- (2) Before referring to the matter in the House, a member must apply to the Speaker for the exercise of the Speaker’s discretion under (1).
- (3) In exercising his or her discretion, the Speaker:
 - (a) balances the privilege of freedom of speech against the public interest in maintaining confidence in the judicial resolution of disputes; and
 - (b) takes into account the constitutional relationship of mutual respect that exists between the legislative and judicial branches of government, and the risk of prejudicing a matter awaiting or under adjudication in any New Zealand court, including one awaiting sentencing.
- (4) Paragraphs (1) to (3) apply to any matter awaiting or under adjudication in any appeal to the Privy Council in existing proceedings, provided for by law.

Return of evidence
