3. About Copying Service and Copyright

Copyright

- Generally, permission of the copyright holder is required.
  - An exception is granted to libraries.
- Term of protection of copyrights
  - Ordinarily, 50 years following the death of the author.
  - If the copyright holder is an organization, 50 years following the publication of the work.

Limits on copying materials

- "a part of a work"
  - In general, this means no more than 50 percent.
- serial publications
  - Articles may be copied in their entirety, except for the most current issue of a magazine or newspaper.
  - The last issue of a serial publication can't be copied generally.
- "Information about Copyright (Japanese only)" http://www.ndl.go.jp/jp/service/copy/copyright.html

FAQ

• Rather than by mail, I would like copied material sent to me via email as a PDF. Or can you send it to me via fax?

 Can you seek permission from copyright owners on behalf of me?

4. For Japanese Studies on the NDL website

NDL is ready to support you!

- "For Japanese Studies"
   http://www.ndl.go.jp/en/japanesestudies/index.html
