TUESDAY, 6 AUGUST, 1918.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of August, 1918.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the twenty-eighth day of November, nineteen hundred and fourteen, His Majesty was pleased to make regulations (called the "Defence of the Realm Regulations") under the Defence of the Realm Consolidation Act, 1914, for securing the public safety and the defence of the realm:

And whereas the said Act has been amended by the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) Act, 1915, the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) (No. 2) Act, 1915, and the Munitions of War Act, 1915, and other enactments:

And whereas the said regulations have been amended by various subsequent Orders in Council:

And whereas it is expedient further to amend the said regulations in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following amendments be made in the said regulations:—

1. In Regulation 2J after the words "2F to 2J inclusive" in subsection (1) thereof, there shall be inserted the words "(including 2Gc)."

2. In Regulation 7B after the words "unloading of wagons" in paragraph (b) thereof, there shall be inserted the words "by prescribing the time after the expiration of which charges may be made by railway companies for the detention of wagons or trucks or the use or occupation of any accommodation whether before or after the conveyance of any goods and."

3. Regulation 14H shall be amended by the insertion of the following words at the end of subsection (4) thereof:—

"or

(d) apply to any woman who, having been born a British subject but having become an alien by marriage, has been granted a certificate of naturalisation, or has before the tenth day of August, nineteen hundred and eighteen, been granted an exemption from the provisions of the Aliens Restriction Order relating to change of name by enemy aliens."

4. After Regulation 30EE the following regulation shall be inserted:—

"30EEE.—(1) It shall be lawful for the Treasury to make orders fixing a maximum price for silver bullion.

(2) Any order made under this regulation may contain such supplemental provisions as appear to the Treasury necessary or expedient for giving effect to the order, and may be revoked, extended, or varied, as occasion requires.

(3) If any person sells or purchases, or agrees or offers to sell or purchase, except under a licence in writing granted by the Treasury, any silver bullion at a price exceeding the maximum price fixed by an order made under this regulation, or contravenes or fails to comply with any of the provisions of any such order, he shall be guilty of a summary offence against these regulations."

5. Regulation 39E shall be amended as follows:—

(1) At the end of subsection (1) there shall be inserted the words: "and requiring persons being in occupation of or having control of any premises to allow petroleum to be so discharged at or on to those premises, notwithstanding any rules, regulations, agreement, or other matter whatsoever to the contrary."

(2) In subsection (2) the words from "and if any person" to the end thereof shall be omitted.

(3) At the end of subsection (3) the following words shall be inserted: "and may contain such consequential and supplemental provisions as appear to the Shipping Controller to be necessary for carrying the order into effect."

(4) After subsection (3) the following subsection shall be inserted:—

"(4) If any person acts in contravention of, or fails to comply with, the provisions of any order made under this regulation, he shall be guilty of a summary offence against these regulations."

6. After Regulation 39F the following regulation shall be inserted:—

"39FF.—(1) With a view to providing and maintaining an efficient supply of shipping the Shipping Controller in conjunction with the Board of Trade may make orders providing for all or any of the following matters, that is to say:—

(a) Requiring every person employed as master seaman or apprentice on board a British ship to hold the prescribed certificate of identity and service, and prohibiting the employment on board a British ship of any person as master seaman or apprentice unless he is the holder of such a certificate;

(b) Determining the persons by whom and the manner in which applications for identity and service certificates are to be made and regulating the grant of such certificates;

(c) Providing for the registration of persons to whom such certificates are granted;

(d) Requiring all persons concerned in the management, whether as owners, occupiers or otherwise, of seamen's lodging-houses to make returns giving the prescribed particulars with regard to the management, use, or conduct thereof, and requiring any such returns to be verified in the prescribed manner.

(2) For the purpose of testing the accuracy of any return made in pursuance of an order made under this regulation, or of obtaining information in case of failure to make a return, any person authorised in that behalf by the Board of Trade may enter any premises belonging to or in the occupation of the person who has made or has failed to make the return, and may carry out such inspection and examination (including the inspection and examination of books) as he may consider necessary for testing the accuracy of the returns or for obtaining such information.

(3) No individual return or part of a return made, and no information obtained, in pursuance of an order made under this regulation shall without lawful authority be published or disclosed by any person except for the purpose of a prosecution under this regulation.

(4) If in any case the Board of Trade are of opinion that it is expedient to obtain information from any person in connection with any seamen's lodging-house the Board may, without making an order for the purpose, require that person to furnish them with that information, and where the Board so require any information to be furnished the provisions of this regulation shall apply to information furnished and the furnishing of information as they apply to returns made and the making of returns.

(5) Any order made under this regulation may be revoked or varied as occasion requires, and may contain such consequential and supplemental provisions as appear to the Shipping Controller and the Board of Trade to be necessary for carrying the order into effect.

(6) In this regulation—

The expression "prescribed" means prescribed by order made under this regulation:

The expressions "master" and "seaman" have respectively the same meaning as in the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894:

The expression "seamen's lodging-house" means any house, hostel, hotel or other premises to which seamen resort or in which seamen are accustomed to lodge.

(7) Any person who acts in contravention of or fails to comply with the provisions of any order made under this regulation, or who obstructs or impedes in the exercise of any of his powers under this regulation any person authorised in that behalf by the Board of Trade, shall be guilty of a summary offence against these regulations."

7. In Regulation 40 for the paragraph beginning with the words "If any member of the crew" and ending with the words "guilty of an offence against these regulations" there shall be substituted the following paragraph:

"If any member of the crew of a British ship without lawful authority gives, sells, procures, or supplies, or offers to give, sell, procure, or supply, any intoxicant to any member of His Majesty's forces, or to any member of the forces of any of His Majesty's allies, embarked as a passenger on board the ship, he shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations."

8. After Regulation 45E the following regulation shall be inserted:—

"45EE.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this regulation, every person who is on the second day of August, nineteen hundred and eighteen, serving in an established capacity in His Majesty's civil service shall before the first day of November, nineteen hundred and eighteen, or before such later date as may in any special case be allowed by the head officer of the department to which he belongs, and every person who after the second day of August, nineteen hundred and eighteen, is admitted to serve in such an established capacity shall within one month after he is so admitted, take the oath of allegiance in the usual form :

Provided that a person who has in any capacity whatsoever previously taken the oath of allegiance and makes a declaration of that fact in such manner as the Treasury direct shall not be required to take the oath again under this regulation.

(2) Without prejudice to the power of any other persons to administer an oath, the oath under this regulation may be administered to the persons required to take the same by such persons, or persons of such class, as in England the Lord Chancellor, in Scotland the Lord Advocate, and in Ireland the Lord Chancellor for Ireland, may direct.

(3) For the purpose of securing compliance with the requirements of this regulation a record shall be kept in every Government department of the persons by whom the oath of allegiance is taken under this regulation and of the persons who are exempt from the requirements of this regulation by reason of having previously taken the oath.

(4) In this regulation the expression 'oath' includes affirmation as respects a person who is permitted by law to make a solemn affirmation instead of taking an oath."

