following a determination made by the Commission under regulation 38 he shall send a copy of the statement and the report to the Commission.

(5) A statement and report may be submitted under this regulation whether or not a previous statement and report have been submitted, but a second or subsequent statement and report may be submitted only if the person submitting them has grounds to believe that the appropriate authority will reach a different determination under regulation 57(2) or 60(2).

(6) After submitting a report under this regulation, the person investigating the complaint or recordable conduct matter shall continue his investigation to such extent as that person considers appropriate.

(7) The special conditions are that—

(8) In regulations 57 to 62 “special report” means a report submitted under this regulation.

- it shall submit to the Commission a memorandum under this paragraph.
- (6) The memorandum required to be submitted under paragraph (5) is one which—
- (a) notifies the Commission of its determination that those conditions are not satisfied or (as the case may be) that they are so satisfied but the circumstances are such as to make it inappropriate at present to bring disciplinary proceedings; and

- (7) In this regulation “special conditions” has the meaning given by regulation 56(7).

(4) Except so far as may be otherwise prohibited by regulation 16, the Commission shall be entitled (notwithstanding any obligation of secrecy imposed by any rule of law or otherwise) to discharge the duty to give a person mentioned in paragraph (1) notification of the findings of the special report by sending that person a copy of that report.

59.—(1) On receipt of a memorandum under regulation 57(5), the Commission shall—

(2) If the Commission determines not to make a recommendation under regulation 62, it shall notify the appropriate authority and the person investigating the complaint or matter of its determination.

are submitted to the appropriate authority under regulation 56(2) or (3).

- (a) certify the case as a special case for the purposes of procedures for the taking of disciplinary proceedings in respect of the conduct of the Director General or an NCA officer; and
- (b) take such steps as are required by those procedures in relation to a case so certified.

(4) Where the statement and report were required under regulation 56(2) to be copied to the Commission, the appropriate authority shall notify the Commission of a certification under paragraph (3).

(5) If the appropriate authority determines—

- (b) that, although those conditions are satisfied, the circumstances are such as to make it inappropriate at present to bring disciplinary proceedings, it shall notify the person investigating the complaint or matter of its determination.

(6) In this regulation “special conditions” has the meaning given by regulation 56(7).

61.—(1) If the appropriate authority certifies a case under regulation 60(3), it shall give a notification—

- (a) in the case of a complaint, to the complainant and to every person entitled to be kept properly informed in relation to the complaint under regulation 14; and
- (b) in the case of a recordable conduct matter, to every person entitled to be kept properly informed in relation to that matter under that regulation.

(5) Except so far as may be otherwise prohibited by regulation 16, the Commission shall be entitled (notwithstanding any obligation of secrecy imposed by any rule of law or otherwise) to discharge the duty to give a person mentioned in paragraph (2) notification of the findings of the special report by sending that person a copy of the report.

(6) It shall be the duty of the appropriate authority to notify the Commission whether it accepts the recommendation and (if it does) to certify the case and proceed accordingly.

 - (b) behaved in a manner which would justify the bringing of disciplinary proceedings,
- the appointed or designated person shall make a submission to that effect to the Commission.

(2) If, after considering a submission under paragraph (1), the Commission determines that there is such an indication, it shall—

- (a) notify the appropriate authority in relation to the DSI matter and (if different) the appropriate authority in relation to the person whose conduct is in question of its determination; and it shall make such recommendations or give such advice under regulation 6(1)(e) (general functions of the Commission) as it considers necessary or desirable.

- (a) to the complainant;
 - (b) to every person entitled to be kept properly informed in relation to the complaint under regulation 14 (duty to provide information for other persons); and

 - (b) to the complainant;
 - (c) to every person entitled to be kept properly informed in relation to the complaint under regulation 14 (duty to provide information for other persons); and

- (6) The Commission shall also give notification of any directions given to the person investigating under this regulation—
- (a) to the complainant;

- (b) to every person entitled to be kept properly informed in relation to the complaint under regulation 14 (duty to provide information for other persons); and

Duties with respect to disciplinary proceedings

73.—(1) This regulation applies where, in the case of any investigation, the appropriate authority—

- (a) has given, or is required to give, a notification under regulation 68(12) (action by the appropriate authority in response to an investigation report under regulation 66) of the action it is required to or will, in its discretion, take in relation to the matters dealt with in any report of the investigation; or

and it shall be the duty of the appropriate authority to notify the Commission whether it accepts the recommendation and (if it does) to set out in the notification the steps that it is proposing to take to give effect to it.

(7) Where disciplinary proceedings or unsatisfactory performance proceedings have been brought in accordance with a recommendation or direction under this regulation, it shall be the duty of the authority to ensure that they are proceeded with to a proper conclusion.

Where a complaint or conduct matter relates to the conduct of a person who has ceased to be the Director General or an NCA officer since the time of the conduct, then these Regulations shall apply in relation to such a person as if they did not include any requirement for an appropriate authority to determine whether disciplinary proceedings should be brought against a person whose conduct is the subject-matter of a report.

