Notes:

- 1. Sponsored research income: includes all funds to support research received in the form of a grant, contribution or contract from all sources (internal and external) to the institution.
- 2. Financial data were obtained from Statistics Canada, except where noted. 3. Faculty data were obtained from Statistics Canada, Conférence des recteurs et des principaux des universités du Québec (CREPUQ) and the RE$EARCH Infosource Canadian University R&D Database. For confidentiality reasons, Statistics Canada randomly rounds faculty numbers either up or down by a multiple of "3".
- All data are provided for the main university/college including its affiliated institutions, where applicable.
- . All institutions are members of the Canadian Association of University Business Officers (CAUBO).
- *Has a medical school Includes full, associate and assistant faculty only
- +Not a full-service university ++Sponsored research income administered by affiliated hospitals was reported one fiscal year in arrears

- $\ensuremath{^{(a)}}$ Fiscal 2009-2010 research income was obtained directly from the university and has not yet been validated by CAUBO.

Research Universities of the Year 2011

Three universities gain RE$EARCH Infosource's designation of Research University of the Year in their category for their performance on a balanced set of input, output and impact measures for FY2010. These full-service universities demonstrated superior achievement both in earning research income and in publishing research in leading scientific journals.

Université du Québec à Rimouski	81.2
Ryerson University	78.3
Royal Military College of Canada	75.4
	Université du Québec à Rimouski Ryerson University

^{*}The Score in each category is out of a possible 100 points based on the following indicators and weighting: 2 input measures: total sponsored research income (20%), and research intensity (20%); 2 output measures: total number of publications (20%) and publication intensity in leading journals (20%), and 1 impact measure: publication impact (20%). For each measure, the top ranking institution is assigned a score of 100 and the other institutions' scores are calculated as a percentage of the first ranking institution. See www.researchinfosource.com for details.