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of August, 1918.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is provided by section six of the Juries Act, 1918, that His Majesty may by Order in Council modify in such manner as He thinks advisable for the purpose of avoiding unnecessary expense and labour any of the provisions of the Juries Act, 1825, and the Juries Act, 1862, as to the preparation of the lists of men qualified and liable to serve as jurors, so as to provide that any such list may be prepared by altering or supplementing the last previous list and as to the place and manner of the publication thereof :

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. (1) The overseers, instead of proceeding in manner directed by section eight of the Juries Act, 1825, shall make out the jury list for their respective parishes and townships as follows:—

The overseers shall take a copy of the jury list in force for the current year (in this Order referred to as "the existing list") and shall strike out therefrom the names of all such persons appearing therein as are dead or have removed from the parish or township or are otherwise not qualified and liable to be included in the list for the parish or township, and shall then proceed to make out a supplemental jury list in which shall be included the names of all persons qualified and liable to be included in the jury list for the parish or township whose names are not included in the existing list.

The overseers shall make out the supplemental list in the same form as is prescribed with respect to jury lists by section eight of the Juries Act, 1825, as amended by any subsequent enactment.

(2) The existing list revised as aforesaid and the supplemental list made out as aforesaid shall be read together as if the names in the supplemental list were inserted in proper alphabetical order in their proper places in the existing list revised as aforesaid, and shall together constitute the jury list for the parish or township.

2. The overseers, instead of fixing a copy of the jury list upon the principal door of every church, chapel and other public place of religious worship in manner required by section nine of the Juries Act, 1825, shall before the first Sunday in September deposit or exhibit the jury list at such place in the parish as they think most suitable for the purpose of enabling persons desirous of so doing to inspect the same, and shall on the first three Sundays in the month of September fix upon the principal door of every church, chapel or other public place of religious worship within the parish or township a notice stating that the jury list has been made out and specifying the place at which the list is deposited or exhibited in accordance with the provisions of this Order, and attention shall be called in the notice to the fact that liability for jury service has been extended by section five of the Juries Act, 1918, to persons between the ages of sixty and sixty-five.

3. Every inhabitant of the parish or township shall at any time during the three first weeks in September be entitled to inspect the jury list free of charge.

4. The precept to be issued under section four of the Juries Act, 1862, shall be in the form set out in the Schedule to this Order instead of in the form set out in the Schedule to that Act.

5. The clerk of the peace shall, as soon as may be after this Order comes into force, issue to all persons to whom he is required to issue a precept by section four of the Juries Act, 1862, a precept in the form set out in the Schedule to this Order (subject to the modification of dates and periods of time necessary to give effect to the provisions contained in the next succeeding paragraph of this Order) and shall at the same time give them notice that any precept which has been issued for the current year is to be regarded as cancelled and that they shall accordingly make out the jury list in accordance with the precept in the new form.

6. As regards the year nineteen hundred and eighteen the dates or periods of time specified in the first column of the annexed table shall respectively be substituted for the dates or periods of time specified in the second column of that table, being dates or periods of time mentioned in the enactments or the provisions of this Order specified in the third column of that table.

SCHEDULE.

PRECEPT FOR RETURNING LIST OF JURORS.

County of

To the overseers of the poor of the parish [or township] of

You are hereby required to make out before the first day of October next and in manner hereinafter directed a true list containing the names of all men being natural-born British subjects between the ages of twenty-one and sixty-five residing within your parish [or township] qualified to serve upon juries; that is to say, of every man who has in his own name, or in trust for him, a clear income of ten pounds by the year in lands or tenements, whether of freehold, copyhold, or customary tenure, or of ancient demesne, situate in the said county, or in rents issuing out of any such lands or tenements, or in such lands, tenements, and rents taken together, in fee simple or fee tail, or for his own life, or for the life of any other person, and also of every such man who has a clear income of twenty pounds by the year in lands or tenements situate in the said county, held by lease for the absolute term of twenty-one years, or some longer term, or for any term of years determinable on any life or lives and also of every such man who is a householder in your parish [or township], and is rated or assessed to the poor rate or to the inhabited house duty on a value of not less than twenty pounds [if in Middlesex thirty pounds].

You are required to make out the said list as follows:—You shall take a copy of the jury list in force for the current year (hereinafter referred to as “the existing list”), and shall strike out therefrom the names of all such persons appearing therein as are dead, or have removed from your parish [or township], or are otherwise not qualified and liable to be included in the list for your parish [or township], and you shall also make such corrections or alterations therein as may be necessary and proper in respect of the place of abode, title, quality, calling or business, and the nature of the qualification of any person whose name remains therein, and you shall next proceed to make out a supplemental list in which shall be included the names of all persons qualified and liable to be included in the jury list for your parish [or township] whose names are not included in the existing list.

You shall make out the said supplemental list in alphabetical order and shall write at full length the Christian name and surname of every man whose name is to be included therein, and his place of abode, his title, quality, calling, or business, and the nature of his qualification, in the proper columns of the forms hereunto annexed according to the specimens given in such columns for your guidance. You shall append to the existing list revised as aforesaid and to the said supplemental list a note stating that the existing list as revised and the supplemental list are to be read together as if the names in the supplemental list were inserted in proper alphabetical order in their proper places in the existing list, and you shall insert at the foot of each sheet in the existing list in which any names in the supplemental list are to be so treated as being inserted the following note:—“For further names, see the supplemental list annexed hereto.”

If you have not a sufficient number of forms you must apply to me for more; and in order to assist you in making out the list you are to refer to the poor rate, and you may, if you think proper, apply to any collector or assessor of taxes, or any other officer who has the custody of any house tax, land tax, or other tax assessment for your parish [or township], and take from thence the names of men qualified:

In making out the list you are to omit the names of any of the following persons:—

Peers.

Members of Parliament.

Officers of either House of Parliament.

Judges.

Clergymen.

Roman Catholic priests.

Ministers of any congregation of Protestant Dissenters and of Jews whose place of meeting is duly registered, provided they follow no secular occupation except that of a schoolmaster.

Barristers-at-law, certificated conveyancers, and special pleaders if actually practising.

Solicitors and proctors, if actually practising and having taken out their annual certificates, and their managing clerks; and notaries public in actual practice.

Officers of the Supreme Court of Judicature, and clerks of the peace or their deputies, if actually exercising the duties of their respective offices.

Magistrates of the Metropolitan Police Courts, their clerks, ushers, doorkeepers and messengers.

Coroners.

Gaolers and keepers of houses of correction, and all subordinate officers of the same.

Keepers in public lunatic asylums.

Members and licenciates of the Royal College of Physicians in London, if actually practising as physicians.

Members of the Royal Colleges of Surgeons in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin, if actually practising as surgeons.

Apothecaries certificated by the Court of Examiners of the Apothecaries Company, and all registered medical practitioners and pharmaceutical chemists, if actually practising as apothecaries, medical practitioners, or pharmaceutical chemists, respectively.