Complaints or conduct matters concerning a person whose identity is unascertained

76.—(1) Where a complaint or conduct matter relates to the conduct of a person whose identity is unascertained at the time at which the complaint is made or the conduct matter is recorded, or whose identity is not ascertained during or subsequent to, the investigation of the complaint or recordable conduct matter, then these Regulations shall apply in relation to such a person as if it did not include—

- (a) any requirement for the person complained against to be given a notification or an opportunity to make representations;
- (b) any requirement for the Commission or the appropriate authority to determine whether a criminal offence may have been committed by the person whose conduct has been the subject-matter of an investigation, or to take any action in relation to such a determination;

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of these Regulations)

These Regulations provide for the basis on which the Independent Police Complaints Commission has oversight of complaints and other matters relating to the conduct of a National Crime Agency officer (“NCA officer”), including the Director General of the National Crime Agency.

The statutory framework in accordance with which the Commission has oversight of police conduct is set out in Part 2 of, and Schedule 3 to, the Police Reform Act 2002 (“the 2002 Act”). The Commission was established by the 2002 Act to provide an effective and independent means of overseeing the investigation of complaints and alleged misconduct relating to the actions of the police. These Regulations are made under section 26C of the 2002 Act and make provision which broadly reflects existing arrangements in accordance with which the Commission has oversight of the police, but with modifications in parts where it is necessary to reflect differences between the NCA and the police.

Part 1 contains introductory provision and an interpretation provision (regulation 2); this includes a definition of the appropriate authority, which performs a number of investigative functions under the framework established by these Regulations. The appropriate authority is ordinarily the Permanent Secretary to the Home Office or the Director General of the National Crime Agency; their respective role is determined by the nature of the complaint or other matter which is being investigated.

Part 2 contains provision which sets out the broad basis on which the Commission has oversight of complaints and misconduct relating to the NCA. It makes provision to apply specific sections of Part 2 of the 2002 Act with modifications (regulation 5), and sets out the general functions of the Commission and the reporting requirements which apply to it (regulations 6 and 7). Regulation 8 defines the matters which may be the subject of an investigation under these Regulations (a complaint, conduct matter or death or serious injury (or DSI) matter). Regulations 9 to 12 set out the general duties of the appropriate authority, payment for assistance (e.g. in a case where the police assists with an investigation), the provision of information by the NCA to the Commission and requirements in relation to onward disclosure of such information and the inspection of NCA premises by the Commission.

Regulations 13 to 16 make provision for keeping complainants and other interested persons informed about investigations, and includes provision about the manner in which these requirements are fulfilled and exceptions to them.

Part 3 contains provision about the handling of complaints. It imposes duties to preserve evidence (regulation 17), handling and recording of complaints (regulations 18 to 21), the cases in which complaints are referred to the Commission (regulations 22 and 23) and the handling of complaints by the appropriate authority (regulations 24 to 26). There are prescribed appeal rights in certain cases (Regulation 27).

Part 4 contains provision about the handling of conduct matters. It imposes duties in relation to the identification and recording of conduct matters (regulations 28 to 30), preservation of evidence (regulation 31) and the cases in which conduct matters are referred to the Commission (regulations 32 and 33).

Part 5 contains provision about the handling of DSI matters. It imposes duties to record DSI matters and preserve evidence (regulations 34 and 35) and the reference of DSI matters to the Commission and its corresponding duties on a referral to it (regulations 36 and 37).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Part 6 contains provision governing the basis on which the Commission determines the form of an investigation in a matter referred to it (regulation 38), ranging from investigations carried out by the appropriate authority on its own behalf (regulation 41) or supervised or managed by the Commission (regulations 42 or 43) to investigations carried out by the Commission itself (regulation 44). There is also provision governing the appointment of investigators (regulation 39) the processes which apply in specific cases (e.g. withdrawn complaints or the resumption of an investigation following the conclusion of relevant criminal proceedings (regulations 40 and 45 to 48).

Part 6 also contains provision governing a special procedure which applies in a case in which a conduct matter is revealed during the course of the investigation of a complaint (regulations 49 to 53), the Commission's powers to interview witnesses (regulation 54), restrictions on certain proceedings during an investigation (regulation 55) and an accelerated procedure in cases where gross misconduct is identified during an investigation into a complaint or conduct matter (regulations 56 to 63). This Part also contains provision governing the discontinuance of an investigation (regulation 64) and the procedure in cases where a conduct matter is revealed during an investigation into a DSI matter (regulation 65).

Part 7 sets out the basis governing the submission of investigation reports, the actions which the Commission or the appropriate authority are required to take, the prescribed appeal rights in relation to an investigation and the availability of a review or reinvestigation following an appeal (regulations 66 to 72). Regulation 73 sets out the duties on the appropriate authority with respect to disciplinary proceedings (e.g. following a recommendations made by the Commission) and the information which is required to be provided to complainants about such proceedings (regulation 74).

Part 8 contains provision about a number of general matters including appeal processes and which person may hear an appeal (regulations 82 and 83).
