PRESS RELEASE

By Mr J. Mervyn JONES, the Deputy Chief Constable of Cheshire and Officer in day-to-day command of the initial investigation and more recently has acted as the Coroner's Officer.

He said:-

"I have no comment to make about the verdicts, nor has the Coroner, Dr Stefan POPPER.

The investigation into the circumstances surrounding the tragedy at Hillsborough has been exhaustive and comprehensive. At the height of the investigation nearly 500 West Midlands Police Officers were involved. Upon completion of the bulk of the work by the Summer of 1989, the team was reduced to 62, and from November 1990 onwards, a team of 12 Officers has been dedicated to supporting the Coroner for his Inquests.

During the course of the inquiry as a whole, contact has been made with over 13,000 people, over 5,000 statements have been taken, 9,000 questionnaires completed, over 2,400 photographs examined and 71 hours of video viewed.

The product of these extensive investigations was made available to Lord Justice TAYLOR, the Director of Public Prosecutions, the Police Complaints Authority, and latterly to the Coroner.

At the opening of the investigation I stated that this tragedy would be investigated thoroughly; this we have done.

"As a matter of interest the Coroner's Inquests, sitting with a Jury, have been the longest running in recent history, if not for all time. Including the interim inquests in April/May of last year the Coroner's Court sat for a total of ninety three days over a total of nineteen weeks. There were over 520 appearances by witnesses and 540 exhibits examined. The transcripts of the proceedings amounted to over 8,650 pages recording over 3.6 million words spoken.

THERE WILL BE NO SEPARATE INTERVIEWS WITH MR JONES OR THE CORONER."