Officers of the Navy, Army and Air Force while on full pay.

Soldiers of the Regular Army.

Men of the Regular Air Force.

Officers and men of the Territorial Force.

The members of the Mersey Docks and Harbour Board, and of the Port of London Authority.

The masters, wardens, and brethren of the corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond.

Pilots licensed by the Trinity House of Deptford Strond, Kingston-upon-Hull, or Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and all masters of vessels in the buoy and light service employed by either of those corporations, and all pilots licensed under any Act of Parliament or charter for the regulation of pilots.

The Household servants of His Majesty.

Commissioners of Customs and Excise and officers, clerks, or other persons acting in the management and collection of the Customs and Excise.

Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and officers or persons appointed by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue or employed by them or under their authority or direction in any way relating to the duties of Inland Revenue.

General and Additional Commissioners of Income Tax holding certificates under the Income Tax Act, 1842.

Sheriffs' officers and servants.

High Constables.

Officers of the rural and Metropolitan police.

Any other persons exempt by virtue of any Act of Parliament, prescription, charter, grant or writ.

You are to note that under the provisions of section five of the Juries Act, 1918, persons between the ages of sixty and sixty-five are qualified and liable for jury service, and you shall therefore not strike out of the existing list the name of any person by reason only that he has since the date on which that list was made attained the age of sixty years, and you shall take care to include in the supplemental list the names of all persons between the ages of sixty and sixty-five, being persons otherwise qualified and liable to be included in the jury list and whose names are not included in the existing list.

When you have made out the supplemental list you are authorised, if the supplemental list contains thirty names or upwards, to order a sufficient number of copies thereof to be printed, the expense of which printing will be allowed you by the parish [or township].

You are next required before the first Sunday in September to deposit or exhibit the copy of the existing list revised as aforesaid and signed by you with a copy of the supplemental list appended thereto at such place within your parish [or township] as you shall think most suitable for the purpose of enabling persons desirous of so doing to inspect the same, and you shall also on the first three Sundays in September fix upon the principal door of every church, chapel or other public place of religious worship within your parish [or township] a notice to the following effect, inserting in the first paragraph the time and place of which you will be previously informed by the Clerk to the Justices:—

“Take notice that the jury list for the parish [or township] of has been made out and is deposited or exhibited at and that all objections to the list will be heard by the Justices of the Petty Session on the day of next, at the hour of at

“The attention of all persons concerned is called to the fact that liability for jury service has been extended by section five of the Juries Act, 1918, to persons between the ages of sixty and sixty-five, and the names of all such persons, being otherwise qualified and liable for jury service have been included in the said list.”

You must allow any inhabitant of your parish [or township] at any time during the first three weeks in September next to inspect the list so deposited or exhibited as aforesaid gratis; and you must also produce the said list at the Petty Session and there answer all such questions as shall be put to you by His Majesty's Justices of the Peace there present touching the list: And these several matters you are in nowise to omit, upon the peril that may ensue.

Given under my hand at in the said county of

(Clerk of the Peace.)

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of August, 1918.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Suffragans Nomination Act, 1888, it is enacted, that from and after the passing of that Act, for the purposes of the Act of the 26th year of the reign of King Henry the Eighth, Chapter 14, intituled “An Act for Nomination and Consecration of Suffragans within this Realm,” such other Towns as His Majesty the King may from time to time by Order in Council direct shall be taken and accepted for Sees of Bishops Suffragans as if they had been included in that Act, and that that Act shall be construed and have effect accordingly:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, under and by virtue of the powers vested in Him by the said recited Act, and all other powers enabling him in that behalf, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to direct, and doth hereby direct, that the Town of which the name is scheduled to this Order, shall be taken and accepted for a See of a Bishop Suffragan as if it had been included in the above-mentioned Act of the 26th year of the reign of King Henry the Eighth, Chapter 14.

MEMORANDUM.

Lt. A. H. A. Gem, M.C., to be temp. Capt. whilst empld. as Area Superintendent of Gymnastic Staff. 4th June 1918.

Civil Service Commission,
August 6, 1918.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury the following Regulation is substituted for the existing Regulation Number 11 in the Regulations respecting Boy Clerks registered for temporary employment in Public Departments dated 15th September, 1916, and published in the London Gazette of that date, as amended by notice published in the London Gazette dated 12th March, 1918 :—

11. Boy Clerks who may fall ill while serving in any Department, and whose illness may be attested by medical certificate to the satisfaction of the authorities of such Department, may be allowed sick-leave with pay, provided that no Boy Clerk shall be paid for sick-leave for more than 36 days within any one year, exclusive of public holidays. Subject to this proviso, Boy Clerks aged not more than 16½ may be allowed sick-leave at the full rate of pay for the official day. In the case of those aged more than 16½, but not more than 18, a deduction will be made at the rate of 6s. a week, and in the case of those aged more than 18 a deduction will be made at the rate of 10s. a week.

Civil Service Commission,
August 6, 1918.

Notice is hereby given, that upon a special recommendation from the Board of Inland Revenue, and with the assent of the Treasury, Mr. Basil Montague Percy, having served as a Clerk of the Second Division for upwards of eight years, has been promoted to an Assistant Surveyorship of Taxes in the Inland Revenue Department, with a special certificate granted exceptionally by the Civil Service Commissioners.

ERRATUM.

CORN PRODUCTION ACT, 1917. AGRICULTURAL WAGES BOARD (ENGLAND AND WALES).

PROPOSAL TO FIX RATES OF WAGES FOR HORSE- MEN, STOCKMEN AND SHEPHERDS IN KENT.

Paragraphs 1 and 2 in the above proposal should read as follows, instead of as set out in the London Gazette dated 2nd August, 1918 (page 9136) :—

1. The rates of wages fixed by the Board as applicable to employment in the area comprising the administrative county of Kent and the city and county borough of Canterbury, and also that part of the administrative county of London situate south of the River Thames which formerly constituted part of the geographical county of Kent, as set out in the Order of the Board dated the 16th July, 1918, shall not apply to any workman employed in the said area solely as a Horseman, Stockman or Shepherd.

2. The wages payable for employment of any male workman of 18 years of age and over employed in the said area solely as a Horseman, Stockman or Shepherd shall be not less than wages at the rate of 39s. for a week consisting of the hours of employment, whether on weekdays or on Sunday, customary in the said area in the case of a workman so employed.

ADMIRALTY NOTICE TO MARINERS.

No. 922 of the year 1918.

ENGLAND, SOUTH COAST.

(1) Falmouth Harbour Approach—Traffic Regulations.

Former Notices.—Nos. 88, 151, 317, 452, 551, 673 and 794 of 1918.

All vessels bound to or from Falmouth harbour must pass between the two light-buoys situated at a distance of about 3 miles southward from St. Anthony point lighthouse as shown on charts, and maintain a course 0° (N. 17° E. Mag.) and 180° (S. 17° W. Mag.), respectively, for a distance of a quarter of a mile from the light-buoys.

