

GREEKS ENTER BRUSSA; TURKISH RAIDS GO ON

Nationalist Leaders Hanged for Attack on Beikos—Greek Villages Are Burned.

BRUSSA, Asia Minor, July 8 (Associated Press)—Formal entry into this city by the Greek troops was effected at 11 o'clock this morning. There was no resistance except that offered by a few Nationalist snipers.

Virtually all the Turks in the city, except old men, women and children, bolted or hid, and the aged Moslems knelt before the historic mosques of the first capital of the Osmanlis and lowered their foreheads into the dust as the invading army passed. The same attitude of submission greeted the Greek cavalry, which pushed on from Brussa to Mudania, where it arrived late this afternoon.

British marines landed at Geumlek Wednesday, arrested eleven prominent Nationalists. The remainder of the band bolted, but were intercepted and killed in the hills by a band of Armenians.

All approaches to Brussa from the sea are now controlled by the British and Greeks.

---

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 10.—Bandits are continuing their raids along the northern shore of the Gulf of Ismid and the eastern shore of the Bosphorus.

The British have hanged eighteen Nationalist leaders and the Greeks have hanged twelve, all charged with instigating attacks at Beikos and other points near Constantinople, in the Straits zone fixed by the treaty.

British warships are still bombarding bandits in the neighborhood of Beikos. There was also fighting on Friday in the vicinity of Pendik. The Greek villages of Tal and Kurossi, near Kerasun, on the Black Sea, have been burned by Nationalists, who are charged with having murdered many Greeks.

The Nationalists apparently are extending their attacks to numerous Greek villages in Northern Anatolia, in retaliation for the Greek advance from Smyrna.

---

ISMID, Asia Minor, July 8 (Associated Press).—There has been little actual fighting in this vicinity for the past week, although Nationalist bands occasionally threaten the British outposts.