

Table of Contents

Title Page
Title Page Verso
Dedication
Table of Contents
Foreword
Preface
About the Editors
List of Contributors
Acknowledgments
List of Abbreviations

Chapters

1. The tropical environment: An introduction to tropical medicine
2. Environmental health problems in the tropics
3. Nutrition and health in the tropics
4. Custom, culture and health in the tropics
5. Tropical fevers, including malaria
  - 5.1 Viral
  - 5.2 Bacterial
  - 5.3 Important human parasitic fevers in the tropics
6. Tropical gastrointestinal infections
7. Hepatitis and other liver problems
8. Urinogenital infections in the tropics
9. Respiratory tract infections and pneumonias in the tropics
10. Tropical skin problems
  - 10.1 Viral and bacterial
  - 10.2 Parasitic Infections
11. CNS infections in the tropics
  - 11.1 Viral and bacterial
  - 11.2 Parasitic and fungal
12. Miscellaneous infections in the tropics:
  - 12.1 Septicaemia
  - 12.2 Bone and joint infections
  - 12.3 Soft tissue and anaerobic infections
13. Arthropod-borne infections in the tropics
  - 13.1 Bacterial (including Plague)
  - 13.2 Viral and rickettsial
  - 13.3 Parasitic
14. Zoonotic infections in the tropics
15. Venomous animals
  - 15.1 Spiders, scorpions and snakes
  - 15.2 Stingers

- 15.3 Antivenoms
- 16. Cancers in the tropics
- 17. An approach to women's health in the tropics
- 18. Tropical paediatrics
- 19. Oral health and dental care in the tropics
- 20. Nursing in the tropics
- 21. Surgery in the tropics
- 22. Tropical haemoglobinopathies
- 23. Ancillary health services in the tropics
  - 23.1 Physiotherapy
  - 23.2 Occupational therapy
  - 23.3 Radiology
  - 23.4 Occupational Health
  - 23.5 Pharmacy
- 24. Immunisation strategies for tropical countries
- 25. The tropical laboratory
- 26. Overview: The nexus between tropical and travel medicine: prospects and future directions