Any instructions given by the patrol vessels should be strictly observed. Vessels proceeding eastward must obtain instructions as to the route to be followed before attempting to leave the anchorage.

Inward-bound vessels will have priority over outward-bound vessels in respect of passage through the ship-passage. Vessels entering Falmouth harbour must close the Drifter, stationed about half a mile to the southward of the two light-buoys defining the ship-passage.

This Drifter regulates inward-bound and outward-bound traffic. When no signals are exhibited by day or night by this Drifter, inward-bound traffic may proceed to pass through the ship-passage.

To indicate that the ship-passage is clear for outward-bound vessels, the Drifter will display by day a black shape and by night two horizontal white lights.

During fog three long blasts on the steam whistle, repeated at intervals of five minutes, will indicate that the ship-passage is clear for outward-bound traffic.

Vessels approaching Falmouth in foggy weather should be careful to sound the regulation fog-signal and to proceed with great caution when within a depth of 30 fathoms at all states of the tide.

When the ship-passage is clear for inward-bound traffic, no outward-bound vessel may approach within half a mile of the ship-passage; and when the signals indicate that outward-bound traffic may pass through the ship-passage, no inward-bound vessel may approach within half a mile of the ship-passage.

During the hours of darkness all vessels entering or leaving Falmouth harbour must exhibit their side-lights.

(2) Penzance Bay—Traffic Regulations.

All vessels bound to or from Penzance bay must pass between the two light-buoys situated at a distance of about 1½ miles south-eastward from St. Paul church, north-westward of Mousehole, as shown on charts, and maintain a course 0° (N. 17° E. Mag.) and 180° (S. 17° W. Mag.), respectively, for a distance of a quarter of a mile from the light-buoys.

Vessels approaching from the eastward must keep to the southward of the parallel of lat. 50° 02' N., until reaching a position about 3 miles southward of the ship-passage, which should then be steered for.

Any instructions given by the patrol vessels should be strictly observed.

Inward-bound vessels will have priority over outward-bound vessels in respect of passage through the ship-passage.

Vessels entering Penzance bay must close the Drifter, stationed about half a mile to the southward of the two light-buoys defining the ship-passage.

This Drifter regulates inward-bound and outward-bound traffic. When no signals are exhibited by day or night by this Drifter, inward-bound traffic may proceed to pass through the ship-passage.

To indicate that the ship-passage is clear for outward-bound vessels, the Drifter will display by day a black shape and by night two horizontal white lights.

During fog three long blasts on the steam whistle, repeated at intervals of five minutes, will indicate that the ship-passage is clear for outward-bound traffic.

Vessels making Mounts bay in foggy weather should be careful to sound the regulation fog-signal and to proceed with great caution when within a depth of 25 fathoms at all states of the tide.

When the ship-passage is clear for inward-bound traffic, no outward-bound vessel may approach within half a mile of the ship-passage; and when the signals indicate that outward-bound traffic may pass through the ship-passage, no inward-bound vessel may approach within half a mile of the ship-passage.

During the hours of darkness, all vessels entering or leaving Penzance bay must exhibit their side-lights.

Before attempting to leave Penzance bay, outward-bound vessels must obtain instructions as to the route to be followed.

Variation.—17° W.

Note.—This Notice is a re-publication of the former Notices quoted above.

ADMIRALTY NOTICE TO MARINERS.

No. 923 of the year 1918.

ENGLAND, SOUTH COAST.

Tor Bay Approaches—Traffic Regulations.

Former Notice.—No. 795 of 1918.

Two ship-passages have been established as follows:—

Northern ship-passage, 600 feet wide, marked by light-buoys on either side, situated $5\frac{1}{2}$ cables, 142° (S. 22° E. Mag.), from the Ore Stone Δ . This ship-passage is to be used by:—

(1) All vessels approaching Tor Bay from the eastward.

Such vessels should make a position one mile, 44° (N. 60° E. Mag.), from the ship-passage and enter on a course 224° (S. 60° W. Mag.) till half a mile beyond the ship-passage.

(2) All eastbound vessels leaving Tor Bay.

Such vessels should steer so as to pass through the ship-passage on a course 44° (N. 60° E. Mag.) and should continue on this course for one mile, when course is to be altered to join the route in force.

Southern ship-passage, 600 feet wide, marked by light-buoys on either side, situated 7 cables, 84° (S. 80° E. Mag.), from Berry Head light-house. This ship-passage is to be used by:—

(1) All vessels approaching Tor Bay from the southward and westward.

Such vessels should make a position one mile, 144° (S. 20° E. Mag.), from the ship-passage, and enter on a course 324° (N. 20° W. Mag.), till half a mile beyond the ship-passage.

(2) All south and westbound vessels.

Such vessels should steer so as to pass through the ship-passage on a course 144° (S. 20° E. Mag.) and should continue on this course for a mile beyond the ship-passage, when course is to be altered to join the route in force.

Caution is necessary when entering southern ship-passage as the stream sets obliquely across the entrance. A drifter regulates traffic through each ship-passage, and when no signals are displayed by these drifters by day or by night the ship-passage is open for incoming traffic.

To indicate that the ship-passage is open for outgoing traffic these drifters will display:—

By day a black shape.

By night two horizontal white lights.

No. 30831.

B

No outgoing vessel is to approach within half a mile of the ship-passage unless this signal is displayed and permission has been given to proceed.

Priority will be given to incoming vessels over outgoing vessels in respect to passage through the ship-passages, but incoming vessels are not to approach within half a mile of the ship-passages while they are open to outgoing vessels. All vessels entering or leaving Tor Bay during darkness must exhibit their side lights.

During fog three long blasts on the steam whistle repeated at intervals of five minutes will indicate that the ship-passages are clear for outgoing vessels.

Vessels approaching Tor bay in foggy weather should sound the regulation fog-signal and proceed with great caution.

ANCHORAGE REGULATIONS.

All orders given by the patrols are to be strictly carried out.

Vessels entering Tor bay anchorage in order to bunker at Brixham, and westbound vessels in ballast which are weather-bound and unable to round Start Point are to anchor as directed in Brixham roads to the westward of a line drawn in a 0° (N. 16° E. Mag.) direction from Brixham breakwater light, and to the southward of a line drawn in a 90° (S. 74° E. Mag.) from Goodrington.

Sailing vessels are to anchor as directed on the inshore side of a line drawn in a 219° (N. 45° W. Mag.) direction through Brixham breakwater light, clear of the fairway into Brixham harbour.

All other vessels are to anchor as directed on entering.

REGULATIONS FOR BRIXHAM FISHING VESSELS.

No fishing vessel is on any account to attempt to pass through the ship-passages during the hours of darkness.

Fishing vessels are not to leave Brixham harbour until permission has been obtained from the Port Fishery Officer. The three organised fleets working from Brixham are to follow the motions of the Admiral of their fleet in respect to leaving harbour.

The conduct of these fleets is dealt with by local orders.

In addition to the restrictions to fishing laid down in Admiralty Notices to Mariners:—

Trawling or drifting is prohibited within two miles of the obstruction in any direction.

