EXITING THE EUROPEAN UNION
BROADCASTING

The Broadcasting (Amendment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019

Made - - - - 12th February 2019

Coming into force in accordance with regulation 1

The Secretary of State makes these Regulations in exercise of the powers conferred by section 23 of the Communications Act 2003^(a) and section 8(1) of, and paragraph 21(b) of Schedule 7 to, the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018^(b).

In accordance with paragraph 1(1) of Schedule 7 to the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018^(c), a draft of this instrument has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

Citation and commencement

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Broadcasting (Amendment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019.

(2) These Regulations come into force on exit day.

Interpretation

2.—(1) In these Regulations—

“CTT State” means a State which is for the time being a party to the European Convention on Transfrontier Television;

“the European Convention on Transfrontier Television” means the Council of Europe Convention on Transfrontier Television which was opened for signature at Strasbourg on 5th May 1989, as amended by the Protocol which was opened for signature at Strasbourg on 1st October 1998.

(2) In these Regulations, expressions that are also used in section 211 of the Communications Act 2003^(d) (as amended by Schedule 1) have the same meanings as in that section.

(a) 2003 c. 21.

(b) 2018 c. 16.

(c) By virtue of paragraph 38(2) of Schedule 7, a statutory instrument containing regulations under the Act that require approval in draft may also include regulations under another Act that would otherwise be subject to annulment.

(d) Section 211 was amended by S.I. 2009/2979.

Amendments of primary legislation

3. Schedule 1 contains amendments of primary legislation.

Amendments of subordinate legislation

4. Schedule 2 contains amendments of subordinate legislation.

Transitional provision relating to EEA broadcasters

5.—(1) This regulation applies to a television licensable content service, digital television programme service or digital additional television service which—

- (a) began to be provided before exit day, and
- (b) is provided by a person who—
 - (i) immediately before exit day was for the purposes of the Audiovisual Media Services Directive under the jurisdiction of an EEA State other than the United Kingdom, and
 - (ii) on and after exit day is not for the purposes of the European Convention on Transfrontier Television under the jurisdiction of the United Kingdom, or any other CTT State.

(2) During the 6 months beginning with the day on which exit day falls, the service is to be taken for the purposes of section 211 of the Communications Act 2003 (as amended by Schedule 1) to be an exempt foreign service, whether or not it would be so taken apart from this regulation.

(3) In this regulation, “Audiovisual Media Services Directive” has the meaning given by section 405(1) of the Communications Act 2003(a).

Saving for existing licences

6. Nothing in these Regulations affects the validity of licences to provide television licensable content services, digital television programme services or digital additional television services that are in force immediately before exit day.

Direction under section 23 of Communications Act 2003

7.—(1) This regulation applies to the exercise by OFCOM of a function under the enactments relating to broadcasting so far as the obligations of the United Kingdom under the European Convention on Transfrontier Television are relevant to that function.

(2) In considering for the purposes of Article 3 of the European Convention on Transfrontier Television (field of application), whether a television satellite service provided by a person who is within the jurisdiction of one CTT State can be received, directly or indirectly, in another CTT State (“the relevant State”), OFCOM must treat the service as one that can be so received if, but only if, the service—

- (a) can be received by the general public in all parts of the relevant State using standard consumer equipment, and
- (b) can be accessed in the relevant State by means of an electronic programme guide which—
 - (i) is licensed or otherwise regulated under the law of the relevant State, or
 - (ii) if the relevant State is a State other than the United Kingdom whose law does not regulate the provision of electronic programme guides, is provided by a person whose head office is in the relevant State.

(3) In this regulation—

(a) This definition was inserted by S.I. 2010/1883.

“electronic programme guide” has the meaning given by section 310(8) of the Communications Act 2003;

“television satellite service” means a service which consists of or involves the broadcasting of television programme services from a satellite.

Signed by authority of the Secretary of State for Digital, Culture, Media and Sport

- (b) “regulated electronic programme guide” has the meaning given by section 211A, and
- (c) “exempt foreign service” has the meaning given by section 211B.”.

21. After section 211 insert—

“Regulated electronic programme guides

211A.—(1) This section has effect for the interpretation of section 211.

(2) “Regulated electronic programme guide” means an electronic programme guide which—

- (a) is provided, under a licence to provide television licensable content services or digital additional television services, by a person who was providing an electronic programme guide under that licence immediately before exit day,
- (b) is provided by a person designated by the Secretary of State by regulations or by a person having a prescribed connection with a person so designated, or

- (c) falls within a prescribed description.
- (3) In subsection (2) “prescribed” means prescribed by the regulations.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (2)(b) may only designate a person who, at the time when the regulations are made—
 - (a) is providing an electronic programme guide that is used by members of the public in the United Kingdom as a facility for obtaining access to television programme services, or
 - (b) is providing, or has informed OFCOM of an intention to provide, an electronic programme guide with a view to its use by members of the public in the United Kingdom as such a facility.
- (5) The electronic programme guides that are to be taken for the purposes of this section to be used by members of the public include any electronic programme guide that—
 - (a) is used, or available for use, only by persons who subscribe to the service (whether for a period or in relation to a particular occasion) or who otherwise request its provision, but
 - (b) is a service the facility of subscribing to which, or of otherwise requesting its provision, is offered or made available to members of the public.
- (6) Before making regulations under subsection (2), the Secretary of State must consult OFCOM.
- (7) In this section “electronic programme guide” has the meaning given by section 310(8).

Exempt foreign services

- 211B.—(1) In section 211 “exempt foreign service” means—
- (a) a service provided by a person who is for the purposes of the European Convention on Transfrontier Television within the jurisdiction of a CTT State other than the United Kingdom, or

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations, except regulation 7, are made in exercise of the powers in section 8 of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (c. 16) in order to address failures of retained EU law to operate effectively and other deficiencies (in particular, deficiencies falling within subsection (2)(a), (c), (d), (f) or (g) of section 8) arising from the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union.

These Regulations make amendments to legislation relating to broadcasting. Schedule 1 amends primary legislation and Schedule 2 amends subordinate legislation.

Regulation 7 contains a direction to the Office of Communications (Ofcom) under section 23 of the Communications Act 2003 in relation to the interpretation of Article 3 of the Council of Europe Convention on Transfrontier Television.

A full impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private or voluntary sector is foreseen.
