ELECTION DONATIONS

1. Disclosure period for donations received

All election donations received during the disclosure period must be listed on the adjacent page. The disclosure period commences on the 31st day after a previous Federal election you have contested or otherwise from the commencement of your candidature and concludes 30 days after polling day. (ie 8 November 2004)

Commencement date of disclosure period

- i) If you have stood previously as a candidate in any of the Federal elections or by-elections listed below, your disclosure period commences from the date indicated against the most recent election contested.

Election	Polling Date	Commencement date for disclosure of donations
General/Senate election	3 October 1998	3 November 1998
Ryan by-election	17 March 2001	17 April 2001
Aston by-election	14 July 2001	14 August 2001
General/Senate election	10 November 2001	11 December 2001
Cunningham by-election	19 October 2002	19 November 2002

- ii) If you have not stood previously as a candidate in a Federal election or by-election, and:

- you stood at this election as an endorsed candidate, your disclosure period commences from the date of your endorsement for this election; or
- you stood at this election as an independent candidate, your disclosure period commences from the date that you declared your candidacy; or
- you were appointed to a casual Senate vacancy, your disclosure period commences from the date that you were appointed.

ELECTION DONATIONS

Indicate below the total value of donations received during the disclosure period (as determined according to the instructions on the previous page), the total number of donors who made those donations, and the details of individual donors.

Note:

- donations include monetary receipts and gifts-in-kind (as defined in the handbook);
- a donation received by an endorsed candidate but passed to the party is not required to be disclosed in this return;
- a donation received by the campaign committee of an endorsed candidate does not need to be included as it is to be included in the return lodged by the party; and
- a personal gift received by a candidate is not required to be disclosed.