The laying of nets, crab or any other pots, or anchoring for the purpose of fishing with hand lines is entirely prohibited within half a mile of the obstruction in any direction.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING SMALL CRAFT AND PLEASURE BOATS.

The following regulations are to apply to all small craft and pleasure boats (exclusive of bona fide commercial fishing craft sailing under fishing permits) using the harbours of Brixham, Paignton and Torquay.

No small craft or pleasure boat will be permitted to go outside the ship-passages.

Small craft with amateur fishing permits can obtain special permission to pass through the ship-passages between the hours of sunrise and sunset provided they keep within the three-mile limit from their port. Such permission must be obtained from the Senior Naval Officer, Torquay, through the Station Officer of the Coastguard Station.

Small craft must not go alongside, or hold communication with any vessel in the anchorage unless special permission from the Senior Naval Officer has been obtained to do so.

ADMIRALTY NOTICE TO MARINERS.

No. 924 of the year 1918.

ENGLAND, SOUTH-EAST COAST.

Dover Channel—Traffic Regulations.

Former Notice.—No. 778 of 1918.

1. Two light-vessels and four light-buoys have been established to mark a gateway in the Dover channel off Folkestone, as shown on the charts.

2. Shipping is hereby warned that the only passage for traffic proceeding between the Downs and Dungeness is between the North-East and South-East gate light-buoys and then between North and South Folkestone gate light-vessels shown on the chart, and between North-West and South-West gate light-buoys and vice versa, and that Article 25 of the Collision Regulations must be complied with, that is to say, East-bound traffic must keep to the Southern side of the passage and West-bound traffic must keep to the Northern side. Ships disregarding this warning will do so at their own peril.

3. Caution.—Mariners are warned to exercise great caution when approaching the ships' passage between the Folkestone gate light-vessels, as the tidal streams may at times set obliquely across the passage. Both light-vessels should be given as wide a berth as the width of the passage and compliance with Article 25 of the Collision Regulations permit.

4. The latest route information and route instructions are to be obtained from the examination vessels off Calais and Boulogne, or in the Downs or from Patrol vessels westward of Folkestone gate or in the vicinity of Cape Gris Nez. Any deviation from these instructions may entail the destruction of the vessel. No vessels are to pass through the area given in paragraph 5 of this Notice except by the authorised routes.

5. No vessel is to anchor or to fish in the following area:—

The area is bounded by lines joining the following points:—

- (a) Admiralty pier lighthouse, Dover.
- (b) Les Quenocs buoy No. 4.
- (c) Cape Gris Nez lighthouse.
- (d) The light-buoy at the north-east end of the Bassure de Baas in lat 50° 48½' N., long. 1° 33' E.
- (e) The light-buoy at the south-west end of Le Colbart in lat. 50° 49½' N., long. 1° 15½' E.
- (f) Sandgate castle.

ADMIRALTY NOTICE TO MARINERS.

No. 925 of the year 1918.

SCOTLAND NORTH-EAST COAST, WITH ORKNEY AND SHETLAND ISLES.

Former Notices.—Nos. 737, 756 and 796 of 1918.

Notice is hereby given that, under the Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914, the following Regulations have been made by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and are now in force:—

(1) Pentland and Moray Firths—Restriction of Traffic; Pilotage and Traffic Regulations.

The following regulations have been made with a view to safeguarding the interests of shipping in the Pentland and Moray firths:—

I.—RESTRICTION OF TRAFFIC.

1. No vessel, either British, Allied or Neutral, is to be in the shaded area on the accompanying portion of Admiralty Chart No. 2, from half an hour after sunset to half an hour before sunrise, unless at anchor. No vessel, however, is to anchor:—

(a) Anywhere along the coast between Tarbet ness and North Sutor, except within one mile radius of Balintore;

(b) Anywhere off the south shore of the Moray firth between the meridians of Port Gordon and Burghead, except within three-quarters of a mile of the low-water mark;

(c) Outside a distance of one mile of the coast in any other portion of the shaded area.

Notwithstanding the above order a limited number of fishing drifters are allowed to fish at night by special permit within certain areas in the Moray firth.

2. Vessels proceeding to ports in the Moray firth should endeavour to enter the firth in time to reach their destinations not later than half an hour after sunset. Should they not reach their destinations by that time they are to anchor, weather permitting, subject to the restrictions given in clause 1.

3. Any vessel contravening the foregoing regulations will run the gravest risk of being sunk.

Caution.—Neutral or Allied vessels are particularly warned that the passage through the Pentland firth presents very grave risks to a Westbound vessel and are strongly advised not to take it.

II.—CROMARTY AND INVERNESS AND APPROACHES—PILOTAGE AND TRAFFIC REGULATIONS.

