

SUPPLIER CODE OF CONDUCT

Version 9.0

»» MAIN PRINCIPLES FOR SUPPLIERS

The Scan Global Logistics Group (“we,” “our,” and “us”) is a global organisation that offers express and logistic services. Social and environmental considerations are deeply rooted and integrated into our business model and operations in our day-to-day interaction with local communities, customers, employees, and other stakeholders. Thus, we have given ourselves a strict set of ethical values to guide us in our business dealings.

We require all our suppliers, i.e. all companies who do business with any Scan Global Logistics Group company, to adhere to the same ethical principles. For this purpose, the Scan Global Logistics Group has drawn up this Supplier Code of Conduct, which sets the standards for doing business with a Scan Global Logistics Group company.

The supplier shall warrant that its sub-suppliers, sub-contractors and other business partners comply with the terms and conditions in this Supplier Code of Conduct.

We will review and update (if necessary) this policy annually.

»» LAWS AND ETHICAL STANDARDS

The supplier shall comply with all laws applicable to its business. The supplier must adhere to the principles of the United Nations Global Compact, the UN Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and the 1998 International Labour Organization Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work, according to national law and practice. This especially applies to – but is not limited to – the below-mentioned topics and compliance initiatives.

»» CHILD LABOR

The supplier employs no children under the age of 15. If national laws or regulations allow children between the ages of 13 and 15 to perform light work, such work is not permitted in any case if it would hinder a minor from the completion of compulsory schooling or training, or if the employment would be harmful to their health or development (reference: ILO Convention 138(7)).

»» FORCED LABOR AND MODERN SLAVERY

The supplier shall make no use of modern slavery, forced or compulsory labor and human trafficking. They shall follow the principles set out in the UK Modern Slavery Act 2015, and where required issue yearly statements regarding their commitments, actions, and risk assessment in relation thereof. Suppliers must not request employees to deposit money or equivalent or original identification documents nor pay recruitment or employment fees or costs.

» COMPENSATION AND WORKING HOURS

The supplier shall comply with the respective national laws and regulations regarding working hours, wages, and benefits. We further expect the supplier to respect the rights to favorable working conditions including a living wage or pay in line with industry standards.

» MUTUAL RESPECT AND OPENNESS

Employees of the supplier shall be free to join or not join a union/employee representation of their choice, free from threat or intimidation. The supplier must respect its employees' rights to collectively bargain in accordance with applicable law.

» DISCRIMINATION

The supplier prohibits discrimination based on race, color, sex, language, religion, political or other opinions, national or social origin, property, birth, or another status. We further expect our suppliers to consider the diversity of their employees as a strength, and promote an inclusive work environment, where the main criteria for employee selection are skills and qualifications. The supplier shall take into consideration the health and livelihood of minorities, local communities and indigenous people, and preserve cultural and ritual sites. The supplier must also commit to respect women's rights and help develop skills and open up opportunities.

» HEALTH AND SAFETY

We expect our suppliers to strive to implement occupational health and safety standards at a high level. The supplier complies with applicable occupational health and safety regulations and provides a work environment that is safe and conducive to good health in order to preserve the health of employees and prevent accidents, injuries, and work-related illnesses.

»» BUSINESS CONTINUITY PLANNING

The supplier shall be prepared for any disruptions of its business (e.g., natural disasters, terrorism, software viruses, illness, pandemic, infectious diseases). This preparedness mainly includes disaster plans to protect employees and the environment as far as possible from the effects of potential disasters that arise within the domain of operations.

»» CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

The supplier shall maintain high ethical standards in handling conflicts of interest.

»» FAIR COMPETITION

The supplier must commit to free enterprise and fair competition. Its business must be conducted solely based on merit and open competition. The supplier and its employees must avoid any conduct that violates antitrust laws.

»» IMPROPER PAYMENTS/BRIBERY

The supplier shall comply with international anti-bribery standards as stated in the United Nations Global Compact and local anti-corruption and bribery laws. In particular, the supplier may not offer services, gifts, or benefits to the Scan Global Logistics Group employees to influence employee conduct in representing the Scan Global Logistics Group.

»» ENVIRONMENT

The supplier shall comply with all applicable environmental laws, regulations, and standards and implement an effective system to identify and eliminate potential hazards to the environment including air & water quality and consumption. It is expected that the supplier has a sustainable resource management system in place hereunder waste reduction and waste recycling policies and responsible chemical handling. We expect our suppliers to consider risk scenarios within air, water, biodiversity, land use, deforestation, animal welfare, soil pollution and noise emissions, when determining their field of action. In this regard, we further expect our suppliers to oppose unlawful eviction and deprivation of lands, forests and waters.

We expect our business partners to support the Scan Global Logistics Group's science-based emissions reduction targets (to reduce absolute scope 1 and 2 GHG emissions by 42% by 2030 from a 2021 base year and to reduce scope 3 GHG emissions from upstream transportation and distribution 51.6% per tonne-km within the same timeframe) through the products and services they deliver including providing relevant data on climate protection progress. In this regard, we also expect our suppliers to take climate protection appropriately into account in their own operations and reduce GHG emissions by setting science-based climate targets for themselves and achieving them.

» BUSINESS PARTNER DIALOGUE

The supplier shall communicate the principles stated in this Supplier Code of Conduct and detailed above to its subcontractors and other business partners, who are involved in supplying the products and services described in the main contract. The supplier shall warrant that such parties adhere to the same principles.

» ACCOUNTING AND REPORTING STANDARDS

We expect our suppliers' business transactions to be reflected accurately in their accounts in accordance with established procedures and auditing standards, and generally accepted accounting principles. Their accounting records shall reflect and describe the nature of the underlying transactions. Our suppliers shall implement and take appropriate measure to prevent counterfeit parts or suspected counterfeit parts.

» PRIVATE OR PUBLIC SECURITY FORCES

If our suppliers engage security personnel, we expect that they respect all internationally recognized human rights, and further ensure that the personnel receive adequate guidance and training. We do not tolerate any unlawful conduct towards employees or third parties.

» CUSTOMS HANDLING

The Scan Global Logistics Group expects our suppliers to act according to the EU's Customs legislation and not participate in any illegal activities. Suppose a supplier becomes aware of any security breaches when acting as a part in an international supply chain. In that case, they immediately shall inform the relevant customs authorities and their contact at the Scan Global Logistics Group.

»» DATA PROTECTION AND DISCLOSURE OF OTHER DATA

The Scan Global Logistics Group expects our suppliers to comply with relevant laws regarding data protection, trade secrets, and other relevant legal frameworks regarding data handling.

»» COMPLIANCE WITH THE SUPPLIER CODE OF CONDUCT

The Scan Global Logistics Group reserves the right, upon reasonable notice, to perform holistic supplier assessments and audit the suppliers' compliance with the requirements of the Supplier Code of Conduct. The Scan Global Logistics Group requires its suppliers to implement their own binding guidelines for ethical behavior.

Any breach of the obligations stipulated in this Supplier Code of Conduct is considered a material breach of contract by the supplier.

If you have questions related to the Supplier Code of Conduct, please contact our Global General Counsel at hchr@scangl.com.

By signing an agreement with Scan Global Logistics Group as a supplier, you acknowledge complying with the principles and obligations as set out in this Supplier Code of Conduct.

Last review December 2023