

These Special Terms and Conditions, together with the General Terms and Conditions, apply to the Assignment (as defined below) to be conducted by RISE Research Institutes of Sweden AB ("RISE") on behalf of the Customer ("Customer") as per the quotation applicable to the Assignment, with the parties referred to individually as "Party" and jointly as "Parties".

Special Terms and Conditions - Accredited Assignments -

1 Applicable terms and conditions

These Special Terms and Conditions consist of amendments and addenda to the General Terms and Conditions and apply to the Assignment as per the quotation.

2 Amendments and addenda to the terms and conditions

• Instead of Clause 1.1 of the General Terms and Conditions, the following shall apply:

RISE shall conduct the Assignment ("Assignment") specified in the relevant quotation in accordance with current laws, government regulations, the terms and conditions of the quotation, these Special Terms and Conditions and the General Terms and Conditions. In the event of any conflict between the documents, they shall apply in the above order. The Customer is obligated to allow assessment teams from accreditation bodies to witness RISE's work at the Customer. RISE undertakes to inform the Customer in advance of any accreditation body's plans to assess and witness RISE's work.

• A new clause, 3.3, shall be added as per the following: RISE shall keep copies of all reports and other relevant documents prepared during the Assignment and sent to the Customer for a period of ten (10) years from the completion of the Assignment, unless otherwise agreed with the Customer.

• A new clause, 7.3, shall be added as per the following: RISE shall not disclose Confidential Information to any third party, with the exception of Confidential Information that: a) the Customer has confirmed in writing may be disclosed; or

b) shall be disclosed in accordance with mandatory law, government regulations or contractual terms and conditions, provided that RISE, unless in conflict with the law, informs the Customer in advance of the disclosure.