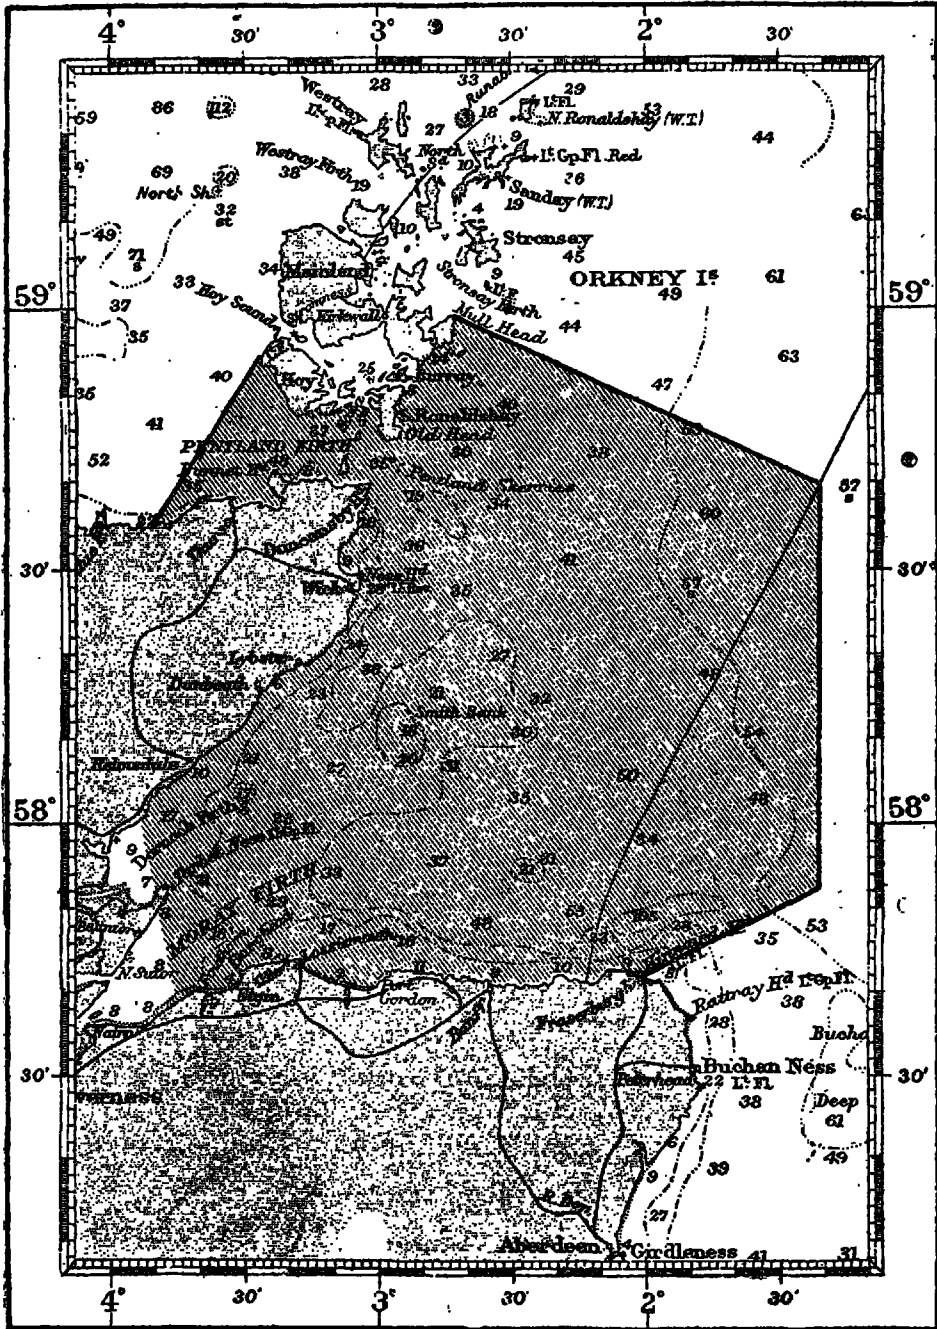

Port of Cromarty and Approaches.

1. Pilotage is compulsory at the port of Cromarty for all vessels (including fishing vessels) which have a draught of over eight feet, and it is highly dangerous for any vessel to enter or leave without a pilot. Fishing and other small vessels having a draught of over eight feet are to assemble at the Pilotage

3. No vessels of any description other than H.M. Ships and Auxiliaries are to be under way between sunset and sunrise in the waters contained between a line drawn from Tarbet Ness to Findhorn, and a line drawn from Fort George to Chanonry point.

Port of Inverness and Approaches.

1. All Merchant Vessels, including Fishing craft, are to speak the Examination vessel off Cromarty, and are to obtain permission from stations, and will be conducted into and out of the port in groups.

Vessels bound for Cromarty will be led through the defences from a position off Tarbet Ness by a pilot boat. They should follow directly astern of her.

Local arrangements for leading vessels through the defences will be made for vessels leaving Cromarty.

2. It is dangerous for any vessel to be under way to the south-westward of a line joining Tarbet Ness and Findhorn without a pilot.

her to proceed into the Port of Inverness, the seaward entrances to which are dangerous.

2. Merchant vessels shall obey all orders given them by the Naval Port Authorities as regards anchoring or shifting berth.

3. Vessels proceeding in the same direction must not attempt to overtake and pass a vessel ahead in any of the channels in the Firth, or within the seaward entrances of the North and South channels.

This is not intended to apply to small fishing craft, and vessels of similar size, which must carefully observe the rule of the road whilst keeping out of the way of larger vessels.

4. No vessel (other than H.M. Ships and allied Men-of-War) or boat shall without special permission move in or approach the Port during the hours of official night, and no boat (other than those belonging to H.M. Ships and allied Men-of-War) shall without special permission approach the shore or go alongside any pier or wharf in the Port of Inverness.

5. Pilotage is compulsory for all vessels of 8 feet draught and over (other than H.M. Ships and allied Men-of-War) entering or leaving the Port of Inverness, unless otherwise ordered by the Naval Authorities.

6. Vessels, when cleared, shall wait for the orders from Naval Authorities before leaving.

7. Drifters engaged on Inverness Pilotage duty will fly the Pilot flag and will be stationed at the Examination anchorage off Cromarty and all vessels arriving are to close the drifter flying this flag, after speaking the Examination vessel, and obey any orders they may receive.

8. Incoming and outgoing traffic will be regulated by signals hoisted at Fort George and on the Control vessel stationed seaward of the entrance to the port.

9. Traffic signals are to be strictly obeyed, and no vessel shall approach the entrances when the signals displayed are not in her favour, and no outgoing vessel is to approach Chanonry point within half a mile whilst the signals are against her.

10. Vessels proceeding with the tidal stream will, as a rule, be given priority over those proceeding against the tidal stream, but the signals are equally applicable to all vessels, entering or leaving the harbour, and they are only to use the channel between the light-buoys defining the ship passages.

11. Incoming and outgoing vessels shall not pass through the ship passages simultaneously. If, through any misunderstanding, an outgoing and an incoming ship are approaching the ship passages simultaneously, then the ship proceeding against the tidal stream shall give way and wait until the entrance is clear.

12. Vessels are to pass through the ship passages at a speed not exceeding 12 knots.

13. Inward-bound vessels, with special permission to be under way in Inverness firth and approaches during the hours of official night, when within 3 miles of the whistle-buoy off Cromarty and until they arrive at their anchorage within the Port of Inverness are to exhibit navigation lights (with the exception of a stern light, which is not to be shown), dimmed as provided for in Admiralty Notice to Mariners No. 872 of 1918, or any subsequent revision or republication thereof.

Outgoing vessels are to carry similar lights which are to be extinguished as soon as they are past Cromarty.

14. All vessels under way within the limits of the Port of Inverness are to exhibit navigation lights during the daylight hours, when owing to mist or other weather conditions the visibility is sufficiently low to render such a course desirable.

15. Vessels at anchor in the Port of Inverness and approaches are to obey all orders given them by the Naval Authorities as to the exhibition or obscuring of riding lights and darkening of ships.

(2) Orkney Isles—Traffic Regulations.

I.—SCAPA FLOW AND APPROACHES.

1. All entrances are dangerous, and entry is absolutely prohibited by any of them except as provided in succeeding paragraphs.

2. Examination services have been established in the entrances to Hoxa and Hoy sounds; vessels directed to enter must communicate with the Examination vessel and follow the instructions received from her very carefully.

3. No vessel is permitted to approach the entrance to Hoxa sound within a radius of 5 miles under any circumstances whatever, except when actually ordered to Scapa Flow.

4. The only vessels permitted to enter Hoy sound from the westward are those ordered to Stromness.

5. Vessels are not permitted to enter Hoxa or Hoy sounds by night or in thick weather.

6. Passage through Cantick sound is entirely prohibited.

II.—PORT OF KIRK WALL AND APPROACHES.

1. The port of Kirkwall shall comprise all enclosed waters of the Wide Firth and Kirkwall bay to westward of Thieves holm.

2. Merchant vessels shall obey all orders given them by the Admiralty Port Officer as regards anchoring or shifting position.

