Subject: Update and Migration of National Weather Service Products and Services Catalog: Effective June 9, 2023

The National Weather Service has upgraded its Products and Services Catalog and migrated it to a new host. The upgrade improves the website's reliability and supportability. The basic functionality will remain similar; however, the appearance and URL will be different, effective June 9, 2023.

The updated Products and Services Catalog is available at:

<https://nsdesk.servicenowservices.com/nws>

Users can find additional information and tutorials by clicking on "Information" on the above website.

The legacy Products and Services Catalog (nws.weather.gov/products) will be decommissioned on or about July 31, 2023.

If you have questions or comments regarding this upgrade, please contact:
