Call for Nominations:

The Ramanujan Prize for Young Mathematicians from Developing Countries

Dear colleagues,

I would like to draw your attention to the Call for Nominations for the Ramanujan Prize. The Ramanujan Prize has been awarded annually since 2005. The 2013 Prize will be jointly funded and administered by ICTP and the IMU.

The Ramanujan Prize is usually awarded to one person, but may be shared equally among recipients who have contributed to the same body of work. Eligible for the prize is a person who has conducted outstanding work in a developing country, he/she must be less than 45 years of age on 31 December of the year of the award. For the details of the nomination please see the attached call paper.

February 1, 2013 is the deadline for nominations.

Nominations are to be sent to math@ictp.it. Please advertise this call for nominations for the Ramanujan Prize in your mathematical communities.

Attached is a PDF file containing the official text of the call for nominations. The call can also be found at http://www.ictp.it/about-ictp/media-centre/news/call-for-nominations.aspx.

With best wishes

Martin Grötschel