3. No vessel other than H.M. Ships shall enter or leave the Port of Kirkwall during hours of darkness, i.e., between half an hour after sunset and half an hour before sunrise, except in special circumstances with special permission from the Admiralty Port Officer.

4. During foggy and thick weather, traffic in and out of the port is stopped, and no vessel shall approach the boom from either direction.

5. No vessel other than H.M. Ships or boat shall move in the harbour during hours of darkness as aforesaid. And no boat other than those belonging to H.M. Ships shall approach the shore or go alongside any pier in the Port of Kirkwall.

6. All vessels other than H.M. Ships entering or leaving the Port of Kirkwall shall be piloted in and out by a Pilot drifter, and are prohibited from entering or leaving harbour unless so piloted, save and except only, (1) in the case of such British vessels as have a written exemption therefrom, issued by the Admiralty Port Officer, (2) when a liner is entering the harbour, the Pilot may at his discretion, when circumstances of tide and sea render it advisable, direct such liner to enter the harbour without being piloted, provided always that the gate is open for incoming traffic.

7. Vessels, when cleared, shall wait for the Pilot vessel to conduct them out of port, or proceed as directed by the Naval Authorities.

8. Drifters engaged on pilot duty will fly the pilot flag (white and red, horizontal).

9. Incoming and outgoing traffic will be regulated by signals hoisted at the yardarm of the Boom trawler and repeated at the Hellier holm lighthouse.

10. Traffic signals are to be strictly obeyed, and no vessel shall approach the entrance against the signal.

11. The following Traffic signals will be displayed at the Boom and at Hellier holm:—

Gate "Open for Incoming Traffic":

By day—Two balls, vertical.

By night—A red light.

Gate "Open for Outgoing Traffic":

By day—a cone, point upwards.

By night—A green light.

Gate Closed: By Day—Three balls at Hellier holm.

By night—Three red lights at Hellier holm.

12. Vessels entering will, as a rule, be given priority over those leaving.

13. All outgoing vessels shall pass round the Turning buoy (red and white striped, spherical) moored approximately 285° (N. 56^{\circ} W. Mag.), one milé from the entrance.

14. Incoming vessels will not pass round the Turning buoy, but will shape course as requisite for the anchorage on entering.

15. No outgoing vessel shall pass the Turning buoy, unless the signal for outgoing traffic is up. If the signal is against it, such vessel shall stop and wait in the neighbourhood of the Turning buoy.

16. No incoming vessel shall pass Hellier holm, unless the signal for incoming traffic is up at Hellier holm. If the signal is against it, such vessel shall wait in Shapinsay sound.

17. Incoming and outgoing vessels shall not pass through the gate simultaneously. If, through any misunderstanding, an outgoing and an incoming ship are approaching the gate simultaneously, then the outgoing ship shall give way, and shall turn round, and return to the Turning buoy and there wait till such time as the entrance is clear.

18. As a rule only one ship will be conducted out at a time, but under exceptional circumstances, in the event of two ships being conducted out, then the pilot will give instructions as to which ship is to go first, and the rear-ship shall then keep a full half mile directly astern, and is on no account to close or overhaul or attempt to pass the ship ahead.

19. Caution.—Caution is necessary when approaching the boom, as the tidal stream does not set fairly through the opening and attains considerable velocity especially on the ebb or west-going stream, which sets in a north-westerly direction.

(3) Shetland Isles—Traffic of Neutral Vessels Prohibited.

No vessels other than those of British Nationality or those of the Allied Nations, except vessels calling for the purpose of Examination, shall enter any ports or harbours in, or anchor off any part of, the coasts of the Shetland Isles until further notice.

Note.—Special traffic regulations for the Port of Lerwick and approaches will be found in Admiralty Notice to Mariners No. 767 of 1917.

Note.

This Notice is a re-publication of the former Notices quoted above.

Caution.

This Admiralty Notice to Mariners is issued under the provisions of the Defence of the Realm Regulations, and failure to comply strictly with the directions contained in it will constitute an offence against those Regulations.

Any person found guilty of such an offence is liable to severe penalties both of imprisonment and fine.

Any person aiding or abetting the commission of such an offence is himself guilty of an offence against the Regulations.

Attention is also drawn to the fact that any infringement of the directions contained in this Admiralty Notice to Mariners is liable to result in the detention of the ship or vessel.

Authority.—The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

ADMIRALTY NOTICE TO MARINERS.

No. 926 of the year 1918.

SCOTLAND, WEST COAST—FIRTH OF CLYDE, ISLE OF ARRAN.

Lamlash Harbour Entrances—Traffic Regulations.

Former Notices.—Nos. 154, 320, 455, 554, 677 and 797 of 1918.

A ship-passage, 500 feet in width, has been established at the entrance to North channel. This ship-passage is marked on its northern side by a light-buoy situated about $4\frac{1}{4}$ cables south-eastward from Hamilton rock as shown on chart.

A ship-passage, 500 feet in width, has also been established at the entrance to South channel. This ship-passage is marked on its western side by a light-buoy situated about $6\frac{1}{2}$ cables south-eastward from Stone on Kings-cross point as shown on chart.

All vessels bound for Lamlash must approach by the Northern channel, and maintain a course 244° (S. 82^{\circ} W. Mag.) for a distance of a quarter of a mile on either side of the light-buoy, which should be left on the starboard hand at a distance not exceeding 75 yards.

Vessels must not attempt to enter by the Southern channel unless they have been definitely ordered by their route instructions or a Clyde Patrol vessel to do so, when they must maintain a course 329° (N. 13^{\circ} W. Mag.) for a distance of a quarter of a mile on either side of the light-buoy, which should be left on the port hand at a distance not exceeding 75 yards.

When using the Northern channel, inward-bound vessels will be given priority over those outward bound.

Vessels entering are not to approach the ship-passage at a speed exceeding 10 knots.

Vessels entering are to close the drifter, which will be lying off the ship-passage, for instructions. Any instructions which may be given by Patrol vessels in the outer reaches of the Clyde must also be strictly observed.

The drifter regulates the traffic both inward and outward bound as follows:—

To indicate that the ship-passage is clear for inward-bound traffic, she will display at both yard-arms:

By day—Two black balls hoisted vertically.

By night—One red light.

To indicate that the ship-passage is clear for outward-bound traffic, she will display at both yard-arms:

By day—One black cone, point up.

By night—One green light.

During fog or thick weather, she will sound three long blasts on her steam whistle at intervals of five minutes to indicate that the ship-passage is clear for outward-bound traffic.

There will be no sound signal for inward-bound traffic.

No vessel, either inward or outward bound, is to approach within half a mile of the ship-passage unless the drifter is displaying the traffic signal in her favour.

In foggy or thick weather, vessels approaching are to sound the regulation fog-signals, and proceed with great caution.

All vessels entering Lamlash by night are to burn side lights.

Vessels entering Lamlash by day are to anchor to the southward of a line joining the new Pier head and the north end of Holy island.

Vessels entering during the night may anchor to the northward of this line until the morning.

Before attempting to leave Lamlash, all vessels must obtain instructions as to the route to be followed.

Variation.—18° W.

IRISH CHANNEL.

Rathlin Sound—Closed to Traffic.

Former Notices.—Nos. 630, 678 and 798 of 1918.

Mariners are hereby warned that, under the Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914, the following regulation has been made by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and is now in force:—

Rathlin Sound is closed to all traffic.

Caution.

This Admiralty Notice to Mariners is issued under the provisions of the Defence of the Realm Regulations, and failure to comply strictly with the directions contained in it will constitute an offence against those Regulations.

Any person found guilty of such an offence is liable to severe penalties both of imprisonment and fine.

Any person aiding or abetting the commission of such an offence is himself guilty of an offence against the Regulations.

Attention is also drawn to the fact that any infringement of the directions contained in this Admiralty Notice to Mariners is liable to result in the detention of the ship or vessel.

ADMIRALTY NOTICE TO MARINERS.

No. 928 of the year 1918.

IRELAND, EAST COAST.

Belfast Lough—Traffic Regulations.

Former Notices.—Nos. 155, 321, 457, 556, 679 and 799 of 1918.

A ship-passage has been established on the northern side of the entrance to Belfast lough, about 8 cables south-eastward from Cloghan point. The ship-passage is marked by two light-buoys as shown on the charts.

When making for this ship-passage, vessels must maintain a course of 201° (S. 40° W. Mag) or 21° (N. 40° E. Mag.) for a distance of a quarter of a mile on either side of the ship-passage.

The Gobbins head light-and-whistle-buoy, exhibiting a flashing red light, situated in lat. 54° 48' 10" N., long. 5° 38' 20" W., approximately, serves as an additional aid to vessels.

Vessels approaching Belfast must be careful to look out for and close the Patrol vessels off the port, and strictly observe any instructions communicated to them by the Patrol.

A Drifter will be stationed at a distance of about half a mile north-eastward of the ship-passage.

This Drifter regulates inward-bound and outward-bound traffic. When no signals are exhibited by day or night by this Drifter, inward-bound traffic may proceed to pass through the ship-passage.

Inward-bound vessels will be given priority over outward-bound vessels in respect of passage through the ship-passage.

To indicate that the ship-passage is clear for outward-bound vessels the Drifter will display by day a black shape and by night two horizontal white lights.

During fog three long blasts on the steam whistle, repeated at intervals of five minutes, will indicate that the ship-passage is clear for outward-bound traffic.

Vessels approaching Belfast lough in foggy weather should be careful to sound the regulation fog-signals, and to proceed with great caution when within a depth of 30 fathoms at all states of the tide.

When the ship-passage is clear for inward-bound traffic, no outward-bound vessel may approach within half a mile of the ship-passage; and when the signals indicate that outward-bound traffic may pass through the ship-passage, no inward-bound vessel may approach within half a mile of the ship-passage.

During the hours of darkness, all vessels entering or leaving must exhibit their side-lights.

Before attempting to leave Belfast lough, outward-bound vessels must obtain instructions as to the route to be followed.

Special Acts (Extension of Time) Act, 1915:
Extending Time for operation of certain provisions of the Derby Corporation Act, 1913.

BOROUGH OF DERBY.

To the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Derby:—
And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by virtue of the provisions of Section 25 of the Derby Corporation Act, 1913 (herein-after referred to as "the Act of 1913"), and of Orders dated the 25th day of July, 1916, and the 29th day of August, 1917, respectively, issued by Us, the Local Government Board, under Section 1 of the Special Acts (Extension of Time) Act, 1915 (herein-after referred to as "the Act of 1915"), the time limited for the exercise by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Derby (herein-after referred to as "the Corporation") of their powers for the compulsory purchase of lands for the purposes of the Act of 1913 will expire on the 15th day of August, 1918:

And whereas by Section 73 of the Act of 1913 provision is made with respect to the notification of any of the diseases known as measles, German measles, or whooping cough, occurring in children in attendance at school and the wilful exposure of persons suffering from any such disease, and by sub-section (3) of that Section it is enacted that the provisions of the Section shall cease to be in force on the 15th day of August, 1918, unless they shall have been continued as therein mentioned;

And whereas by Section 92 of the Act of 1913 provision is made for enabling the Corporation to borrow money by way of temporary loan or overdraft for the purpose of providing temporarily during any financial year for certain current expenses, and by sub-section (2) of that Section it is enacted that the provisions of the Section shall cease to be in force on the 31st day of March, 1919, unless they shall have been continued as therein mentioned:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by Section 1 of the Act of 1915, and of any other powers in that behalf, We by this Our Order—

(a) extend until the 15th day of August, 1919, the time limited as aforesaid for the exercise of the powers of the Corporation for the compulsory purchase of lands for the purposes of the Act of 1913; and

(b) extend until the 15th day of August, 1919, the time limited by sub-section (3) of Section 73 of the Act of 1913 for the continuance in force of the provisions of that Section; and

(c) extend until the 31st day of March, 1920, the time limited by sub-section (2) of Section 92 of the Act of 1913 for the continuance in force of the provisions of that Section.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this Twenty-ninth day of July, in the year One thousand nine hundred and eighteen.

Participating Preference shares at 3.15 o'clock in the afternoon, at which place and times all the holders of the said classes of shares respectively are requested to attend.

A copy of the said Scheme of Arrangement can be seen at the office of Messrs. Alsop, Stevens, Crooks and Co., the Solicitors of the Company, No. 14, Castle-street, Liverpool.

The holders of shares of the said classes respectively may attend such Meetings respectively and vote in person or by proxy provided that all proxies are deposited at the registered office of the Company, Mildmay-road, Bootle, not later than 48 hours before the time fixed for holding the said Meetings respectively.

The Court has appointed Sir Benjamin Sands Johnson, of Mildmay-road aforesaid, Dyer and Cleaner, or, failing him, Frederick Corlett Johnson, of Mildmay-road aforesaid, Dyer and Cleaner, or, failing him, Thomas Sands Johnson, of Mildmay-road aforesaid, Dyer and Cleaner, to be Chairman of the said separate Meetings of the holders of 5 per cent. Preference shares, 5½ per cent. "A" Preference shares and Ordinary shares, and Charles Albert Holt, of 37, Kimberley-drive, Great Crosby, in the county of Lancaster, Inspector of Branches, or, failing him, Charles Cameron, of 192, Litherland-road, Bootle aforesaid, Works Manager, or, failing him, Harold Pittman Hadfield, of Broadfield House, Maghull, in the said county, Managing Directors' Assistant, to be Chairman of the said Meeting of the holders of Employees' 5 per cent. Participating Preference shares.

Should the said Scheme be approved by sufficient majorities at the said Meetings, the Resolution approving the same will be submitted for confirmation in accordance with section 45 of the said Act at subsequent Meetings of the said four classes of shareholders respectively, which will be subsequently convened.

The Scheme will also be subject to the subsequent approval of the Court.

Dated the first day of August, 1918.

By Order of the Board,

037 FRED. C. JOHNSON, Secretary.
